Hundreds of Shipyard Workers Report For Duty; Employers Believe Thousands More Will Soon Fall in Line

FORMAL OFFER TO MEN TO BE MADE TOMORROW; MACY SCALE TO PREVAIL

First Day's Response to Reinstatement Offer Equals the Estimates Which Yard Owners Had Made

ROLLS TO CLOSE WEDNESDAY

Immediate results of the invitation of bay shipyards to their former employees to return to work at the previous schedule were in evidence at every yard on this side of the bay this morning. Despite the fact that news of the offer had been but imperfectly disseminated, shipyard workers crowded some of the yards so hard that, after a forenoon's work on the part of registering clerks, there were still long lines of applicants waiting to sign.

Later this afternoon the California Metal Trades Association announced that between 2000 and 3000 men had signed to return to work in the entire bay district. This, it was announced, is considered a good showing, and cause for the belief that by closing time tonight the figures will be greatly increased.

Estimates furnished from the company offices at noon showed that upward of 1700 men had registered to return to work on November 19, if enough have joined them by that time to warrant the companies in resuming operations. In view of the brief notice and the fact that many men who struck a month and a half ago have found other employment, the returns were considered by the companies eminently satisfactory.

MEN WAIT IN LINE FOR CHANCE TO REGISTER

The same tale was told at the offices of each company when the registration had proceeded for half a day. Men ready to sign before the windows opened, men waiting in line thereafter for the privilege, so many men, in fact, that the original force of clerks was, at two or more of the yards, increased before the morning was over.

Five hundred had signed up by noon to return to work at the Alameda plant of the Bethlehem Shipbuilding Corporation. At the Moore & Scott yards 600 had signed, and there were long lines in waiting which, the registration clerks declared, they were handling as rapidly as possible.

300 REGISTERED AT UNION YARDS

The Union Construction Company reported upward of 300 registered at noon and anticipated 500 for the day. The Union employed about 3000 men before the shutdown.

The Hanlon Drydock and Shipbuilding Company reported better than 150 men registered at noon. The officials were confident that the day would bring a good representation, estimated at 300.

None of the yards would indicate with what number of men they would resume operations, passing the decision of that matter up to the employers' association.

Frank C. Miller, secretary of the Metal Trades Council conference committee, declared, this afternoon, that less than 50 men had reported back for work at the various bay shipyards as a result of the employers' offer. The conference committee of the Bay Cities Metal Trades Council today issued the following statement:

"The move on the part of the shipyard and metal trades employers in advertising for men to register for work from now until November 19, does not alter the position of the unions or the metal trades council one iota.

"The employers' paid advertisement appearing in the public press reeks with mis-statements. The true story of the agreement, how it was arrived at and how it was broken by the employers, is well known to all our members.

CALLS MEN WHO SIGN UP, SCABS.

"Our members know they are on strike for an increase in wages of 8 cents per hour, the employer is not offering that. His move is a deliberate attempt to break up the unions and establish the open shop, a condition he would have created long ago if he was able. The unions have absolutely nothing to thank the employers for in this district, as they have had to fight for everything they have accomplished.

"We have absolute confidence in our members and have no fear of any of them registering for employment as scabs, for that is exactly what anyone who registers will be doing, i. e., signifying his willingness to become a strikebreaker.

"The employers attempt to break the union will meet with absolute failure."

The statement is signed by R. W. Burton, M. J. McGuire, Daniel J. White, J. Bradford, Secretary Miller, forming the conference committee.

TRANSBAY YARDS EXPECT MEN TO ACCEPT

Although San Francisco shipyards were impressed with the belief that acceptance of the yards' offer would be made by their former employees similar to that in the Eastbay, morning developments were not as noticeable a sort as here. The Union plant of the Bethlehem Shipbuilding Corporation was receiving the signatures of a number of former employees but it was declared this number would considerably increase as the companies' offer gained publicity.

At the Schaw-Batcher shipyard, in South San Francisco, it was stated that the company's employment office would not open until the late afternoon. Company officials said that a large number of men carrying tools were amassed at the main gate of the yards and that many other workers were reported to be on their way to the plant.

MACY SCALE TO GOVERN, BELIEF

Resumption of operations at the yards will be upon the basis of pay established by the Macy scale according to decision of the employers as expressed in their published announcement. The announcement says that the increased wages, the nonpayment of which was the excuse for the strike, cannot and will not be paid. The employers pledge themselves, through the California Metal Trades Association, to maintain the existing scale of wages for one year from October 1. The statement is made, the announcement says, by way of assurance that there will be no cut in wages.

The Macy scale, upon the basis of which resumption of work is offered the men, provided for 80 cents an hour, the same rate that prevailed when the 35,000 men walked away from their labors on October 1. The additional eight cents an hour, demanded by the men before the strike decision, will not be allowed.

BODIES OF FIRST AMERICANS KILLED IN RUSSIA HOME

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS
LEASED WIRE TO TRIBUNE.

NEW YORK, Nov. 13. — In the chill of a November rain, the nation accorded honors today to the first of its heroic dead, brought back from world battlefields. On a flag-draped army pier in Hoboken the bodies of 103 American soldiers who gave up their lives in Northern Russia and of 10 sailors who died with the navy's forces "in farthest north" waters, received their benediction. Their coffins had been swung ashore in rope nets one by one from the little transport Lake Daraga last night when the funeral ship arrived from Brest.

Eighteen long rows of caskets, each draped with an American flag and decked with autumn flowers, gave silent testimony to the supreme sacrifice of the country's fighting men beyond the seas. The Congress of the United States, the Army, Navy, American Legion, the State of Michigan, where most of the heroes lived, and the city of Detroit, all joined in honoring them. With the official representations stood a little group of relatives of the dead. Floral tributes and a representation from the Russian embassy acknowledged gratitude to the American soldiers who fell in Russia in the cause of humanity.

FORMAL SERVICES ARE CONDUCTED ON PIER

While rain pattered on the pier shed, the services began with "Lead, Kindly Light," played by the 13th Infantry band, and the reading of the 23d Psalm, "The Lord Is My Shepherd."

United States Senator Wadsworth of New York voiced the official "welcome home" to the "first company of our dead, no less triumphant in their home-coming than those regiments, battalions and companies of the living we have seen marching through our streets."

Governor Sleeper of Michigan in an address, read by Major Ralph Duff, paid his tribute to the fallen.

DIED TO PERPETUATE AMERICAN PRINCIPLES

"These all died in the faith," he said. "They died in the faith that government of the people, by the people, for the people, is best, that it is worth fighting for; that country dedicated to righteousness and consecrated to freedom, is worth living for—worth dying for.

"It is for us, the living so to live, so to play our parts as citizens of our several States and as citizens of this great Republic, that we may be accounted worthy of the great sacrifices these dead have made for us."

MRS. ROBERT A. McLEAN, who is the reason her husband does not want his other forty "wives."

BERKELEY SULTAN BRINGS COUNTESS WIFE FROM EAST

BERKELEY, Nov. 13.—The secret is out.

No longer is it a mystery why Robert A. McLean, former sergeant in the United States Marine Corps, does not want his forty "wives."

The explanation lies in some five feet two or three inches of dainty femininity who answers to the name of "Mrs. McLean" and who is a guest with her husband at Cloyne Court in this city.

Exactly one year ago McLean claimed his charming bride in New York, but it is only today that an announcement was made of the wedding. Mrs. McLean can almost outrival her husband in claims to royalty for she is no less than countess in her own right.

Before her marriage Mrs. McLean was the Countess Eva Margaret Wisnewski, daughter of Count Stanislaus Wisnewski of Warsaw, holder of one of the largest estates in Poland before the war. Count Wisnewski and his daughter fled as refugees to America after all of their holdings in their native land were either confiscated or destroyed barely escaping with their lives in the mad flight for liberty.

WAR ACTIVITY IS CAUSE OF MEETING

It was in New York that the then Sergeant McLean met Count Wisnewski while both were engaged in war experiment activities. The introduction of the dapper young Pole led on to the pretty young countess, not but nineteen years of age, followed in the course of a close friendship which grew up between the two men and a hasty courtship resulted in a marriage which until now was not revealed to the world.

"You see," explains the young bridegroom, "when I fell heir to my forty wives I realized that my one real wife and the only one I wanted would be bothered to death by newspaper folks so we just kept quiet. Now that we are here in California among my old friends I am only too happy to proclaim her to the world."

Mrs. McLean doesn't object to the forty wives which her husband has inherited from the sultan of Llang Llang, together with his other possessions in the little island of the Philippine group—but she is going along to reign as sultana when he begins his work of distribution.

WILL GO ALONG BUT DOESN'T FEAR OTHERS

"Of course I'll go with my husband," says the pretty young bride. "Afraid of the forty wives? Oh, no never! But I'm just curious to see them, that's all."

His experiences in the Philippines and the subsequent inheritance of the island possession of the sultan who had taken a strong liking to him reading like the libretto of a comic opera, McLean will add another act to the series of events when he leaves after the holiday season to formally take over his island possession.

"But don't, for heaven's sake," says the sergeant-sultan, "let the impression get out for a minute that I would keep those forty wives if I didn't have one of my own already. That could never, never be!"

At Cloyne Court, McLean and his bride are guests of the former's aunt, Miss Mary E. McLean, where they will remain to spend Christmas.

S. F. BREWERS TO MAKE REAL BEER, CLAIM

Liquor Men Believe Injunction Will Be Granted in Federal Court, Similar to "Verdicts" Rendered in Eastern States

Judge Evans, of Louisville, Again Holds Wartime Prohibition Unconstitutional; Theo. Bell Ready to Act

Formal notification that brewers throughout California immediately will begin brewing and distributing of beer with an alcoholic content of 2.75 per cent was served late today on Internal Revenue Collector Justus S. Wardell by Rudolph Samet, president of the California State Brewers' Association, according to a statement issued by Collector Wardell.

Wardell said that if the brewers proceeded with their announced plan he would refer all violations to U. S. District Attorney Annette Adams. Wardell pointed out that there was nothing in the law to prohibit brewers from purchasing revenue stamps and until he is ordered to the contrary he would consider brewing or distribution of beer of more than one-half of one per cent alcoholic content a violation of the law.

Samet asserted that he had communicated with the internal revenue collector and had advised him of the brewers' wishes to begin brewing and distribution of beer of a higher alcoholic content. He declined to confirm the fact that he had served notice on Wardell.

PLANS OF BREWERS NOT COMPLETED

A conference attended by members of the California State Brewers' Association to consider possible legal action to prevent the further enforcement of the wartime prohibition act, adjourned this afternoon until tomorrow afternoon. According to Samet no definite plan was decided upon, action being held in abeyance pending further advice from their legal adviser, Theodore Bell, and anticipated advices from Eastern cities. He said the conference centered principally upon whether to secure an injunction against the Federal authorities and whether to brew beer of an alcoholic content of 2.75 per cent or more.

JUDGE MORROW COMMENTS ON EASTERN DECISION

Judge W. W. Morrow of the United States circuit court of appeals said with regard to the Rhode Island and Kentucky decisions:

"Any such decision by a federal court of similar jurisdiction in another state would receive the most respectful consideration of any federal court sitting in California."

Rudolph Samet, president of the Brewers' association, and Bell are confident that the injunction for which they will pray will be granted. The moment it is granted, says Samet, the brewers will recommence manufacture of 5 per cent beer.

On the other hand, strenuous opposition to any such effort to beat the wartime prohibition act here is promised by United States Attorney Adams. She says:

"The constitutionality of the wartime prohibition act has been upheld in this jurisdiction by Federal Judges Van Fleet and Sawtelle. I am confident that the Rhode Island decision will not cause the local jurists to reverse their opinions."

Theodore Bell, who is representing the brewers, is attending the conference and said he was ready to proceed along any line of action decided upon by his clients. He said:

"Without being premature I assume that I will be authorized to apply to the United States court for a temporary injunction against the further enforcement of the wartime prohibition act. This would appear to be the next logical step as a result of yesterday's verdict in Rhode Island."

LOUISVILLE, Nov. 13. — Judge Walter Evans in Federal district court today in effect for the second time held war-time prohibition unconstitutional when he sustained an attack upon the constitutionality of the Volstead enforcement act and granted an injunction restraining Elwood Hamilton, collector of internal revenue for Kentucky, and District Attorney W. V. Gregory from interfering with the sale of two Louisville distillers of their "floor stock" of tax paid whiskey.

Aviators, Bound For Australia, Killed in Crash

(By Associated Press)

LONDON, Nov. 13.—Lieutenant R. M. Douglas, of the Australian Flying Corps, and Lieut. J. S. L. Ross, his navigator, who started from Hounslow today for a flight to Australia, were killed shortly after they began their journey. Their airplane crashed near Subiton in Surrey.

Lieutenant Douglas and Lieutenant Ross were entrants in the reliability flight from England to Australia for the Australian government's prize of $50,000. The conditions of the flight are that the distance of 11,500 miles must be covered within thirty days.

OAKLAND WOMEN TO PLAN FIGHT ON LIVING COST

Formally to organize in a campaign directed toward reducing the present high cost of living, the women of Oakland will assemble in the mayor's chamber of the city hall at 2 p. m. on Monday. All housewives, delegates from organized groups, and women in general have been summoned to the symposium. Some definite program of effort will probably result and some determined work inaugurated directly toward an immediate reduction in bread prices, with action in the matter of eggs, butter and milk to follow. The organization of the Oakland women will be similar to that already carrying on a vigorous campaign in Berkeley, where a boycott has been declared on 17-cent bread.

Officers for directing the local drive against high costs will probably be elected as the outcome of the Monday conference. There will be no formal program or speakers to take up the hour. The mass meeting will be a spontaneous expression of the housewives and a self determination of their future.

Stating that it had today come to their ears that a threat had been made to annihilate the small baker, woman leaders in Oakland today declared that they were ready to protect the little dealer if he can continue to provide them bread at reasonable prices.

The investigation committee appointed by Mayor Rolph in San Francisco, after a hearing with the bakers yesterday, determined that the charge that undue profit was being exacted was not warranted. The increase in cost, according to the bakers, was due to the difference in the quality of flour, wages, sanitary wrappers and other expenses. Larry Dolan, sealer of weights and measures, will be requested to make a further investigation. The committee has taken the matter under advisement.

Boycott of 17-cent bread has spread to the faculty and students in the University of California, following an appeal sent out yesterday by the Housewives League of Berkeley.

CUMMINS WILL URGE STATUTE TO END STRIKE

WASHINGTON, Nov. 13. — Drastic legislation prohibiting strikes, lockouts and labor troubles in practically every branch of American industry, will be presented in the Senate as amendments to the railroad bill by Senator Cummins, Republican, of Iowa, he announced in the Senate this afternoon.

Senator Cummins said neither [illegible] committee who advocated the anti-strike legislation in the railroad legislation, has changed their views on the subject.

DEMOCRATS IN SENATE LOSE DEBATE FIGHT

Attempt by Minority to Throttle Discussion on Treaty Amendments Fail As the Republicans Hold Control

Petition for Cloture Rule Enforcement is Rejected on Account of Naming Only Reservations by Sen. Lodge

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS
LEASED WIRE TO TRIBUNE

WASHINGTON, Nov. 13.—An attempt by Democratic senators to invoke the cloture rule so as to limit debate on the foreign relations committee reservations to the peace treaty failed today in the Senate.

By a vote of 44 to 36, with all of the Republicans present and Senators Reed, Missouri, and Shields, Tennessee, Democrats, voting in the affirmative, the Senate adopted a motion by Republican Leader Lodge to table an appeal from a ruling that the Democratic motion was out of order.

The Democratic petition for cloture had been held out of order by the chair because it sought to limit debate only on the reservations and not on the whole treaty. It was for this reason, Senator Lodge said, that the Republicans opposed the move.

OFFER BY SEN. WALSH IS EASILY DEFEATED.

The Senate voted down, 68 to 4, the proposal by Senator Walsh, Democrat, Montana, to amplify the reservation to Article 10 of the League of Nations covenant so that other nations would be under no obligation to aid the United States in preserving its territorial integrity. Those voting for the proposal were: Walsh, Montana, and Pittman, Nevada, Democrats, and LaFollette, Wisconsin, and Norris, Nebraska, Republicans.

The petition to limit debate on the peace treaty by invoking the Senate's cloture rule was presented to the Senate today by Democratic Leader Hitchcock. It bore the signatures of twenty-two Democratic senators who favor ratification without reservations.

MOVE FOLLOWS EARLY CONFERENCE IN MORNING.

The move followed a morning conference of the administration forces at which it was decided to take aggressive measures against what it was feared might develop into a stubborn filibuster against the treaty.

Senator McCumber of North Dakota, prominent among the "mild reservationists" on the Republican side, announced that in a very short time a cloture rule covering the entire treaty would be presented.

INDICTMENT OF STATE OFFICIAL EXPECTED TODAY

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 13—District Attorney Thomas L. Woolwine today revealed that he had refused to dismiss the 18 indictments standing in the courts here against J. J. McNamara, now serving a 15-year sentence in San Quentin for the dynamiting of the Los Angeles Times building in 1910.

In so doing it is understood that no stands in the way of McNamara securing an immediate parole as under the State law the State parole board is prevented from considering applications for parole when other charges stand against the prisoner.

Woolwine was asked recently to dismiss these indictments by labor leaders from all parts of the country, he revealed. Lincoln Steffens is said to have been particularly active in the movement.

Slowly Awakens Out of Slumber of Sixteen Days

LIVERMORE, Nov. 13.—After a sleep of sixteen days, Oscar L. Ohlson yesterday awakened sufficiently to be able to walk around, accompanied by a nurse.

Ohlson is still far from wide awake. He shows a tendency to doze off frequently, especially when his surroundings are favorable. Then he has to be reawakened. Ohlson does not yet seem fully cognizant of his surroundings or where he has been. It may be a week before he is fully recovered, it is said.

Ohlson's malady followed shortly after he had recovered from influenza. He is a mill man in the northern part of the state and came to visit relatives here. Shortly after his arrivel the malady appeared. Dr. W. L. Meyers was summoned and has since been attending him.

DEATH PENALTY FOR N. Y. REDS IS LEAGUE DEMAND

NEW YORK, Nov. 13.—Demand that the death penalty be sought for "reds" held here on criminal anarchy charges, is made by the Law and Order union, in a letter to the senate judiciary committee.

"The law passed by congress specifically provides such acts are acts of treason and punishable by death," the letter reads.

It also contained a protest against the "loose manner" in which the department of justice is conducting the campaign against Bolshevists, anarchists and "traitors."

Hearing on the cases of James Larkin, Irish agitator, and Benjamin Gitlow, former New York assemblyman, was scheduled to continue today.

Evidence has been obtained of publication of 16,000 copies of the "Revolutionary Age," containing the Communist manifesto urging overthrow of the government, Larkin and Gitlow are specifically charged with editing, publishing and distributing this Communist organ.

Twenty-three other alleged revolutionists taken in raids by the Lusk legislative committee and charged with criminal anarchy, were to have their first hearing today. Attorneys for the Communists announced they would base their defense on an attack upon the constitutionality of the state criminal anarchy law.

FRENCH FIRST USED SYMBOL 'X' IN ALGEBRA

BERKELEY, Nov. 13.—Once again the Allies have been declared victorious over Germany.

It was announced today on the University of California campus that Dr. Florian Cajori, of the mathematics department had, at the request of the publishers of the Oxford Dictionary, investigated the origin of the use of the symbol "x" as the "unknown quantity" in algebra.

Claims have been made that this use was of German origin, but Professor Cajori has made a definite reply, stating that the French mathematician Descartes was the first to use "x" in this sense.

The symbol was first used by the French in 1637, according to Cajori, and there are ample proofs to show that the German claim should be rejected.

JAILED I. W. W. VIEW BODY OF DEAD COMRADE

Lynched Radical Will Be Buried Without Ceremony As Undertakers Refuse to Give the Remains Usual Service

Coroner to Hold Inquest Over Slain Soldiers Today; First Degree Murder to Be Charge Against the Men Arrested

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.

CENTRALIA, Wash., Nov. 13.—"Jack" Curtis, Centralia barber, and his son, Cecil Curtis, arrested here today, have confessed, officials said, that they were on Seminary hill while riflemen, posted on the hill, poured bullets into the Armistice day parade, here Tuesday. The two said they were armed but claimed they did no shooting. Both carried I. W. W. cards.

CENTRALIA, Wash., Nov. 13.—George Paxton, member of the patrol guarding the military road to Chehalis here as a consequence of the red riots, was fired upon early today. Six bullets were fired, one passing through Paxton's clothing, without injuring him.

Paxton, with other guards, was crossing the Chehalis river not ten feet from the spot where the body of Ernest Everetts, lynched I. W. W., was dragged ashore. The firing came from an ambush. Paxton and two other guards returned the fire, but were unable to determine its effect.

William R. Haynes was arrested here today at a logging camp fifteen miles from town. The sheriff's office characterized the arrest as "important." It was said Haynes was one of three I. W. W. posted on a ridge and who fired into the armistice marchers on November 11.

SUSPECTS LOOK AT DEAD COMRADE'S BODY

In a city jail cell here lies the body of an alleged I. W. W., riddled with bullets and the neck swollen and cut by the rope with which the man was lynched.

The body is in full sight of the 33 alleged I. W. W. prisoners who will be charged with conspiring to murder former soldiers who fought in France.

The sight was intended as an object lesson not only for the prisoners huddled in their cells but to all men who fail to respect the men who fought for the United States. It was a terrible object lesson.

The body, variously known as that of "Brick" Smith and Wesley or Earnest Everetts, will be taken sometime today in a motor truck to a lot at the outskirts of the city and thrown into a trench without burial service. Undertakers here have persistently refused to touch it.

An inquest was held over the remains of the lynched man last night on the river bank at the spot where it was pulled out of the stream.

The verdict was that the "deceased came to his death by gunshot wounds and strangulation caused by persons unknown."

Chief of Police E. A. Hughes told the United Press this morning that the lynched man's name was Wesley Everetts, according to his best information. He added that Everetts was one of the most radical I. W. W.'s in the state of Washington.

Other officials said the man had been known in Centralia as Ernest Everetts.

The body was dragged through the streets last night. Then it was taken to the jail and held up before the prisoners. The gruesome parade then was continued through the streets.

FIRST DEGREE MURDER, CHARGE AGAINST REDS

Dr. David Livingston, county coroner, planned to hold an inquest today over the bodies of the four former soldiers, dead as a result of the I. W. W. attack.

Information charging the I. W. W. prisoners with first degree murder will be filed at Chehalis, the county seat, immediately after the inquest, Herman Allen, county prosecuting attorney, said today. He declared he probably would bring murder charges against all the men in jail.

Police today said that in Eugene Barnette, who was arrested at Mendota, Wash., near here, yesterday by former service men, they had one of the I. W. W. ringleaders. Barnette, they charged, did not shoot on the marching soldiers from the downtown buildings, but fired from a hillside not far from the scene of the attack.

During the night, the State troops, former soldiers and police brought in more alleged I. W. W., making a total of over thirty held at the city jail here and the county jail at Chehalis, Wash., four miles from here. Among the prisoners were five Finns, all alleged I. W. W., who were found together in a tailor shop. They were Simon Hill, 54; A. Johnson, 52; Bob Carson, 50; Arthur Kongos, 34, and Mack Westerbach, 41.

The four former soldiers who were killed when the radicals attacked will be buried today, at a public military funeral to be held under the auspices of the Grant Hoge Post of the American Legion. Warren Grimm, Centralia attorney, one of the dead, was commander of the post.

Shipyard Men Ready for Work Rolls Signed by Several Hundred

lowed, it is announced by the employers' association.

"If sufficient applications are received by November 19," the announcement states, "by all the shipyards and shops, the shipyards and shops will open shortly thereafter, the date to be announced later."

"Otherwise," the announcement states, "the yards, shops and plants will remain closed."

The decision to offer resumption of operations was made last night by the employers after a referendum vote of the entire membership of the California Metal Trades Association. The decision was based upon the recommendation of the policy committee of the association. The procedure is the same as that of the Los Angeles employers, who resumed operations last week, where it was said that 500 men in excess of the number required appeared ready for work.

As a further condition to the resumption of work it is intimated in the announcement that there must be an eradication of the "abuses which grew up in the shops during the war." The subject is covered in the following language:

"When the yards and shops reopen it will be only under conditions which will guarantee the elimination of abuses which crept in during the war, such as deliberate reduction of output, the silent strike, the boycott, restrictions and manipulation of the local labor market."

The employers' statement says that these conditions resulted in production in the local yards falling below that of Seattle, Los Angeles, Stockton and other surrounding localities.

"Self-preservation, yours as well as ours," demands a change," the announcement concludes.

The announcement says that the strike has taken out of circulation in the bay district $9,000,000, and that every week of its continuance will cost the community $1,500,000.

Spokane Starts To Arrest All Reds

SPOKANE, Wash., Nov. 13. — Swooping down upon every known I. W. W. and radical hangout in the city, the police department at noon today began a round-up that is intend to rid the city of every vestige of the Industrialists.

Prior to the raid warrants were issued for James Rowan, one of the alleged I. W. W. tried at Chicago several months ago and an acknowledged leader of the Industrialists in the northwest, and for James Robertson, an avowed I. W. W. delegate.

John Doe warrants also were issued for all I. W. W.

Simultaneously proceedings were begun to deport Sam Crane, disbarred Spokane attorney, who has been prominently connected with the radicals here for years.

Man With Alleged Bad Check Jailed

A rigid police investigation is being conducted today in connection with the arrest of Ben Flint early this morning at Thirteenth and Washington streets, who had in his possession seven alleged fictitious checks.

Each of the checks was signed by a different name. They were each made out for $50.

Flint is formally charged with drunkeness by Officer Dan Fleming. He was found wandering about the downtown section early today when picked up.

Flint is held in a cell at the city prison, while police inspectors are comparing Bertillon measurements in the police identification bureau.

MORSE PLANS TO LOOK OUT FOR RADICALS

(By Associated Press)

SEATTLE, Nov. 13. — Federal officers totay raided the office of the Seattle Union Record, seized the entire plant and arrested several employees, E. B. Ault, the editor among them. United States District Attorney Robert C. Saunders said the office was raided on instructions from Washington D. C. Ault was arrested on a warrant charging him with violating the Espionage ait.

The Record, editorially yesterday, said the rioting at Centralia, was "the result of a long series of illegal" acts by the dead former soldiers themselves.

F. F. Morse, commissioner of public safety, announced today that in order to meet the issue raised by the recent manifestations of radicalism in Oakland and elsewhere on the Coast, he would take up with Chief of Police J. F. Lynch tomorrow the proposal to place the handling of all radical disturbances in the hands of a centralized bureau, modeled after the neutrality bureau that was in operation during the war. This bureau will investigate all reported activities in opposition to established law and order and take actions to make suppressions.

The bureau will be in charge of an inspector of police and two assistants. It is expected that Inspector Fenton Thompson, who has been detailed to make an investigation of the all-day Sunday convention of the communist party at Loring hall for the department and the federal authorities, will be in charge.

A drop in call money is the key to the situation, it is explained. Call money is the term used to describe loans made for an extremely short time—sometimes for a day only—that can be terinated on demand. In normal times call money often was quoted as low as 2 per cent. For several days it has been quoted at from 14 to 25 per cent. Speculators in need of quick cash negotiate call loans. The tremendous rise in stocks and the vast amount of sales shot call money to high rates.

WALL ST. CRASH TO AID NATION

WASHINGTON, Nov. 13.—Approximately $800,000,000 will be released to help local enterprise throughout the United States as a result of the crash in the New York stock market yesterday, government officials said here today.

This vast sum, when it is no longer attracted by speculation, will be available to local business men in need of cash to increase production, build factory additions, buy new machinery and boost business generally, it is said. This will tend to help reduce prices and living costs, officials hope.

Financial experts here believe that the orgy of speculation which has swept over the country since the armistice, is ended. The treasury sounded a warning against speculation early.

Married Men Held on Vice Charge

While his wife is seriously ill and under the care of a physician, William Parker today is held in the city prison, charged with pandering.

Suspected of bootlegging, Tony Crudo, alleged associate of Parker, was also taken into custody. It is charged he offeredto sell Patrolman Connolly a bottle of whisky for $10. Crudo is held in the city prison for investigation.

MANY FRENCH GIRLS WIVES OF CHINESE

PARIS, Nov. 13.—The large number of marriages between French girls and Chinese laborers in France has resulted in the ministere of the interior warning French women that most of the coolies already have wives in China, where, upon arrival with their husbands, they would be regarded merely as secondary wives.

veteran seriously wounded, was still alive today, although doctors doubted that he would recover.

SEATTLE, Nov. 13.—Several hundred alleged radicals are in jail today in the principal cities of the northwest, according to reports received here. The "round-up" of I. W. W. members and seizure of anarchistic literature is being vigorously pushed as a result of the Centralia massacre Tuesday. Police and American Legion are co-operating in raids on I. W. W. headquarters.

With 37 alleged "reds" in jail here and tons of propaganda seized, police raids, ordered by Mayor Fitzgerald, are continuing.

At Portland, 61 men have been arrested in the last forty-eight hours. Federal agents say 18 of the "reds" are aliens and an attempt to deport them will be made.

A total of 46 alleged I. W. W. have been arrested during the past thirty-six hours by the Tacoma police.

Former soldiers at Astoria, Ore., seized 200 pounds of alleged revolutionary literature in raids on I. W. W. headquarters.

Albert Lang, mill employee at Bend, Ore., is in jail for statements made following the Centralia massacre.

Seattle's Central Labor council last night adopted a resolution decrying violence, but asking labor to refrain from criticizing the action of the I. W. W. in firing on the parade. The resolution placed the blame for the outrage on the heads of what it termed the "lawless business element of Centralia."

Suppress Mouthings Of Agitators Is Plan

OLYMPIA, Wash., Nov. 13.—"You may be sure that the government of the state of Washington will not rest its case until this Centralia outrage is sifted to the bottom and the guilty punished." Governor Louis F. Hart said to the International News Service today. "Just what particular steps will be taken to accomplish this I cannot state offhand, but the public may rest assured they will be thorough. Our present laws cover this class of offenses fairly well," the governor added, "yet they are susceptible of improvement and doubtless will be amended when our legislature next meets in January, 1921.

"Through this we have been lethargic. We have not realized the danger or harboring or giving countenance to this evil element of society. Our people's minds have been busied with other things. The war, for one things, engaged the attention of the public for several years and for the year ended last Tuesday we have been thinking of things more material, we imagine, than the machinations and intrigues of a set of lawless irresponsibles.

"But this Centralia tragedy will awaken the citizenry of Washington to the danger of countenancing the presence of fiends such as those who shot down, in cold blood, young men who had risked their lives on the battlefields to guarantee security of speech, freedom of action and the welfare of every citizen of our beloved nation. From this time on, I trust and believe, there will be concerted action, lawfully, to suppress the mouthings and lawlessness of these teachers of assassination and murderers at heart."

Gen Pershing Raps Outrage of I.W.W.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 13.—General Pershing last night issued a statement in which he said:

"It is a serious outrage that veterans of the world war, parading in uniform in celebration of our national victory, should be shot down in cold blood as was done in Washington.

"Too drastic measures cannot be taken to rid our country of the class of criminals who inspire or commit such crimes."

"Not Guilty," Jury Decides 'Dope' Case

After bitterly assailing the tactics adopted by operatives of the State Board of Pharmacy to secure convictions of Chinese and others for violations of the State poison act, Senator Frank Carr virtually secured exoneration for Wing Kee, his client, this morning in Police Judge George Samuels' court. Kee was tried by a jury.

Kee was charged with selling one dollar's worth of morphine to a "stool pigeon" for the State Board of Pharmacy. The jury brought in a verdict of not guilty.

Man Injured When He Backs Into Car

Backing into a westbound street car at Twelfth and Broadway last night, W. H. Smart of 343 Lester avenue, sustained injuries that caused his removal to the emergency hospital.

According to investigation of the police, Smart was on the car tracks at Twelfth and Broadway and unmindful of the street car, backed into it. He received a scalp wound and slight cuts in the collision.

His injuries are not serious.

Dr. Thompson Trial Set for Wednesday

The trial of Dr. James E. Thompson, accused of performing illegal operations on Miss Pearl Simpson and Mrs. Marie Scanlon, and who was captured on the Mexican border line several weeks ago after having jumped his bail of $20,000, was continued today until Wednesday of next week by Judge James G. Quinn, because of the crowded condition of the Superior Court's calendar.

OFFICIAL SERIOUSLY ILL

The illness of Assistant City Engineer Frank M. ## War on Reds Begun By Modesto Legion

MODESTO, Calif., Nov. 13.—Modesto Post, No. 74, American Legion, last night adopted resolutions declaring war on the I. W. W. as a result of the killing of American Legion men at Centralia, saying they would attack any red flag organization, and that the Legion will prevent any meeting held in Modesto by the I. W. W. or any similar ogan-ization. Resolutions for the immediate deportation of all undesirable aliens and calling for action by the State Legislature to prevent further leasing of farm lands to Orientals were also adopted.

BY UNITED PRESS.
LEASED WIRE TO TRIBUNE.

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 13.—The American Legion in Los Angeles is aroused today over the attack on legion members at Centralia, Wash.

A mass meeting of the legion has been called for tonight to discuss action against radicalism.

The executive committee of the legion at a meeting last night adopted resolutions declaring "it is possible or probable that service men of the nation, in defense of themselves and with the intent to protect the time-honored and proven institutions of free government in America, may find it necessary to take physical action if the government does not suppress the propagandists of radicalism."

Trouble Threatened At Virginia Mines

WASHINGTON, Nov. 13.—Activities of radicals threaten serious trouble in the bituminous coal mine fields of West Virginia, according to reports received today by the department of justice.

The situation was described by department of justice officials as "particularly nasty." Meetings, directed and attended largely by Russians, have precipitated some violence among the coal miners, the reports said.

HAVE DARK HAIR AND LOOK YOUNG

Nobody Can Tell When You Darken Gray, Faded Hair With Sage Tea

Grandmother kept her hair beautifully darkened, glossy and attractive with a brew of Sage Tea and Sulphur. Whenever her hair took on that dull, faded or streaked appearance, this simple mixture was applied with wonderful effect. By asking at any drug store for "Weyth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get a large bottle of this old-time recipe, improved by the addition of other ingredients, all ready to use, at very little cost. This simple mixture can be depended upon to restore natural color and beauty to the hair.

A well known downtown druggist says everybody uses Weyth's Sage and Sulphur Compound now because it dargens so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied—it's so easy to use, too. You simply dampen a comb or soft brush and draw it through your hair, taking one strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; after another application or two, it is restored to its natural color and looks glossy, soft and beautiful.—Advertisement.

NINE SALOON KEEPERS ARE FINED $1200

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 13.—Fines ranging from $100 to $200 were imposed on nine saloon keepers and bartenders from Antioch, Contra Costa county, when they appeared today before U. S. District Judge Frank Rudkin on charges of violating the wartime prohibition act.

The defendants were taken into custody recently during a series of raids conducted throughout Contra Costa and Alameda counties by operatives of the department of justice. Those fined and the amount of their fines were: S. S. Bishop, $100; Tom Davis, $200; Al Katz, $100; A. Brancalana, $100; G. Girolani, $100; William Turner, $200; Fred Fulton, $100; Ben Scott, $200, and Charles Geer, $100.

Alameda City Council And Tidelands Lessees Discuss Rental Plans

ALAMEDA, Nov. 13.—The opening meeting of the city council and the municipal tidelands lessees was held in the council chambers last night. Further meetings will be necessary before final settlement is reached, though considerable progress was made through taking up the proposed rental agreement paragraph by paragraph.

The Southern Pacific was not represented at the meeting, which is taken to indicate that it has decided to ignore Alameda's attempt to collect rent for the use of the Alameda pier site, for which the city is now asking a net rental of $20,670 a year from July 1, 1919. The tract embraces seventy-five acres. All other users of city tidelands were represented. The interested firms are the Bethlehem Shipbuilding Corporation, Barnes & Tibbitts, Alaska Packers Association, L. A. Peterson and the Rolph Shipbuilding Company. No rental is asked from the Bethlehem concern, but Harrison Robinson, attorney for the Rolph company, and also for the Bethlehem plant, was present as the Rolph representative, and undoubtedly was also looking out for the Bethlehem corporation, as the Bethlehem people were voted rent free for twenty-five years a piece of municipal tidelands now incorporated in the Alameda plant. While no complaint was made last night against the rent-free piece given the Bethlehem by the voters of the city, Captain W. G. Tibbitts referred several times to the action of a previous city council in moving the pierhead line shoreward in front of the Bethlehem yards and permitting the Bethlehem people to dredge away a considerable area of submerged tidelands now replaced with deep water.

DISCUSS AMOUNT OF RENT.

There was no disposition to question the paying of tideland rentals, but there was considerable difference of opinion as to the method to pursue and the amount of rent to be paid. The scale of rentals prepared by City Manager Hewes is on the area or acreage basis. Captain Tibbitts of the Barnes-Tibbitts Company, and Superintendent A. K. Tichenor of the Alaska Packers Association favored a front foot method of rent charges, instead of charging by area. Harrison Robinson supported the Hewes plan, saying he thought it was the proper method.

Captain Tibbitts said that the proposed Barnes & Tibbitts rental charge of $1267 for 6.13 acres of city tidelands was far in excess of any rent charge he had even dreamed of. The Alaska Packers is asked $8228 annual rental for 36.43 acres. The Rolph concern is asked $169 for .82 of an acre, and L. A. Peterson is asked $709 for 3.43 acres. These sums, with the Alameda pier charge, totaal $31,044.45.

RENTAL TO TOTAL $54,345.

The plan of procedure provides for a gross rental of $54,345, with an annual return to the lessees of $23,300 until the value of the improvements spent on the land is returned to the lessees. The period of payment of these annuities is twenty-five years and is based on 4½ per cent for the annuities and 5 per cent net rental to the city.

The Southern Pacific is credited with expending $1,038,350 in improving the seventy-five-acre Alameda pier site and the value of the same site in its original condition is held to be $1,086,900. If these figures stand the railroad will pay a gross rental yearly of $37,500, but will receive back $16,830 annually until $1,038,350 is returned at the end of twenty-five years.

Superintendent Tichenor of the Alaska Packers Association said if the city wished to get some quick money, the front foot method of rentals would be best, and he thought that the front foot method should be followed.

Attorney C. C. Boynton of the Barnes & Tibbits Company said that the city should wait a court test as to the city's right to lease lands given into the trusteeship of the city by the state. City Attorney Looke said there were many decisions already in existence settling this matter.

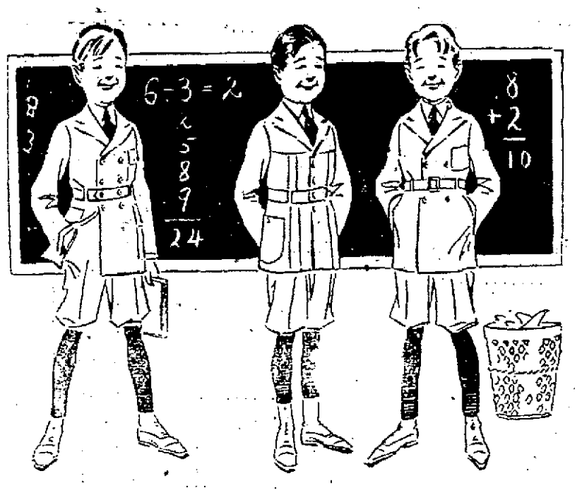

ANOTHER MEETING PLANNED.

It was cited by City Manager Hewes that Oakland, Los Angeles, and San Francisco, acting for the state, and other tideland municipalities adopted the area or acreage plan. The difference between deep and shallow lots, between narrow and broad frontages.

Fault was found with the proposed stipulation in the rental leases that tideland values were to be re-fixed at the end of each five-year period. This was held to be disturbing to lessees and a hindrance to tideland development. The lessees favored an out and out lease for a twenty-five-year period. Changing values every few years would prevent a definite settlement of the rental question.

The meeting adjourned after 10 o'clock and will be followed by another meeting later, after the council and city manager have considered all subject matter brought up last night.

COBURN WILL IS CALLED FORGERY

REDWOOD CITY, Nov. 13.—Sensational allegations are made in the complaint filed here yesterday in a contest of the will of Mrs. Satira Coburn, who was murdered at her home last June. Dr. W. A. Brooke, coroner and public administrator of San Mateo county, appears as the contestant, but it is generally accepted that those who are forcing the litigation are distant eastern relatives of Mrs. Coburn, who were cut off from the Coburn wealth because they had pressed incompetency proceedings years ago against Loren Coburn, her husband, who died some thime ago at Pescadero.

Some of the allegations are:

That the will was a forgery.

That it was not executed in accordance with law, not being witnessed and acknowledged properly.

That if the will was actually signed by Mrs. Coburn her signature was secured through fraud and misrepresentation, it being charged that the document was represented to her as being a paper in connection with her husband's estate.

That Mrs. Coburn was incompetent and therefore incapable of making a will.

That if the will was actually signed by Mrs. Voburn her signature was secured through undue influence of C. H. Widemann, Josephine Vosti, Widemann's stenographer, and Andrew Sterling, Widemann's foreman.

Widemann is the lessee of the Coburn property and friend of Loren Coburn. By the terms of the will he and Judge J. A. Bardin of Monterey, another friend of Loren Coburn, received the bulk of her estate valued at $500,000.

The will bequeathed the income of $50,000 to the 63-year-old imbecile son, Wallace, and made bequests to Attorney John L. McNab of San Francisco; Mrs. Margaret L. Harrison, the Coburn housekeeper, and Mrs. Fannie Eaton, widow of a former manager of the Coburn properties.

Judge George H. Buck yesterday issued citations directing Widemann and Judge Bardin, named by Mrs. Coburn as executors of her will, to appear in court November 28 to answer the contest. It also cites the other legatees.

Mrs. Rice to Address the Audubon Society

The Audubon Society of the Pacific will hold an important meeting in the lecture room of the California Development Board, in the Ferry building, San Francisco, tonight. The subject for discussion will be "Natural Flora and Its Influence on Wild Bird Conservation." The speaker of the evening will be Mrs. Bertha M. Rice, chairman of the Annual State Wild Flower Exhibits. Members of the association and their friends are urged to be present.

S. F. Cigar Makers Strike for More Pay

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 13.—Following the refusal of the union of a compromise offered by the employers 250 cigar makers employed in five of the largest factories in the city went on strike yesterday. The union had demanded an increase of $4 a week for certain classes of work, it is said, and the employers offered a $3 advance.

American soldiers in France ate twenty million pounds of candy in 1917 and 1918.

Y. W. C. A. Officials Meet at Mill Valley

Miss Gertrude Gogin, Girls' Work secretary for the Young Women's Christian Association in the United States, will be in attendance at the conference of Girls' Work secretaries which is called for tomorrow continuing two days in Mill Valley. Miss Esther Dayman, field executive, is directing the meeting. All branches of work for girls will be included in the discussions. Miss Hazel Green, Girls' Work secretary for the Oakland Association, will be a delegate.

U. C. Nurses' Home Will Be Formally Opened Saturday; 3000 Invitations Sent Out

Formal opening of the Nurses' Home of the University of California Hospital will take place Saturday afternoon. The building is seven stories in height, located at Third and Parnassus avenues, San Francisco, and faces the University Hospital. It is of reinforced concrete, with accommodations for 145 nurses and women internes.

The large recreation room and ballroom on the top floor commands a view of the Golden Gate, the bay and Mount Tamalpais. Aside from the large sunny bedrooms, there are social, lecture and demonstration rooms, comprising one of the finest buildings of its kind in the United States, and unrivaled in San Francisco.

But one wing of the structure has been completed, but in the near future a second wing will be built, when an underground tunnel will be constructed connecting the home with the hospital.

The Patrons and Patronesses for the opening of the home are:

Mayor and Mrs. James Rolph jr., President Emeritus and Mrs. Benjamin Ide Wheeler, Mr. and Mrs. William H. Crocker, Mr. and Mrs. Guy C. Earl, Mr. and Mrs. James K. Moffit, Professor and Mrs. William Carey Jones, Professor and Mrs. Charles Mills Gayley, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph P. Merritt, Mr. and Mrs. William Bourn, Major and Mrs. Mark Gerstle, Mr. and Mrs. P. E. Bowles, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Merrill, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Roos, Mr. and Mrs. Selah Chamberlain, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Y. Campbell, Dr. Aurelia Reinhardt, Mrs. John S. Merrill, Mrs. Margaret Sartori, Mrs. George William Hooper, John A. Britton, Rudolph J. Taussig, Gordon Blanding, Rev. Charles A. Ramm.

3000 INVITATIONS

Three thousand invitations have been issued to the reception which will be held in the ballroom from two to five o'clock in the afternoon. The Resident Medical Staff and Nurses will conduct the guests through the Nurses' Residence and the University Hospital where the operating suite, laboratories, X-ray plant, kitchen, laundry, etc., will be open for inspection. There will be dancing in the evening at the Nurses' Home.

The reception committee consists of:

Mrs. Wallace I. Terry, wife of the Dean of the Medical School; Mrs. Herbert C. Moffit, wife of the ex-Dean of the Medical School; Mrs. Margaret Sartori, representing the Regents of the University of California; Dr. Rachel Ash, representing the women physicians of San Francisco; Dr. Louise Morrow, director of nursing and social service; Miss Lucy W. Stebbins, Dean of women students of University of California; Miss Anna C. Jamme, director of State Bureau of Registration of Nurses; Miss Arabella Lombard, president of University of California Nurses Alumnae association; Miss Anne Kelsey, president of the University Hospital Nurses student body; Mrs. Mortimer Fleishhacker, Mrs. Alexander F. Morrison.

ANOTHER MILESTONE

The opening of this handsome building marks another milestone in the development of the University of California Medical School and Hospitals. The new University Hospital directly across the street is one of the most modern, spacious and completely equipped institutions in the West and together with the new Nurses' Home, the Medical School and the well known Hooper Foundation for Medical Research comprises one of the great medical centers of the United States.

A recreation supervisor has been appointed for the Student Nurses who conducts a regular gymnasium class, instructs the girls in tennis, basketball and social dancing. By arrangement with the Y. W. C. A. the nurses may swim in their tank Sunday afternoons and the recreation supervisor is always there and gives instruction in swimming. She likewise is present on Friday evening when the Assembly Hall is open to the Medical Students, resident and visiting staff of the hospital and the friends of the nurses for dancing. The home contains a piano, electric piano player and victrola. The recreation program seems to be very popular with the nurses and keeps them in better condition for their work.

Capwell Employees Hold Annual Party

With the house filled to capacity, Capwell Employees' Association held their semi-annual benefit theater party last night at the Fulton Playhouse, netting $400 in benefits. Over $100 was cleared from home-made candy, made and sold by Capwell girls.

The proceeds of this party will be divided between the Sick Benefit Fund, which paid out $3000 to the employees last year in sickness insurance and the social fund.

The association's big annual dance and entertainment, financed by the social fund, will be given on the evening of Tuesday, December 2, at the Hotel Oakland. This is invitational for Capwell members and their guests.

Stomach Trouble Cured by the Sing Herbs

Man relieved after ten years of acute suffering

That the Sing herb treatments positively relieve stomach and intestinal trouble is shown by the following testimonial of an Oakland man:

To Whom It May Concern:

I wish to state that for over 10 years I have been troubled with liver and stomach disorders; have been to over 20 American doctors; also submitted to an operation with no result.

I began treatments with Dr. Sing and, after a few weeks, had no more trouble and can eat many kinds of food I could not touch before.

It is now three months since I have been treated and have had no return of the trouble.

Clubwomen Behind Home Owning Move

By EDNA B KINARD.

It is not real estate propaganda but a definite part of the national thrift program which has announced 'Own Your Own Home' as a slogan for the General Federation of Women's Clubs of which Mrs. Josiah Evans Cowles of Los Angeles is president. Back of the woman's campaign is the determined idea by some manner or means to reduce the high cost of living Possessing a vine and fig tree, Mrs Georgie Bacon of Worcester, Mass, chairman of the general thrift department, points out is one of the first factors to be considered

Words are idle things, as the clubwomen well know For that reason they are careful that it will not be alone words which mark the important drive which they are inaugurating The whole campaign is designed to assist people of moderate means to acquire a cozy home, with sufficient ground for garden and poultry yard Its details will of necessity be worked out differently in each state and locality

Already in twenty cities preparation is being made for drives in the interests of home-building and home-owning Chambers of commerce in the larger cities are cooperating with the thrift committees. The campaign has the backing of the federal department of labor in Washington and the division of public works and construction development

Active work in the "Own Your Own Home" movement has not yet been begun among the local federated clubs but will give the theme for important conferences of thrift departments within the coming weeks

"Socialism, Bolshevism, Americanism—Which?" is the timely subject which was discussed before Berkeley center California Civic League, this afternoon in Unity hall Mrs. Grace Manners Brougham, a distinguished Oregon woman, was the speaker Berkeley center will co-operate with other women's organizations about the bay in the entertainment of Mrs Carrie Chapman Catt, Miss Julia Lathrop and their party which arrives in Oakland Saturday, November 22, for a four days' sojourn.

Dr. Minora Kibbe will be chairman of program at the meeting of Oakland center, California Civic League in Hotel Oakland tomorrow, when Rev. C S S Dutton of San Francisco will speak to the topic, 'Foes of Democracy'

The quaint old manners and costumes of the olden times will make notable the meeting of the Canfornia New England Association tonight in Starr King hall when the members assemble in old fashioned garb to observe the Thanksgiving season The Spirit of the Pilgrims will be expressed by Professor I W Buckham, who will be the speaker of the evening Mrs Cora Brackett Vose, reader, and W S Olney, violinist, will contribute numbers In true old New England style hard cider and doughnuts will be served the guests

The November meeting of Oakland Federation of Mothers Clubs will take place in Chabot hall on Tuesday of next week, the general conference at 2 p m following the session of the executive board at 1 30 p m Presidents of the forty local associations will present reports of their work Mrs Edward Morgan Jones, president [illegible]

Oakland federation, eighty strong, crossed the bay this afternoon to attend the annual reciprocity luncheon of the Second District, California Congress of Mothers The presence of so large a delegation found its inspiration in the loyalty of the members to Mrs. H. G. Tardy, district president, who was elected from Oakland federation.

Eighth grade students in the Grant school are promised a monthly dance by the Parent-Teacher Association which has put a red letter on the calendar about the second Friday night. Mrs Goughan, president of Berkeley Federation of Mothers' Clubs, was the speaker at the regular meeting last Monday

A "mystery tea" has hidden its secret with the members of Bay Parent-Teacher Association who will share it with their friends on Friday afternoon, November 21 The hostesses announce that it will mean something in their treasury and that it is a most delightful sort of affair The association is giving its entire interest to child welfare

DE VALERA TO BE HERE MONDAY

President Eamonn de Valera, the Sinn Fein statesman, president of the Irish republic, will arrive in the bay district next Monday, several hours ahead of his schedule, according to announcement of a change of itinerary by Supervisor Andrew J. Gallagher of San Francisco today.

The change provides for President De Valera's arrival in Oakland at 9 15 o'clock Monday morning, allowing him to accept luncheon and speaking engagements in the transbay city He will arrive in San Francisco at 5 30 o'clock and will be met at the ferry by the Municipal Band and supporters of his cause

A meeting of the reception committee has been called for tomorrow night in the city hall in San Francisco, when the official program will be completed and made public

The tentative San Francisco program includes a mass meeting in the Exposition Auditorium on Monday night. The doors of the auditorium will be opened at 7 o'clock.

EDITORIAL

Six weeks from today will be Christmas day.

This gives you just four weeks to shop if you wish to avoid the holiday crowds

Remember that at all stores, good assortments of holiday goods are now on display and that you can make your selections now from a greater variety of merchandise than at any other time of the year.

Remember also that it is absolutely necessary to order Christmas engraving, Kodak enlargements, leather goods that have to be stamped etc, early.

The people who are always envied during the holiday rush are those who make their selections in November and who have everything ready, packed and labeled early in December. It is much easier to make up your mind to buy Christmas presents now than it is to join the holiday crowds and suffer the inconveniences always attached to late shopping.

We anticipate the greatest holiday season in point of sales, in our history and undoubtedly will be completely sold out of many lines before the 25th of December.

A WONDERFUL IMPORTED FACE POWDER—50c.

Comes From France—You Must Try It.

Do you know that at Bowman's you can secure at 50c a box of one of the best imported face powders on the market?

This powder comes direct from France It is shipped into this country in bulk and boxed in America. This is the reason why we are able to sell such a large package for such a small amount If it were boxed in France, you would probably have to pay at least a dollar for the same quality

It is called Preceda Face Powder and comes in various shades to suit the preference of almost anyone.

American manufacturers make many splendid face powders, but the average American woman seems to think that imported powders as well as French perfumes, have certain characteristics not to be found in domestic products.

This Preceda Face Powder is of unusually superior quality and hundreds of our customers have used it steadily for many years with the utmost satisfaction

If you have been unable to find a satisfactory powder at a reasonable price, we suggest that you try Preceda Face Powder

A HANDY BLACK PAINT FOR THE HOUSEHOLD

25c a Bottle Including a Brush

Every once in a while, you have occasion to use a little black paint and in the average household, about the only thing handy is an old can, the contents of which are dried up like rubber and an old brush that would be better to dig with than to paint with

You can avoid all of this difficulty by purchasing a 25c bottle of Blacko This is an especially made household stain

It does not dry up, either in the brush or in the bottle if left corked It imparts a rich glossy black surface to any article that would ordinarily take paint.

It is fine to brighten up hand grips suit cases hand bags, purses, automobile seats or leather articles of any kind It is also used to blacken straw hats, metal and wood.

Blacko dries almost instantly and is water proof. With each 25c bottle, we give you a brush free.

Blacko will not rub off and will last as long as most paint.

THE NEW HOLIDAY PERFUMES HAVE ALL ARRIVED

PROUD OF OUR STOCK OF NEW FALL HAND BAGS

Purchased Before the Present Shortage

We doubt whether there is another store around the Bay displaying a better assortment of hand bags and vanity cases at moderate prices.

The stock we are showing was purchased in the early spring of this year at a time when the shortage of leather goods was not as serious as it is at the present writing. Our buyers visited the factories and bought from advance samples of the best and largest producers of leather goods in America at a time when other merchants were hesitating.

As a consequence, we are in a position to feel exceedingly proud of our present stock.

We have hand bags in genuine seal (which is very scarce), morocco, and in all of the other popular leathers as well as many of the successful imitation leathers (some of which wear better than poor leather)

Our vanity cases are in all of the new shapes and colors and all are at prices that seem exceedingly reasonable under present conditions.

If you contemplate purchasing a hand bag or a vanity case for anyone as a Christmas gift, we would advise that you select it now as the demand will probably exceed the supply.

AN INEXPENSIVE IDEAL CHRISTMAS GIFT

Among the least expensive and the most welcome of Christmas gifts are photographic enlargements of Kodak snap shots

If you will go over your Kodak pictures you will unquestionably find a number of exceedingly artistic compositions any of which would make beautiful enlargements You will also find many pictures that are of personal interest to certain individuals, enlargements of which would be enjoyed more than a gift costing many times the expense of an enlargement

Remember that you can have any portion of a picture enlarged

Sepia enlargements, artistically framed, make pictures worthy of wall space in almost any home.

BOWMAN'S BENZOIN CREAM

Benzoin Cream prevents chaps, burns and other facial discomforts that come from the sharp winter winds

It should be applied to the face at the beginning of any outdoor trip—25c and 50c.

CUT THIS OUT AND PASTE IT UP

If you will remember, last April we advised all of our customers to put up eggs for their winter use.

At that time eggs could be purchased at about 45c a dozen in case lots. Those who paid no attention to our advice at that time, are now having the pleasure of paying more than twice as much for their eggs as the people who put eggs up last April.

Next April, we will again be advertising Silicate of Soda for this purpose and we sincerely hope that this winter's experience will be turned to profit when eggs are again at a reasonable price.

WORLD WAR 'VET' GOES TO LIBERIA

Captain James O. Wanzer is en route to Washington, D. C., with Liberia as his final destination, having been recently appointed United States District Commissioner, under the department of State in that place. The veteran of the world war and his wife left last night.

Captain Wanzer was with the army of occupation in Coblenz, Germany, as Chief Transportation Officer. During his absence overseas Mrs. Wanzer, University of California graduate, lived with her family in the bay cities, where Captain Wanzer joined her upon his release.

A farewell dinner to Captain and Mrs. Wanzer was given at the Key Route Inn on Tuesday night, marking the eve of their departure for their new post. Those for whom covers were laid were: Mrs. Wanzer, mother of Captain Wanzer; Mrs. Lydia Ferrier, mother of Mrs. Wanzer; Mr. and Mrs. Henry Foote, Mr. and Mrs. Elon Mitchell of Vallejo, Mr. and Mrs. Charles D. Mayer, William S. Ferrier of Berkeley.

FILMS TAKEN OF CITY AS PLANE SOARS HIGH

Topographical features of Oakland as revealed from an airplane, are shown in the TRIBUNE-Kinema Weekly at the Kinema today. Flying over the city at a height of 3000 feet, pictures of the entire region, from San Leandro to Berkeley and the bay are shown.

The work of the hygiene and home care of the sick classes in the continuation schools of Oakland is also shown in the films. The classes are given in the three Oakland high schools under the auspices of the American Red Cross.

Major Glidden, chairman of the commission for the aerial derby around the world, also is shown during his recent visit in Oakland.

TIMES DYNAMITER REQUESTS PAROLE

SAN QUENTIN, Cal., Nov. 13.—J. J. McNamara, serving fifteen ears for complicity in the destruction of the Los Angeles Times building by dynamite on October 1, 1910, has taken the first formal step to secure a parole, Warden James J. Johnston said today.

"McNamara has served eight years of his fifteen-year sentence. He became eligible for parole a little over a year ago and has written a brief note to the parole board asking whether it would consider his application for parole," said Johnston.

The McNamara brothers were convicted through the evidence of Ortie E. McManigal, who confessed his part in the Times disaster. J. B. McNamara is serving a life sentence at San Quentin prison.

Clarence Darrow, Chicago attorney who defended the McNamaras at the trial, says that organized labor is not behind the movement for parole, and that the friends of the convicted men are not organized in his behalf.

McNamara is eligible under the law for parole, having served the required percentage of his 15-year sentence to entitle him to consideration upon his application.

Darrow says the movement for parole application for McNamara has been under consideration for several months, the prisoner having become eligible about a year ago. Darrow denies that he is engineering the matter.

HAROLD HAVENS, CLUBMAN, DIES

Word of the death of Harold Havens, familiarly known as "Bud" Havens, was telegraphed to his brother, Wickham Havens, last night from Roswell, New Mexico, where for the past three months he has been the representative of the Alfred Wilkes Oil Company of San Francisco. In response to a wire stating that Havens was seriously ill, Mrs. Havens left for Roswell earlier in the day. No arrangements have yet been made for bringing the body to Oakland or for funeral services.

Havens was the son of the late Frank C. Havens whose death occurred two years ago and a stepson of Mrs. Frank C. Havens. Besides his widow and two young daughters, Patricia and June Havens, he is survived by three brothers, Wickham, Seyd and Paul Havens. His death was due to intestinal disease.

As a member of the Claremont Country Club, the Bohemian Athenian-Nile and Family clubs, Havens was widely known. He was an enthusiastic athlete and sportsman. The family home is on Seaview avenue, Piedmont. Havens was 42 years old. Mrs. Havens was formerly Miss Estelle Houghton.

Realty Man Accused of Asaulting Girl

Charged with assault upon a 13-year-old Oakland girl, Leroy Auseon, 24 years old, Oakland realty man, was arraigned today in police court. Auseon is held without bail in the city prison.

He was taken in custody late yesterday afternoon at Thirteenth and Franklin streets. The girl is under the care of a physician at the Detention home.

Hold Examination for Plumbers Here

There will be an examination for plumbers at Heald's business college, Sixteenth street and San Pablo avenue, Saturday, November 22, at 6:30 p. m., it is announced by H. G. Newman, secretary of the Plumbers' Examining Board. It is requested by Newman that all plumbers who do not hold state certificates for competency be present. Failure on the part of such plumbers to take the examination constitutes a misdemeanor as defined in section 19 of the penal code, the examiner says.

WOULD AMEND RECALL LAW.

BAKERSFIELD, Cal., Nov. 13.—The Kern county grand jury yesterday recommended that the California recall law be amended so that fifty-one per cent of the voters at the preceding general election be required to sign a petition asking for an election.

Oakland Shriners Will Honor Sousa

During the interval between the afternoon and evening concerts of Sousa's band at the Oakland auditorium Opera House, next Thursday, November 20, Sousa, who is a Shriner, and fifteen of his musicians who belong to the Masonic order, as well as his soloists, will be the honored guests at a banquet to be given by the Aahmes Temple band, of which Frank Scott is the band master, and the eminent commander of the Oakland commandery and his corps of officers, as well as other prominent dignitaries of the bay district. A large block of tickets have been purchased or the Sousa concerts and many box parties are being planned by the Shriners and their friends.

SEEKS LIBERTY TO CLAIM HIS PART OF FUND

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 13.—Three thousand dollars awaits David G. Beeching, 58, if he is released from San Quentin prison on or before April 19, 1920. In the form of a legacy, it will revert to the other heirs if he is not out of prison to claim it before the final date set. Today Beeching in a letter to the judge who sentenced him, sought aid in gaining his liberty. Beeching was sentenced two years ago for six years for forgery.

"It was Beeching's inordinate desire for money that put him in prison," said the judge. "Now it is his desire that urges him to get out."

The appeal is being considered.

Bakersfield Man to Face Serious Charge

BAKERSFIELD, Nov. 13.—E. Keester, local merchant, was held for trial in the superior court of Kern county yesterday, after a hearing before Justice of the Peace W. Bunnell, on a complaint charging him with involuntary manslaughter and driving an automobile while he was intoxicated. The complaint was filed by District Attorney Jesse E. Dorsey, following the death of Benjamin Merickle of San Diego. Merickle was struck by an automobile Keester has effected a monetary settlement with Merickle's widow and seven children by paying them $14,000. The settlement was approved by Superior Court Judge N. Harvey.

THIS IS A Certified Neolin Repair Shop — Neolin Soles Applied Here are GUARANTEED

Look for This Sign When You Want Neōlin Soles Put On

Neōlin is a different kind of shoe sole—with values all its own.

It calls for its own method of application.

Neōlin should not be put on the same way that a rubber or fibre or leather sole is applied—because Neōlin is not rubber, not fibre, not leather—it is Neōlin.

Neōlin has marked advantages in wear, in comfort, in waterproofness—that no other kind of sole can give. Applied by the one method designed for it, Neōlin responds with the full measure of these qualities.

Goodyear—the originator of Neōlin—has worked out the proper method of applying Neōlin Soles. Goodyear guarantees that Neōlin Soles put on by this method will confirm the wearer's every reasonable expectation of superior sole and shoe service from Neōlin.

Right around the corner or down the block—near you, wherever you live in the city—is a repairman who knows how to put on Neōlin Soles correctly. The orange-and-black emblem of Goodyear Certification—in the shop window—is your assurance of good shoe repairing.

Look for the Sign of the Certified Neōlin Repairman

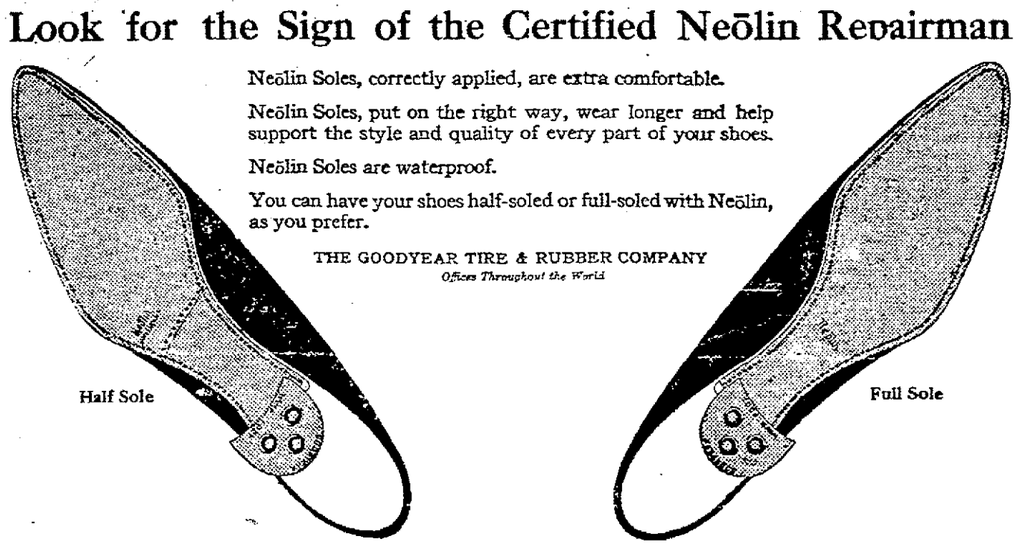

Neōlin Soles, correctly applied, are extra comfortable.

Neōlin Soles, put on the right way, wear longer and help support the style and quality of every part of your shoes.

Neōlin Soles are waterproof.

You can have your shoes half-soled or full-soled with Neōlin, as you prefer.

AUNT ELSIE'S KIDDIE KORNER

Do you know what I think is the very NICEST thing about our Kiddie Corner—Sunday and every other day—it's the fact that my kiddies WRITE WHAT THEY FEEL. They don't always write giggles, or always write thinks—they say what pops into their heads—just as if we were all out in the kitchen popping corn together. And that's the only real FRIENDLY way to talk and the only way to really have a good time. Do WE have a good time? I SHOULD SAY WE DO—don't we kiddies?

See what different things the chums talk about in these letters. Here is one from a new chum:

ONEITA FLOWERS,
2704 Ninth Ave., Oakland

June Carivelle put on a shawl and made her way to the chicken yard. June loved her chickens very much and thought about all their comforts. Indeed she thought so much that she sometimes worried foolishly, as you will see. It was a cold night and she knew that the moulting hens would feel it badly, with half their feathers gone. And there stood the hen house door wide open! "O! you poor things!" she cried anxiously and closed the door quickly. But all night she kept worrying about her chickens for fear some were lost. In the morning she went to feed them and the first thing she heard was a cackle from the berry vines. "I KNEW they were out," and ran into the chicken house to count them. But they were all quite safe—not one was missing. This story teaches us that fears are only foolish imagination.

There's a little hut not far away,
But it holds something as bright as day,
Something that's jollier even than play—
It's love—yes, love.

A rumbling fire it has inside,
Some children are playing with love for their guide,
No wonder they are such a merry lot—
When they have love—pure love.

ONEITA FLOWERS, 11 yrs.
2704 Ninth ave., Oakland.

Tere's some more poetry from another new chum:

CLAIRE ANDERSON,
1133 Adeline St., Oakland.

Dear Aunt Elsie—

Can I be one of your chums, too. I like our page the best in the paper. The ghost stories are so spooky and scary. I read them first. The paper dolls are so cute and I like to color their dresses. Here is something I made up about the months:

January brings good resolutions,
February brings rain and snow,
March the breezes blow,
May brings spring flowers,
June brings joy and happiness,
July brings vacation time,
August brings school again.
September the leaves begin to fall.
October the harvest comes.
November brings thankfulness,
December brings remembrance of others.

CLAIRE ANDERSON.

ESTELLA MOIR,
2440 East 24TH ST., Oakland

I've heard about lots of tricks through my kiddies (and I used to do quite a lot of them myself, but that's a secret, so don't you tell!) but Estella tells us about a new kind of trick that I never heard o before. I'm! sure I hope nobody has that sort of an idea when my Thanksgiving dinner is getting ready!

Mary's mother had gone to town to do some shopping and before she left she said to Mary: "Wash up the dishes nicely and be sure and don't spill the cake dough for when I get home I want to bake the cake."

Mary washed the dishes but all the time she was trying to think of some trick to play on her mother because she was cross at being left at home. "I know," she said at last. "I'll put the WHOLE CAN OF RED PEPPER in the dough!" At once she did it—and then ran out to play.

Soon mother came home and hurried to bake the cake and get lunch. Then she called to Mary—"Come to lunch, Mary!" There stood the cake, brown and tempting. Mother offered some to Mary but Mary said she didn't wish any. This surprised her mother for she knew how fond Mary was of cake and she took a little bite. At once she said: "What is the matter with this!" "I don't know," said Mary. "Yes you do," said her mother. Then Mary began to cry and soon she told the whole story.

"Well, I won't punish you this time," said mother, "but next time I will." Well, there was no "next time," for Mary didn't play any more tricks on her mother.

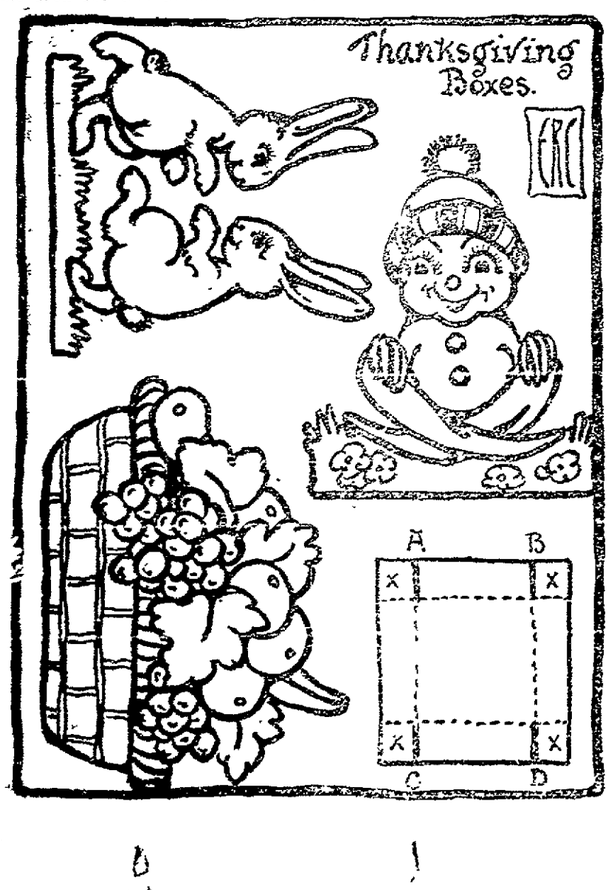

ESTELLA MOIR.

I think Mary played the worst trick on HERSELF for she had to go without cake. I'd hate that sort of a trick—wouldn't you?

THINGS TO MAKE FOR THANKSGIVING.

Here are some gay little boxes which you may be making for the Thanksgiving table. The drawing shows how to make the box and you may choose any or all of the little drawings to put on it. The drawings are made actual size so you can trace them on the drawing paper but the wee sketch of the box you must enlarge. Cut a square of drawing paper—five inches each way. Fold on dotted lines, 1½ inch from each edge. Then cut on A, B, C and D. Fold the four corners marked X over on the inside of the two ends and paste flat. You now have a dandy little box for almonds or candies.

Now cut the decoration out of heavy drawing paper or cardboard, color them and paste on each box. Choose bright colors for the decorations. The box would be much prettier if it were gilded.

MODERN DRESS -:- By Annette Bradshaw

IN GRANDMOTHER'S EYES

"Yes, my dear, it is a lovely wrap. But you won't have much on when you take it off."

ODD FACTS

The following sentence contains the complete alphabet: "Pack my box with five dozen liquor jugs."

An Arab drinks cold water with a spoon, and never bathes in it unless his home is on the seashore.

Cups and saucers are not used for tea in Russia. The fashionable drinking vessel for tea is the "stakan," a glass tumbler in a silver holder.

A bat is supposed to be able to absorb and digest in one night food three times the weight of its own body.

Albion—White Island—the ancient name of Britain—was probably given to it by the Gauls, on account of the white cliffs of the southeast coast.

Just Folks by Edgar A. Guest

WHEN NIGHT SLIPS DOWN.

When night slips down and the lights are lit
And the cares of the day are done,
It is then I am ready to romp a bit
And share in the children's fun.
It is then I can be what I want to be
And do what I like to do.
With never an eye that shall frown on me.
For the sham of the day is through.

I can drop the pose that a man must wear
As he stands at his post by day,
I can turn my back on the round of care
And forget what the world may say.
I can stretch full length on the parlor floor
And roll with a little boy
And be myself for an hour or more
In a wonderful spell of joy.

For the busy life is a life of sham
And stern are the rules it makes;
It shackles and fetters the man I am
Till the soul of me fairly aches.
It bids me walk in a certain way
And dress in a certain style.
I must keep in mind what the world may say
And cheat for a stranger's smile.

But I drop the sham when the day is o'er
And I slip from the irksome pose;
I can be myself when I shut my door
On the world with its cares and woes.
And I thank my God when the night slips down
For those wonderful hours of rest
When I need not work for the world's renown
But may do what I like the best.

Jimmy-Old-Boy! A Letter-Play by Richard Wightman

The Summer of Yesterday

To J. O. B. Homeland

Summer! You did not mistake it, you could not, for it came wearing its ample badge, clearly definitive—an utter and mature greenness on tree and field and hill. The vast spread of it never once tired your eye nor fagged your spirit. You often thought how wise some One had been to make so much green, instead of some other color. You took a new and sensuous delight in your surroundings, even sometimes a languorous and somnolent delight, but you reckoned it must be—not wicked—but good for you, else it would not have been sent. Through every sense and every pore the summer filtered itself into you.

The tedder in the hayfield stirred up for you the fragrance of sweet clover; in your wakeful night-hours a bird, of a species quite unknown to you, sifted through the screen at your chamber window a run of plaintive notes, soft and eerie, which grew louder and more courageous toward the dawn; the succulent corn kernels in even rows upon the steaming cob made a glee of meal-time; you ran your hand caressingly over the velvety moss on the gray rocks near the old barn and the feel of the moss somehow gave you a dear title to the very earth; and on still nights, when the moon was climbing, you watched the clouds drift across the scattered stars and let your fancy make them into chariots, and armies, and giant women clad in gauzy garments which, when they trailed through, were spangled wondrously.

Thus did the Summer come to you in substance, essence and thrill; thus did you see it, hear it, taste it, smell it and touch it, and in the sheer joy of the season's gift you leaped and sang and proclaimed yourself a worth-while organism, and the kin of Croesus who was rich, but not so rich as you!

And this was only as far back as last June!

M. L.

REVELATIONS of a WIFE by ADELE GARRISON

"What is it?" my mother-in-law demanded excitedly. "You have thought of something!"

I hadn't told her of the mysterious horseman who had followed me so persistently, yet far enough away to avoid my recognition, upon the day of my trip to the inn, and I knew that once started nothing would do her but the whole story. But I also knew that I couldn't put off her question, so I laid the letter down in my lap as I replied:

'One of those men next door followed me on horseback the day I went to the inn. He kept far enough away so I couldn't recognize, until I laid a little trap for him without his seeing me. But I finally was able to elude him. I thought he was trailing me because he belonged to the enemy camp. They appear to be trying now to make me believe they are friends."

As I talked my mother-in-law's eyes were fixed upon me. Something in their gaze made me uncomfortable. The next moment she had put their message into words.

"ALL CRAZY NONSENSE."

"You say you could not recognize him at first. Then you did later. I wasn't aware that you knew either of the mysterious men next door, Margaret."

Her tone was filled with grave reproach.

I flushed at the inadvertent slip I had made, for I had never told my mother-in-law of the queer incident of the taxi crush on Fifth avenue.

"I am not sure that I do know him," I stammered. "But I certainly have seen him before, although I can not tell where.

"What balderdash is this?" demanded my mother-in-law irascibly. "You know him and don't know him, and you've seen him but you can not tell where."

"I know it sounds absurd, mother," I said humbly, "but I don't know how I can make it clear to you—"

'Don't be seven different varieties of an idiot, Margaret, just because you know how!" she snapped. "There is something back of this that needs clearing up, and I think I'd better tackle this job. Now just refresh your memory as the lawyers say, and tell me everything you know and surmise about the men next door. It's probably all crazy nonsense, but it won't do any hurt to hash it over a bit."

I looked at her in amazement. Her face was flushed, her eyes shining, her tones strong and resonant. Not a trace remained of the weakness which had been hers when she entered the room. It was evidently a mother-in-law to be able "to have a finger in the pie."

My mother-in-law listened intently while, in response to her imperious request, I related to her the tale of the taxicab crush on Fifth avenue, in which I had met the eyes of the foreign-looking man in the next taxicab, read startled recognition in them, and felt a haunting sense of their familiarity to me.

I also told her of the swathed invalid in the taxi who had been pushed back so imperiously by the other occupant. And then, determined to keep nothing back, I told of Mrs. Durkee's answer to the advertisement for a house, and her description of the man who had taken it in so strange a manner, a description that tallied so closely with my own remembrance of the man in the taxi that I was sure the two personalities were identical.

"Of course," my mother-in-law commented caustically when I had finished. "Any fool could tell that. And it's plain to be seen that those two men over there know you well, your habits, everything about you. They arranged that advertisement so that some one in Marvin would be sure to bite, and you can bet they were overjoyed when they found they could get right next door. But that throws no light on the question of their motives. Of course, this rubbish they have sent you means nothing. But you might as well finish it."

I took the hint and the letter at the same time.

"We have information not to be disregarded that your life is endangered every time you leave your home," the letter went on. "Therefore we command you—and we have the right of command—that for the next week you stay within the [illegible] You are well protected there, and we are always watching. It is when you go away that we are unable to guard you adequately.

"One other thing. You do not know us, you probably never will. And yet it may be necessary some time for us to see you. In order to assure you of our right to command your obedience we are enclosing a token which you will probably recognize when he send you a similar one by any agency, it will mean an immediate summons to the house next to yours. Do not fail to come—the results would be disastrous.

"There is no need for signatures to this letter. You would not recognize them if we gave them. So, dear Madame Graham, we remain simply,

THE MEN NEXT DOOR."

I raised my eyes to my mother-in-law's and for a moment we stared at each other in blank astonishment. Then she put back her head and laughed heartily, a performance so unexpected in her that I was startled.

"Of all the melodramatic balderdash," she said at last, wiping her eyes. "Of course, it's nothing to be laughed at either, for they're dangerous [illegible]. Still, I don't believe in the very dangerous either. They couldn't be and have the kind of brain that could write a fool letter like that. It sounds like old dime novels that I used to burn up when I caught Richard reading them."

The whimsical idea crossed my mind that to be so familiar with dime novels one must have surreptitiously read some of the novels before she burned them, but I knew better than to voice the thought.

"Let's have a look at this 'token' they're so brash about," my mother-in-law continued. "It's probably the sawed off half of a ring or something. They probably have done it in regulation Diamond Dick style."

CINEMA CLOSE-UPS

GERALDINE FARRAR

Geraldine Farrar has developed into a fashion model, supplementing her activities as singer and picture star. In her newest Goldwyn picture the diva wears the accompanying afternoon frock. It is of white charmeuse satin with an overdress of white chiffon elaborately embroidered in crystal edged with black monkey fur. The wide short sleeves are of silver lace and the rose spray is of soft pink. Her immense leghorn hat is covered with black Chantilly lace. Of course the costume is just from Paris.

After winding up her season's film work at the Goldwyn studios, Miss Farrar started her winter concert tour at Los Angeles, and florists of that city declared they had done the best business of the year. The next day the star left for points eastward, and her private car was filled with a portion of the flowers she had received. With Lou Tellegen she waved farewell to a group of Goldwyn people who had accompanied her to the train.

NANCY'S BEAUTIFUL CLOTHES.

Nancy Chase, the beautiful English actress, who recently joined the Hollywood film colony, brought with her from London a wardrobe that bears out the oft-quoted assertion of Charles Frohman that she was the best dressed woman in England. Included in her remarkable collection of wearing apparel are forty-seven hats, three dozen pairs of gloves, sixteen coats thirty evening gowns and a collection of shoes that filled a steamer trunk. Miss Chase has already succumbed to Southern California climate. She has leased a beautiful Swiss chalet, applied for membership in the local auto club, hung out an ice card, advertised for a cook and adopted a cat.

WANTS WESTERN STORIES.

The supervising director of Western productions for a big picture-making organization, William Piggott by name, is appealing for western stories. "Let's get away from the old tried and true Western story," he urges. "It is my ambition never to read another story about a girl, a bandit, a hero and a kidnaping rescue. From those things, oh writers, deliver us."

CLARA NEAR STARDOM.

Clara Horton is rapidly approaching the portals of stardom in shadowland. Her big opportunity came when she was cast for the leading feminine in the Rex Beach picture, "The Girl From Outside." Her creation of June showed her calibre as a screen actress and ever since she has been growing in popularity. Miss Horton was born in Brooklyn just following the birth of the present century. Her mother is a native of Detroit, where she was known as Gertrude Hall Wilson. Before her marriage she was planning a musical career and graduated from the New England Conservatory of Music in Boston. The advent of Clara caused her to shelve her musical desire.

KERRIGAN IN AERONAUTICS.

J. Warren Kerrigan is the latest film figure to venture into the field of commercial aeronautics. He has purchased 375 acres of a historical rancho on the outskirts of Los Angeles, part of which was successfully employed as a landing field and flight grounds by the Glenn Martin Airplane Construction Company. A hangar and a repair plant, which will accommodate a dozen planes, will be constructed at once. It is Kerrigan's intention to establish a regular mail and passenger route between Los Angeles and San Francisco and to provide repair and housing facilities for privately owned machines. Two Handley-Page planes have been purchased from the government and will form the nucleus of a fleet that Kerrigan believes that soon will number a dozen or more.

COLLEEN IN BURLESQUE.

Colleen Moore heads the cast of the latest Christie special comedy, "A Roman Scandal." The plot is burlesque, having to do with the performance of a theatrical company in "The Fall of Rome." Colleen appears in the role of a stage-struck sweetheart who has a chance to act in "The Fall of Rome" company, when most of the noble Romans went on strike with the actors' union. She is the fourth star to make her appearance in the Christie Specials, the others being Fay Tincher, Alice Lake and Edith Roberts. A host of favorite film players support Colleen.

BELIEVES MOTHER KNEW.

A new daughter recently arrived at the home of David H. Thompson, Metro casting director, and father was telling his four other youngsters of the "surprise."

"Do you know," confided 9-year-old Madeline, "Mother has been sewing on dresses for the last four or five weeks. I believe she knew sister was coming."

VIOLA SAID SOMETHING.

"The more I see of the new styles in gowns," says Viola Dana, Metro star, "the more I wish I had saved the clothes I had five years ago. I see that panniers and hoops are coming back."

Lucrezia Bori on BEAUTY

There is nothing more femininely attractive than a well-kept, nicely manicured hand. A little attention to your nails each day will keep your hands in shape even though you may do your own housework. Rubber gloves should be worn for all work that roughens your hands, and an old pair of chamois gloves will help to keep them attractive if you must indulge in even a great deal of sweeping and dusting.

It is very rarely necessary to use scissors or a clipper for cutting a nail down to near its desired length. The shock of cutting or clipping tends to thicken your nails and to render them less beautiful. In extreme cases when your nails have been neglected scissors may be used. A nail file or an emery board are the only proper instruments for trimming your nails.

Before using the file place both hands in a bowl of warm water long enough to permit the skin and the nails to soften slightly. After drying your hands file your nail down to its proper shape and length. A rounded nail, not too long, is considered in the best taste. In filing your nails work from the outer sides toward the center, never from the center to the corner, because the file is liable to scratch and roughen the delicate skin surrounding the nail.

After filing your nails immerse your hands again in the water. Hold them there a few minutes. Upon removal they will be found quite softened. Now wrap a small bit of absorbent cotton around the sharp end of an orange wood stick, and after dipping this into the water or into the bleach, pass it gently under the free edge of your nail to remove whatever dirt or stain it may retain.

After going over each finger in this way file each nail with an emery board. The emery should be regarded as a file. It is practically the same thing, only finer and more delicate. Proceed as with the file to remove all roughness, working from the outer edge toward the center. Look carefully for any hangnails, and remove them with the emery or with cuticle scissors. Before finishing a finger draw the emery board toward you over the surface of the edge of the nail. This smooths or thins down the edge of the nail, thickened somewhat by the filing process.

To reduce the cuticle, use the flat end of the orange stick, wrapped in a wisp of cotton. With this gently crowd back upon the finger any cuticle that has grown upward around the nail. Do not use force for this method. In case the nail should bleed the mere touch of a styptic pencil or a crystal of alum will stop it. With an orange stick or a cuticle knife scrape away the loosened skin.

Cuticle scissors may be used to cut away this skin if it doesn't come away readily. If the cuticle is so thick that it cannot be removed satisfactorily at first leave it for the next time.

Having treated each nail in this manner scan your nails for any ragged edges of skin, callous or overgrown scarf skin at the sides of each nail.

Now apply to each nail a bit of cold cream, rubbing it in thoroughly. After wiping off the cream your nails are ready for polishing. You may use a buffer dipped in nail powder for this, but a little powder sprinkled on the palm of your hand and rubbed briskly on your nails will bring a high lustre polish.

After polishing your nails wash your hands in soap and warm water. Or you may remove any powder from the edges with a bit of cotton on an orange stick.

WORDS of the WISE

What furniture can give such finish to a room as a tender woman's face?—George Eliot.

Men of today have a duty to childhood because they themselves have once been children. Each generation is a recipient in its turn of the accumulated wisdom and piety of previous ages, and is in duty bound to pass that on, "plus a certain increment due to its own exertion."

A bird in a cage is not half a bird.—Beecher.

Everybody is wise after the thing has happened.—French proverb.

U. C. ALUMNAE TO ARRANGE REUNION

The first reunion of University of California alumnae women in the history of the Alumni association is being planned in the form of a football banquet to be held on the eve of the big contest with Stanford, in the Town and Gown club, Berkeley, November 21

Reservations up to date indicate that representatives from classes as far back as 1900 will be present. In the light of the fact that the university is resuming its old traditions after the war, and with the return of the big game with Stanford, great interest in the reunion is being shown by numbers of graduates.

Stunts from the various classes represented will be the feature of the evening. Rose Gardner Marx, president of the Associated Women Students in 1911, is planning to assemble the best talent of the past ten years Jeanette Miller Schwartz and Elizabeth Witter will furnish solo selections. Monologues by Irene Coffin and Irma Brownlee, will constitute another feature of the evening.

Patronesses include Mrs. Benjamin Ide Wheeler, Miss Lucy Ward Stebbins, dean of women, Mrs Warren Olney and Mrs. Margaret Sartori of the board of regents

COUNCIL SPLITS ON STREET WORK

With Mayor John L Davie absent, the proposal of Commissioner of Streets W. J. Baccus to overrule protests against the widening of Fourteenth street between Alice and Oak streets, and proceed with the improvement, split the city council in half this morning and resulted in the widening proceedings being postponed for a month

Another street improvement proposed by Commissioner Baccus, involving the sidewalking of the north side of Twenty-sixth street between Harrison and Valdez streets, was opposed by Commissioner Soderberg on the ground that the work was more needed on the south side of the street. Protests against the improvement were finally overruled and the work ordered done.

The improvement of Abbey street between Penniman and Allendale avenues was ordered when no protests were heard The improvement of Alice street between Second and Seventh streets was postponed until next Wednesday at the request of Commissioner Baccus

The council this morning designated the gore block at Sixteenth stret, Telegraph avenue and Broadway, as the only spot in the business section where automobiles may be parked in the center of the street.

An ordinance creating the position of subsititute assistant city engineer, at a salary of $200 a month, was finally passed after being amended by City Attorney H L Hagan on the complaint of Commissioner Soderberg that the original ordinance drawn by Commissioner W J. Baccus provided for no time of termination of employment

THIN, NERVOUS, RUN-DOWN PEOPLE SHOULD TAKE BITRO-PHOSPHATE

CREATES NEW, FIRM FLESH, STRENGTH AND ENERGY IN TWO WEEKS' TIME IN MANY INSTANCES

Bitro-Phosphate Should be Prescribed by Every Doctor and Used in Every Hospital—Says Editor of "Physicians' Who's Who."

"Take plain bitro-phosphate" is excellent advice to thin, delicate nervous people who lack vim, energy and nerve force, and there seems to be ample proof of the efficacy of this preparation to warrant the recommendation. Moreover if we judge from the countless preparations and treatments which are continually being advertised for the purpose of making thin people fleshy, developing arms, neck and bust, and replacing ugly hollows and angles by the soft curved lines of health and beauty, there are evidently thousands of men and women who keenly feel their excessive thinness.

Thinness and weakness are often due to starved nerves Our bodies need more phosphate than is contained in modern foods. Physicians claim there is nothing that will supply this deficiency so well as the organic phosphate known among druggists as bitro-phosphate, which is inexpensive and is sold by most all druggists under a guarantee of satisfaction or money back By feeding the nerves directly and by supplying the body cells with the necessary phosphoric food elements, bitro-phosphate should produce a welcome transformation in the appearance, the increase in weight frequently being astonishing.

Georgia Hamilton, the wonderful "movie" girl, who was once thin and frail, says: "Bitro-Phosphate brought about the magic transformation. I gained 15 pounds and never before felt so well."

Clinical tests made in St Catherine's Hospital, N. Y. C. showed that two patients gained in weight 23 and 27 pounds respectively, through the administration of this organic phosphate, both patients claim they have not felt as strong and well for the past twelve years

Increase in weight usually carries with it a general improvement in the health Nervousness, sleeplessness and lack of energy which nearly always accompany excessive thinness should soon disappear, dull eyes ought to brighten and pale cheeks glow with the bloom of perfect health

Physicians are now recognizing its merits by its use in ever increasing quantities Frederick Kolle M D, editor of New York Physicians Who's Who, says 'Bitro-Phosphate should be prescribed by every doctor and used in every hospital to increase strength and nerve force and to enrich the blood'

Joseph D Harrigan Former Visiting Specialist to North Eastern Dispensary, says Let those who are weak, thin nervous anemic or run-down, take a natural, unadulterated substance such as bitro-phosphate and you will soon see some astonishing results in the increase of nerve energy strength of body and mind and power of endurance

Bitro-Phosphate is made entirely of the organic phosphate compound referred to in the National Standard Dispensatory as being an excellent tonic and nervine and preparation which has recently acquired considerable reputation in the treatment of neurasthenia. The standard of excellence, strength and purity of its substance is beyond question, for every Bitro-Phosphate tablet is manufactured in strict accordance with the U S Pharmacopoe a test requirements Bitro-Phosphate is therefore not a patent medicine and should not be confused with any of the secret nostrums so called tonics or widely advertised "cure-alls"

CAUTION.—Although Bitro-Phosphate is unsurpassed for relieving nervousness, sleeplessness and general weakness, owing to its tendency to increase weight, those using it should avoid fat-producing foods unless it is the desire to put on flesh.—Advertisement.

LEGION PLANS CAMPAIGN OF AMERICANISM

By L. R. BLANCHARD,
United Press Staff Correspondent.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Nov. 13. —The American Legion today begins battling for its program of Americanization and the welfare of veterans of the world war.

The newly chosen executive committee was to meet today to draw plans for carrying into effect the manifold instructions of 2000 who dispersed last night at the close of the first annual convention of the order.

[illegible] Texas, was chosen as the first national commander of the American Legion. He won in a close contest with Hanford McNider, Iowa's great individual hero of the war. McNider asked the convention to make O'Olier's election unanimous.

Other officers elected were:

First vice-commander, Joyce D. Lewis, Long Prairie, Minn., a marine.

Second vice-commander, Allen A. Tukey, Omaha, Neb., from the army.

Third vice-commander, James D. O'Brien, California, for thirty-one years with the navy.

Fourth vice-commander, Alden R. Chambers, Massachusetts, from the navy.

Fifth vice-commander, William Follett, Oregon, from the army.

The legion, as a result of the first convention, will put into operation a commission on Americanization and will establish legislative patrols at proper places to promote a number of measures designed to promote Americanism, check radicalism, promote better feeling between labor and capital and restrict immigration.

Boys 11 and 13 Are Sought by Police

The "open road" has beckoned to James and Will McAlpine, 11 and 13 respectively. The lads have answered.

Their parents, in Modesto, are prostrated with grief. Every possible agency that would lead to the recovery of the juvenile adventurers is being resorted to. Assistance of the authorities all over California has been asked and the most thorough search is now on.

Will and James disappeared on November 3.

CORNS 'TWEEN TOES? USE EASY "GETS-IT"

Any Corn or Callus Comes Off Peacefully, Gloriously—Never Fails.

It is easy for "Gets-It" to reach "hard-to-get-at" corns, and better yet, it is easy to remove them, because "Gets-It" makes them come right off just like a banana peel. You can try to dig or drag out your corns with a knife, or slice them with a "bloody" razor, or use bandages and tape and wrap up your toe into a package, but that's the "treat-'em-rough," painful, foolish way. Use 2 or 3 drops of "Gets-It"—that's the peaceful, sure, common-sense way that never fails. You reach the corn easily with the little glass rod in the cork of every "Gets-It" bottle. It does not hurt the true flesh. Try it, trot and smile! It's a blessing, never fails.

Any Corn Peels Off With "Gets-It."

Plays & Players

MUSIC TO FEATURE NEW ORPHEUM BILL.

Heading the new bill at the Oakland Orpheum next week will be two musical acts that are among the foremost in their field today. In the popular field of music the U. S. Jazz Band, that accompanied President Wilson to France, has attained the distinction of being the most unique organization of its kind that has been gathered together. In the classic field of music, Ciccolini, the noted tenor, has been placed by many musical critics on a par with Caruso.

Ciccolini, who is but 28 years of age, has already won a place of high distinction among music lovers. As a co-star with Galli Curci with the Chicago Grand Opera Company, the noted singer made musical history.

Al Laydell and Carelton Macy in their new skit, "Old Cronies," will offer an entertaining comedy bit.

Ben and Hazel Mann will be seen on the new bill in a comedy offering that has set a new standard of entertainment. Flo and Ollie Walters, two charming girls, have a most entertaining routine of songs and [illegible] and jugglers, will present a refreshingly new routine of work in this line.

The current show at the Orpheum is finding favor with local amusement patrons.

LAUDER TO SING NEW SONGS HERE NEXT WEEK.

A great deal of preliminary interest has undoubtedly been aroused by the announcement that Sir Harry Lauder, the famous Scotch singer and entertainer, is to be at Ye Liberty Playhouse on Friday and Saturday, November 21 and 22, with a matinee on Saturday.

Lauder can always be depended upon to provide something new in the line of character songs at each recurring visit to the United States, and the present is declared to be no exception to the rule. When the comedian decided to revisit Australia, and resume the world tour that was interrupted by the great war, he wrote a number of typical songs especially for his Antipodean season, and now that he has returned from Australia these songs will be included in his American program.

Among Lauder's new songs are "The Waggle o' the Kilt," "I Think I'll Get Wed in the Summer," "There is Somebody Waiting for Me" and "January O." A revival of some of the popular old favorites is also announced—and this is a promise that will find favor with all of Lauder's persistent admirers. Among the acts are the Three Kitamuras, an exceptionally clever Japanese offering; Miss Marian Vallance, a little singer of Scotch ballads, the famous Milo; the Act Beautiful, described as a remarkable exhibition of trained equine intelligence; Miss Muriel Windsor, "The Little Peacock of Vaudeville," who was one of the headliners in Lauder's company in Australia, and Lauder's own band of Highland pipers. Prior to the arrival of the inimitable Sir Harry, patrons of Ye Liberty will have an opportunity to hear the eminent Swiss pianist, Rudolph Ganz, who gives a recital on Monday evening, November 17. Ganz will be followed by "A Daughter of the Sun," described as a second "Bird of Paradise," which plays afternoons and evenings on November 18, 19 and 20.

The current attraction is James Gleason in "A Prince There was," the celebrated Cohan and Harris production which continues till Sunday evening inclusive with the final matinee on Saturday.

MORE MAIDENS COMING TO PANTAGES NEXT WEEK.

A most entertaining vaudeville program is promised by the Pantages management for next week. The list includes the "Revue De Vogue," another of the famous Pepple & Greenwald's girl acts, the Three White Kuhns, singers and instrumentalists, acrobatics, Stan and Mae Laurel in a delightful comedy sketch, Gertrude Long and Spencer Ward, a baritone and soprano of opera fame and the Senorita Amparito Guillot, a noted Spanish dancer.

This week's bill seems to be giving excellent satisfaction. "Oh, Teddy," a vaudeville comic opera being a most pretentious musical comedy offering. Frank Bush convulses his audience with droll stories. Swayne Gordon and company have funny comedy sketch entitled "Off With the Old Love." Heras and Preston, remarkable athletes. Georgia Howard the dancing violinist. Cook and Vernon, clever comedy sketch artists. a Universal News Weekly and a Cartoon comedy.

T. AND D. GIVES TIP TO MARRIED PATRONS.

Married men with pretty stenographers as office aides, stay away from "A Temperamental Wife" at the T. and D. theater. The picture, while affording delectable entertainment and providing the alluring Constance Talmadge with a bewitching role, contains the recipe for marital turbulence. It depicts what one jealous woman did to assert her chaperonage of not only her husband but his office affairs as well. She eloped with another man.

The program this week boasts two First National Exhibitors' stars. The second is Jack Pickford who appears in "In Wrong," another of those clever juvenile roles which the star interprets so well.

Vaudeville comes in the form of Flagler and Malia, who offer a tuneful melange, "Down Melody Lane." A Pathe News of the World and scenic prologue complete the program with special musical numbers by Signor V. Marcelli's big orchestra and Herbert Burland.

Sunday, Norma Talmadge will be seen in a big special production, "The Isle of Conquest" and Frank Keenan will appear in "Gates of Brass."

FULTON WILL REVIVE "POLLY WITH A PAST."

With the rollicking breeziness and joyous fun of "The Gypsy Trail," delighting crowds at the Fulton theater this week, the management has announced a return of the brilliant David Belasco comedy, "Polly With a Past," for next week.

When Norma Brant, Paul Harvey and the rest of the Fulton company played "Polly With a Past" several months ago the demand for seats was so great that the production ran for two weeks, with hundreds even then turned away.

[illegible] was one of the biggest successes in years in New York and throughout a long country-wide tour created more favorable comment and fervent praise than anything which had preceded it in many months. Fred Belasco came over from the Alcazar theater in San Francisco to give its staging his personal supervision when it was produced at the Fulton before and it is announced he will again assist Director Hugh Knox in its presentation next week.

This week's play, "The Gypsy Trail," is creating much merriment and providing a thoroughly enjoyable entertainment for the Fulton's patrons. It is a delightful comedy, combining romance, the suggestion of the tang of adventure, infectious mirth, many amusing situations and a fascinating plot that holds attention to the final curtain. It's story of a "gentleman vagabond" who wins the love of a plutocrat's daughter while scorning to bow to his riches is a thoroughly interesting one throughout.

WILLIAM FARNUM RISKS LIFE IN WESTERN DRAMA.

"The Last of the Duanes," Zane Grey's popular novel with William Farnum in the role of Buck Duane is the principal feature at the American this week. This production is one of the strongest western pictures in which Farnum has appeared. In addition to having a strongly sympathetic love story running throughout the drama, the Fox star's impersonation of Buck Duane is peculiarly vivid.

One of the many thrilling incidents in this picture is Farnum's escape from a posse when, finding himself trapped at the top of an 85-foot waterfall, he ties a lariat to the stump of a tree and slides into the whirlpool below at the risk of life and limb.

The second feature of the bill is King Vidor's latest production, "Poor Relations," a human interest drama that appeals to all people alike. Vidor is the author responsible for "The Turn in the Road" and "Better Times," two photodramas which have had wonderfully successful runs.

John Wharry Lewis and his orchestra and Edgar Bayliss, organist, interpret the action of the pictures with their carefully chosen musical scores.

STIRRING LIFE IN OLD WEST TOLD AT FRANKLIN.

Robert Warwick in "Told in the Hills," the picturization of the novel of the same name by Marah Ellis Ryan, is playing at the Franklin theater today.

The novel, written two decades ago, has become one of the most popular and widely read books in America and its production on the screen is hailed with pleasure by thousands of book-lovers. Before the magnificent panorama of rugged mountains and deep canyons that form the background for the story, the well known characters are seen in action on the screen. Robert Warwick has the role of the heroic "Genessee" Jack Stuart. Indians, trappers, miners, their struggles and feuds keep the picture at top speed.

The cast supporting Robert Warwick includes Ann Little, Wanda Hawley, Eileen Percy, Tom Forman, Monte Blue, Guy Oliver, Charles Ogle, Margaret Loomis and Hart Hoxie.

"MALE AND FEMALE" IS GRIPPING KINEMA FILM.

Taken from the charming, whimsical "Admirable Crichton" by James Barrie, and produced as only De Mille could produce it, "Male and Female," playing at the Kinema this week, is proving to be one of the most enjoyable screen entertainments that have come to Oakland for some time.

The delicacy of wit, the charm of Barrie's story is artfully preserved by De Mille in the picture. The moving picture screen is the means of bringing out the wealth of incident in the plot more amply than either the book or the popular stage story.

Gloria Swanson, well known for her work in De Mille pictures, is charming pampered Lady Mary Lasnby. Thomas Meighan has the role of the super-intelligent butler Crichton, and Theodore Roberts is ultimable in his characterization of Lord Loam. Lila Lee, Guy Oliver, Raymond Hatten, Mildred Reardon, Julia Faye, Bebe Daniels are among the other players.

SOUSA'S BAND TO PLAY TWO PROGRAMS HERE.

If Sousa was asked to go around the world with his band playing marches only, even though he has been hailed as the "March King" in every land, he asserts that he would prefer to step out and retire. He has built up his famous instrumental body until Sousa's band compares with the finest symphony orchestras and he would never agree to confine himself to one kind of music, or to one composer, even though that composer be himself. His programs include the works of all the great masters and modern composers who have delighted the world with their inspirations.

Oakland will have the pleasure of hearing two extraordinary Sousa concerts at the Oakland Auditorium opera house on Thursday afternoon and evening, November 20 under the direction of Miss Z. W. Potter, this being the first attraction of the All-Star Course. Season and single tickets are on sale at Sherman, Clay & Co., box office, Oakland.

MADGE KENNEDY AT BROADWAY

As played by Madge Kennedy and John Bowers "Strictly Confidential" at the Broadway today and tomorrow, is a delightful example of a fine comedy so delicately played that every shade of humor in the original story, "Fanny and the Servant Problem" is emphasized with charm and comic character.

Madge Kennedy's portrayal in "Strictly Confidential" is another success scored by her.

The second feature on today's and tomorrow's Broadway is supplied by Mildred Lewis in another of his rugged stories, Jacques of the Silver North.

Saturday, Alma Rubens will be seen in "A Man's Country," and Fatty Arbuckle will supply the comedy.

MINERS WILL LAUNCH STIFF WAGE BATTLE

By WILLIAM PHILLIP SIMMS,
International News Service Staff Correspondent.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 13. — One of the stiffest fights ever engaged in between two groups representing labor and capital is expected during the conference of coal miners and operators, called by Secretary of Labor Wilson to begin tomorrow at 11 o'clock.

The operators, led by such stubborn industrial gladiators as Thomas T. Brewster, chairman of the scale committee of the central competitive field are beginning to assemble their cohorts and while saying little as to what their line of action at the conference will be, all the signs point to a bitter battle to carry their side of the controversy.

The miners, on the other hand, are just as determined and behind this determination is not a little desperation. Headed by John L. Lewis, acting president of the United Mine Workers of America, the miners' leaders realize that by yielding before the Indianapolis mandamus they have incurred the displeasure of a large faction in the American Federation of Labor and that it is distinctly up to them to make good their position. Too, the miners, fearing the effect which their strike and subsequent events may have upon the labor movement in general, will take their seats with an iron-jawed determination to fight it out to the last ditch or wrest from the operators a fair measure of their demands.

Presiding over this meeting, as stubborn as any, will be Secretary Wilson, there to see that not only miners and operators get a square deal from each other, but that what the Kenyon committee called the "third party"—the public — gets a square deal from both.

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.
LEASED WIRE TO TRIBUNE.

CHICAGO, Nov. 13.—Bituminous coal miners today were expected to return to work in increasing numbers in many of the company's lesser fields, but what they would do in the great Pennsylvania and Illinois areas and the Indiana and Kansas mines, among others, remained uncertain.

The workers generally showed a disposition to await formal notification by their immediate union officials of the strike order, had deserted their posts today, following similar action at Duquoin. The walkout was said to be a protest against obedience of international officials to the Federal court mandate to call off the strike.

DUQUOIN, Ill., Nov. 13.—Complying with an order issued by local union miners, at a mass meeting of members of United Mine Workers of America, all hoisting engineers, firemen, pump men, mule feeders and other union men who have been permitted to keep the mines in the twelfth district in working order, left their posts last night.

COLORADANS RETURN

DENVER, Colo., Nov. 13.—Striking Colorado coal miners gradually are resuming work. Additional mines opened today and the prospects were that the State would be back to normal shortly. Plenty of cars are on hand to rush the coal to Rocky Mountain communities suffering in zero weather for lack of fuel.

GARFIELD TO ATTEND

WASHINGTON, Nov. 13.—Fuel Administrator Garfield today accepted an invitation of Secretary Wilson to attend the conference here [illegible] operators to negotiate a new wage scale. It was understood that the principal reason for inviting Dr. Garfield was to obtain his advice as to how much of any wage increase granted should be passed on to the consumer.

The scope of the coming conference, officials said, will be broader than the negotiation of a wage scale, and the interest of the public in the future prices of coal will be taken into consideration.

Y.W.C.A. NOTES

A "Girls of all Nations" pageant will be given at the Y. W. C. A. tonight by the girls of the different departments. The girls of the different Monday night clubs are assuming the characters of the girls of the different foreign nations, and will be led in a Dance of Gloom, by the physical department. Immediately after this, the Goddess of Liberty (Miss Myrtle Nelson) will march to the platform, followed by the "Association Spirit" (Miss Katherine Hansen) and, following her, will be the different members of the Hostess Club, who will offer the privileges of the enlightened girls of America, such as Protective Laws for Women, Education, Physical Training, Club Activities and Recreation, Religious Life, Home and Family Life, and so on. G. T. Matthews, leader of the Y. W. C. A. orchestra, will render some of the music, and the chorus, composed largely of members of the Hostess Club, will lead the singing.

There will be no charge for the pageant. The thought is to bring before the audience the needs of the girls of other nations; and the girls of the Oakland Association are feeling their responsibility in extending to other girls the privileges which they themselves enjoy, and are taking this opportunity of putting it before the people.

GERMANS EXPECT POLITICAL CRISIS

By FRANK MASON
International News Service Staff Correspondent.

BERLIN, Nov. 13.—All indications today pointed to an approaching political crisis. The suppression for three days of the Vossiche Zeitung, organ of the Liberal Democrats, and the oldest newspaper in Berlin, has created a tremendous sensation.

The Vossiche Zeitung was suspended because George Bernhard, the editor-in-chief, suggested that the cabinet was indifferent to the fulfillment of conditions upon which depend the return of German war prisoners from France.

"The present members of the cabinet cannot be accused of bad intentions, but they are wholly incapable," said Bernard. "France can pay her debts to England and America, saving the world from economic ruin, only by close commercial union with Germany. Germany cannot repay France in money, so must give labor and goods. Payment in labor requires the closest harmony of effort between the two countries. Although French capitalists and French political leaders repeatedly demonstrated that they are ready to co-operate with Germany, despite the great fears of a German military revival, the present German cabinet has not taken any definite steps toward action in this direction. Instead, the German ministers, like the German press, seem charmed by the propaganda of certain English representatives in Berlin who are making nebulous promises of their aid to re-establish Germany."

In 1913 only 11.4 per cent of America's foreign commerce was carried in American bottoms.

NERVES SO UPSET SHE COULDN'T GET MUCH-NEEDED REST

Minnesota Woman Had Lost Flesh and Strength and Was On Verge of Breakdown

"Sometime ago," says Mrs. C. J. Cleveland, of No. 4304 Snelling avenue, Minneapolis, Minn., "I began to lose flesh, strength and color and it seemed as though nothing could restore my health. I was so badly run down that my nerves appeared to be on the verge of giving out completely. I was tired all the time and couldn't sleep at night or if I did sleep I was so restless that I didn't feel refreshed in the morning. The crying of my children upset me. I had no appetite and my face was colorless. Frequent headaches also caused me great distress and my digestion was disturbed.

"I read of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills in a newspaper and was so impressed by what they had done for others that I decided to give the remedy a trial. After I had taken half a box I could see that they were helping me. My appetite was better and I began to pick up strength at once. I continued the treatment until my nerves were restored to strength. I no longer become excited or distraught. My color is good and I have gained in weight and feel fine. I have recommended Dr. Williams' Pink Pills to my friends."

TO—Workers in the Shipyards, Commercial Shops and Manufacturing Plants of the San Francisco Bay District

Conflicting and erroneous statements have been made in the public press and otherwise purporting to explain the situation in connection with the industrial strike in effect at this time. The facts are these:

For nearly two years the shipyards and other manufacturers have been working under instructions laid down by the War Labor Board and the so-called Macy Board. Through the Macy Board the government arbitrarily fixed classifications and rates of pay. The last wage decision of the Macy Board was in November, 1918. The rates then established were made retroactive to August 1st of that year. These rates were to continue in effect until March 31st, 1919.

At the expiration of that agreement the matter of a new agreement was considered by employers and employes and put over until a meeting called by the Emergency Fleet Corporation to convene in Washington in May.

The Emergency Fleet Corporation suggested the making of a coast-wide agreement.

The meeting in Washington resulted in an understanding by the employers that they would meet with international representatives of the Metal Trades Division of the American Federation of Labor, together with representatives of the coast employes at a later date on the coast.

It was only at the urgent request of the officers of the Emergency Fleet Corporation that the employers of this district agreed to consider a coast-wide agreement.

The coast meeting was held in San Francisco. The conference succeeded, in the middle of August, in reaching a common understanding for another agreement.

Certain of the shipyard representatives sitting in the meeting made it very plain that as they were engaged on cost-plus contracts for the Navy and Emergency Fleet Corporation, no agreement could or would become effective until the Navy Department and the Emergency Fleet Corporation had approved any proposed change in rates.

At the conclusion of the conference a result in the form of a set of proposed working conditions was signed by certain representatives of the shipyards.

It was understood that this proposed agreement would have to be ratified before becoming operative. This for the reason that the commercial shops and manufacturing plants were not represented at the conference.

Before taking away the draft of the proposed agreement the labor representatives filed with the shipbuilders a letter which purported to be an explanation of how the agreement would be applied, but which in reality presented an interpretation that nullified the agreement itself. The letter was rejected by the conference committee with the statement that if the labor representatives persisted in introducing it the whole agreement would be null and void.

In spite of this the labor representatives in submitting the proposed agreement to the men for ratification included in the agreement this letter, which, with a note addressed "To the Men," was as follows:

As your representatives were unable to insert a clause in the agreement with the Shipbuilders providing for the employing of men through Union offices, we served the following notice on them:

STATEMENT TO SHIPBUILDERS

"To the Representatives of the Shipbuilding Firms Signatories to the Attached Agreement:

"In order that the position of the conferes representing the organized workers in the shipyards on the Pacific Coast may be clearly understood by the several shipbuilding firms signatories to the agreement, the undersigned international officers and representatives of the Pacific Coast District Council desire to inform the representatives of these shipbuilding firms that this agreement is signed with the understanding that it will be submitted to the membership of the Metal Trades Councils of the Pacific Coast for their acceptance or rejection.

"We desire it noted that in view of the fact that union conditions now obtain in the shipbuilding firms parties to this agreement, and that the representatives of these firms and the representatives of the workers have failed to reach any understanding covering union conditions, it is our declared intention to use all the power and influence of our organization to maintain and preserve union conditions in these plants, and if need be, refuse to permit members of our organization to work with non-union men.

"That it might not be misunderstood, we herein state that the reason we assume this position is that the representatives of the shipbuilding firms look to us and hold us responsible as the representatives of organized labor, to carry out faithfully the provisions of our agreement with them; but unless all of the employees are members of our respective organizations, we could not legally or consistently assume the full burden of this responsibility."

The following instructions therefore are issued: If non-union men are employed in the shipyards and refuse to join their respective craft organization, you should make every effort to induce them to leave the yard; or if any union man refuses to comply with the rules or laws of their respective organizations, you should use every effort to force full compliance with them.

If the employer insists on retaining non-union men in the yard, you are instructed to bring the matter to the attention of your Business Agent, who in turn will bring it to the attention of the local Metal Trades Council, and if the local Metal Trades Council is unable to induce these men to join the union of their craft, yards in which such condition arises may be struck rather than tolerate this condition.

The International organizations, however, will under no circumstances countenance any action by the men that does not conform with the laws governing their respective craft organizations.

Fraternally yours,
(Signed by the International Officers and Committee representing Pacific Coast District Metal Trades Council.)

NOTICE

Your leaders, on October 1st, disregarding the earnest request of the President that all employes remain at work until some results had been obtained in his efforts to reduce the cost of living, and without waiting to see what resulted from the labor conference in Washington, ordered you out on strike.

The net result has been six weeks of idleness, with nothing accomplished by you or your employers.

THE INCREASED WAGE, THE NON-PAYMENT OF WHICH WAS THE EXCUSE FOR THE STRIKE, CANNOT AND WILL NOT BE PAID.

The employers, through the California Metal Trades Association, pledge themselves to maintain the existing scale of wages for one year from October 1st.

THIS IS TO ASSURE YOU THAT NO CUT IN WAGES IS CONTEMPLATED.

In terms of money this strike has taken out of circulation in the San Francisco Bay District more than $9,000,000 in payrolls alone, and all to no purpose. For every week the strike continues there will be added $1,500,000 to this loss.

Many petitions have been delivered to the shipyards and to the commercial shops asking an opportunity to return to work.

In view of these facts and in justice to those men who desire to work and obtain a living for themselves and families, the shipyards and commercial shops have determined to open their employment offices to receive the applications of men desiring to work. These offices will be opened today.

If sufficient applications are received by November 19 by all the shipyards and shops, the shipyards and shops will open shortly thereafter, the date to be announced later.

Otherwise yards, shops and plants will remain closed.

This communication in effect read into the proposed agreement matter which was not agreed upon in conference. It further stated plainly that the agreement was signed with the understanding that it must be submitted for ratification and therefore was not an agreement until ratified.

ON SEPTEMBER 19 WE RECEIVED INSTRUCTIONS FROM THE EMERGENCY FLEET CORPORATION AND THE NAVY DEPARTMENT THAT NO INCREASE IN WAGES WAS TO BE ALLOWED, WHETHER PAID BY THE SHIPPING BOARD OR NOT.

As the proposed agreement had been practically nullified by the action of the labor leaders in submitting with it the rejected letter, and as no notice had been received of its ratification, we served notice on September 25th on the Pacific Coast Metal Trades Council that this agreement could not be put into effect and that wages paid after October 1st would be the same as those paid under the last Macy award.

YOUR LEADERS HAVE SAID THAT WE HAVE BROKEN AN AGREEMENT. THIS IS POSITIVELY NOT A FACT, AS THERE NEVER WAS ANY AGREEMENT TO BREAK. THE PROPOSED AGREEMENT HAD NOT BEEN RATIFIED BY YOUR ORGANIZATION ON THE DATE THAT YOU WERE NOTIFIED IT COULD NOT BE PUT INTO EFFECT. IT WAS NOT UNTIL SEPTEMBER 29, FOUR DAYS AFTER OUR LETTER WAS DELIVERED TO YOUR REPRESENTATIVES, THAT WE RECEIVED NOTIFICATION THAT THE PROPOSED AGREEMENT HAD BEEN RATIFIED BY YOU.

In view of the bad faith shown by your leaders in misrepresenting the proposed agreement by the addition of a letter of interpretation, the shipyards, manufacturers and commercial shops have made no effort to resume negotiations through these leaders. When the yards and shops reopen, it will be only under conditions which will guarantee the elimination of abuses which crept in during the war, such as deliberate reduction of output, the silent strike, the boycott, restriction and manipulation of the local labor market.

The net result of these abuses has been that production in the San Francisco Bay District has fallen below that of Seattle, Los Angeles, Stockton and other surrounding and competing localities and the business that constitutes the industry that has given you a good job in a pleasant place is gradually being taken away from us.

Self-preservation, yours as well as ours, demands a change.

CENTRALIA—A WARNING.

It is a serious outrage that veterans of the world war, parading in uniform in celebration of our national victory, should be shot down in cold blood as was done in Washington.

Too drastic measures cannot be taken to rid our country of the class of criminals who inspire or commit such crimes.—GENERAL PERSHING.

In Centralia, Washington, on Armistice Day, I. W. W. assassins fired upon citizens marching in a parade and killed four American heroes who had fought in the war in Europe and helped to win the victory that insured the safety of the country against foreign aggression. The murdered men were of that brave and gallant four million boys in uniform which patriotic citizens loyally supported with money and sacrifice and prayer.

Again the spirit of murder and assassination that dwells in the misguided mind of every I. W. W. broke forth to remind the people of its danger. Despite the abundance of evidence to the contrary, it is difficult to believe that all the members of any organization are at heart criminals—difficult to believe though many of the avowed purposes of this organization are criminal and can only be accomplished through crime. The crime of Centralia indicates rather misshapen intellects and perverted reasoning powers.

The mentally normal person, with an average amount of information, even though bent upon assassination, would not commit so futile an act and one certain to bring terrible vengeance upon his head. But it shows the menace of the teachings of this cult upon the minds of its devotees. Its precepts and its propagandists create wanton murderers.

And it shows also the public menace which continued existence of any organization dedicated to defiance of the law and the overthrow of government constitutes. Warnings have been issued from time to time by organs interested in the maintenance of law and order, usually intemperate language which for some unaccountable reason failed to convince the authorities. It remains for the I. W. W. of Centralia to give through their deeds violent notice that they call for stern, thorough and prompt repression.

Repeatedly has THE TRIBUNE called upon the authorities and the courts to enforce the law promptly and impartially as the surest means of preventing such a crime [illegible] that which was committeed in Washington [illegible] Armistice Day and the unlawful lynching whi[illegible]ed it. Possibly it will require here, as [illegible] Centralia, a terrible tragedy to arouse autho[illegible] and [illegible] foolish and sentimental patrons of [illegible] and the citizens.

But such should not be the case. The axiom that one unlawful act leads to another is verified almost every day. Delays in the dispensation of justice provoke impatience, an incentive to riotous acts. The authorities know their duty. Will they perform it?

AND AN OAKLAND EXAMPLE.

A striking example of the penalty of negligence has been given in Oakland. On Sunday evening a meeting of 100 radicals was held in Loring Hall, at which it was reported that the American flag was shrouded in anarchistic red and inflammatory speeches against the Republic, its laws and its authority, were uttered. On Tuesday night a crowd of enraged citizens broke into the same hall and destroyed property.

Although the presumption is not justified, it is possible that no unlawful act was committed at the Sunday meeting. But there is no doubt as to the unlawful character of Tuesday's affair. It was riotous, mob violence. Had the first meeting been watched by the police and lawlessness quelched, the second would not have occurred. Although warned, they did nothing in either case. Disorder from any source or from any cause whatsoever should be suppressed and when it is not suppressed the authorities have failed in their sworn duty.

The police inspector who had notice of the meeting of the radicals says he informed the District Attorney and the Commissioner of Public Safety in the matter, but got no encouragement. He alleges that the District Attorney told him not to go ahead in interfering with the assembly because the court calendar was clogged. Mr. Decoto confirms this in part. He says he told the inspector that the calendar was already clogged and to be careful that he had evidence of violations of the laws before he made any arrests.

Making all allowances for the difference in versions, it is perfectly plain that the police officer got no support, moral or otherwise, from those official sources where he had every right to expect it and where it was the plain duty to give it. The District Attorney explains the matter by saying that when the inspector told him a "communist" meeting was to be held he did not sense anything unusual. He was not impressed with the seriousness of the event; he "does not know what 'communist' means."

It is high time for the District Attorney to comprehend the present significance of communism and all its synonyms—sovietdom, Bolshevism, anarchy and revolution against the Republic. It is time that he knew that any meeting, under any name and circumstances, where revolution and lawlessness is preached is a violation of the laws which he is charged with enforcing. It is time that he knew that the desecration of the American flag is a violation of the State and and federal statutes.

Every official should know danger signs and that to ignore them is a scandalous dereliction of duty.

It must not be understood that it is the duty of the District Attorney's office to tell the police where crime is to be committed, but it is the inescapable duty to make a more cordial response to a police officer's request for advice than to remind him of a clogged court calendar.

As to Commissioner of Safety Morse, he was not expected to exhibit any sign of interest until after the misdeeds were committed. This is the unhappy record of his regime as head of the Police Department.

IN THE COURTS.

As to the courts there seems to be a lamentable lack of appreciation of the urgency of prompt action. In the police courts charges stand against men accused of unlawful acts—of violating the syndicalism law and other offenses. But their cases are put over week after week, until the weeks become months. Whether it is the fault of the police prosecutors or the police judges is not clear, but it is clear that nothing is done. If evidence against an offender is lacking he should be dismissed; otherwise he should be brought to trial and punishment or his case passed on to the Superior Court.

In Judge Quinn's department of the Superior Court an extraordinary proceeding has been on for a week. Disqualification of prospective jurors in a current case has been permitted because they expressed opposition to the I. W. W. Whether this was due to the indifference of the presiding judge or the inaptitude of the District Attorney's office, or a combination of both, is immaterial. Did any one hear of a citizen being disqualified as a juror in a murder case because he did not believe in murder?

Is it of record that a court has hitherto countenanced tactics which worked to exclude from jury service intelligent, loyal and informed citizens merely because they were intelligent, loyal and informed? Surely not in many cases!

It is incumbent upon the officials in every department of the county and city government to see to it that law and order is maintained by all elements and classes; that the community must maintain its character as a loyal American community. The safety of all the people demand this. [illegible] must also be recognized that the law is to be enforced and justice administered by and for citizens who are loyal to law and order.

Indifference, incompetency and ignorance cannot be safely tolerated in official circles. Those who cannot meet the test that the times impose upon them should have the grace and the wit to retire.

These persons who buy whisky clandestinely, by wholesale and in violation of the law, are presumed to know something about the article they purchase. Yet there are many complaints of being swindled with water and other kickless fluids. If the purchaser cannot see or taste or smell, of what use is liquor to him? He ought to be immune from feeling the loss of his money.

The action of the French government in preventing Paris hotelkeepers from charging Americans extortionate rates might very well be taken as a reminder by American hotelkeepers. Otherwise, some hotel dwellers may find it more economical to move to Paris.

NOTES and COMMENT

It is no secret at all that a person recognized as being "all right" can get a drink at many bars and places. But the government is devising ways to confuse such traffic. Five hundred internal revenue sleuths from the East, absolutely new to the situation here, are among the devices.

A hoodoo dinner, at which all the terrible consequences that result from such daring acts as thirteen at table will be defied, is one of the bold challenges to fate that is proposed. Even if all shall emerge unscathed, it is probable the faith of the mass in omens will not be very greatly shaken. Proof that dire consequences do not necessarily follow the breaking of a looking glass is a heartless interference with a cherished belief.

A very curious suit is that in which $300,000 was awarded by a San Francisco jury as damages against a distilling concern for failure to deliver 73,000 gallons of whisky dregs every day, as per contract. The dregs were wanted for potash-making. Showing how the residue of the forbidden stuff runs into money.

SPIRIT of the STATE PRESS

California police, constables and public prosecutors will please take notice that Superior Judge Frank R. ## THE WEST HAS WOMEN'S COLLEGE OF HIGHEST STANDING

To the Editor of The Tribune:

The Pasadena Star-News, in its edition of November 4, 1919, printed an article on the need and possibility of a college for women in the West, and suggests that Pasadena is the "ideal location" as far as climate and geography are concerned.

Evidently the writer of this article is unaware of the existence of Mills College in Oakland, California—chartered as a seminary in 1852 and as a college in 1885, and that today it is the only woman's college west of the Rocky Mountains. He is ignorant of the fact that four hundred women crowd it to its utmost capacity, that there is a long waiting list, and that the standard of scholarship is recognized as equal to that of any college in the country. He is uninformed as to the fact that Mills is one of the ten colleges west of Denver recognized by the Association of American Universities; that it is one of the four colleges in California recognized by the Association of Collegiate Alumnae, the others being the University of California, Stanford and Pomona.

The citizens of Oakland and San Francisco cannot afford to let such an article as that in the Star-News go unchallenged. We quote:

"Dr. Bragdon submits four proposals. That a woman's college be founded; that it is desirable that it be in Pasadena; that this is the time to establish it; that Pasadena is the best location for it. A woman's college will give Pasadena a distinction as a college town. It will be mentioned with Palo Alto and Berkeley, Smith and Vassar. It will attract people of good circumstances and good blood. It will, by lectures, addresses and concerts, give large literary and artistic advantages to the people and thereby add to the residential advantages. It will add to the wealth of the city. It will advertise Pasadena favorably in the East. It will double the schools here in number. These schools will spend money and attract residents who will spend money. The women's colleges have solid footing in the educational life and thought of the East. They are as carefully and respectfully noted as Yale and Harvard. Their ideas carry as much weight, their methods are studied as scientifically as any. In every respect they are abreast with colleges for men. They have come to stay. They are drawing larger gifts than any except Chicago University and perhaps Harvard and Yale."

If Pasadena believes that a college in the air, without charter or endowment, offers such advantages, how much greater an asset to California, and especially to the bay region, is Mills College, already recognized, standardized and proved, with its thirty classes of college graduates.

Yours truly,

ROSALIND A. KEEP,
Bureau of Publication,
Mills College.

"FOR GOD AND COUNTRY!"

To me there had never been a doubt as to the ultimate result of the war. My belief and confidence in a just and merciful God convinced me that Germany would be defeated, but I am free to admit that never for a moment did I anticipate the result which followed the overthrow of the German military system.

Today there is hardly a government in Europe where the Socialists do not control affairs, and Socialism means a denial of any right of God in the matter of the conduct of human affairs. No political order ever has been, or can be based on Socialistic ideas. And these principles are finding their way into the United States. Here the same spirit is exhibited in the disregard for law and order and the orderly and lawful conduct of our civil affairs.

For you the duty is plain. As our boys stood shoulder to shoulder and fought despotic rule over there, you [illegible] here in support of law and order, and always and everywhere oppose mob rule or any other kind of disorder. The constitution and law are your guide. Always and everywhere be found on the side of law and order. The Kaiser was not one-half as much an enemy to us and our institutions as the man who defies the law or defends the actions of the lawless mob. We have, to our shame, too many examples of lawless conduct in this State. Never condone it; always oppose it. Stand behind the lawfully constituted authorities. Only this will save America from the fate of those German cities ruled for a time by the murderous mob.

Do not be deceived; the peril is at our door. Never allow yourselves to be carried away by the false claim that it is right to take the law into your own hands. We want no anarchists or revolutions here; we want law, order and the peaceful conduct of our affairs.

As knights, [illegible] the old cry, "For God and country!" This is your duty today. Doing it you will have the blessing of God, the approbation of conscience, the gratitude of all patriotic Americans.—From a Columbus Day sermon to the K. of C. by Bishop K[illegible] of Savannah.

CONSERVATIVE OZARK WOMEN.

While smoking among women is said to be increasing in eastern cities it is falling off in one of the original haunts of the habit. That is down in the Ozarks. He says he never saw an Ozark woman smoke a cigarette, although the men folks are taking up the rolled variety of smoke.—Kansas City Star.

HOW TO BEAT THE SUGAR SHORTAGE

There is one comparatively easy way to overcome the temporary shortage of sugar if all will pursue it. That is, systematic practice of economy, which need only last a week or so. There are, say, 20,000,000 families in the United States. If each should reduce its use of sugar to the extent of only two ounces a day it would mean a saving of 2,500,000 pounds, and if this practice were observed for only two days a week, it would soon enable refiners to replenish supplies. Just now, when it looks as if the public were in for a brief season of heatless days, as a consequence of the coal strike, it may appear too much to suggest a sugarless day; but for most of our ills there is a remedy if the individual will apply it, and denial by oneself of an occasional spoonful of sugar is not an intolerable sacrifice.—Pittsburg Gazette-Times.

If Great Britain gives commercial travelers to foreign parts the courtesies and conveniences of her battleships, she is only recognizing the normal relation between navies and trade expansion in times of peace. Perhaps the United States might do well to follow her example.—Brooklyn Eagle.

DURANT MAY HEAD LOCAL AERO POLICE

Commissioner Morse Favors Air Force for Oakland With Experienced Aviator Over Division Police Department

With the idea of eventually perfecting an aerial police department for Oakland, Commissioner of Public Health and Safety F. F. Morse is making an investigation to determine what legal steps can be taken to inaugurate such a department with Cliff Durant, the local birdman, as its commander, with an official standing as a police officer.

"I am trying to find some means of placing Durant at the head of an aerial department that shall have specific duties and perform a real service and have a definite function," said Commissioner Morse today. "That such a service can be used to advantage in police affairs is no longer debateable, but is a recognized fact. The possibilities of an aerial police force were very clearly outlined at the recent convention of the League of California Municipalities."

According to the commissioner, the value of an auxiliary air police force lies chiefly in a general patrol service, in carrying dispatches and mail, and in conveying police from one point to another in cases of disturbances. The first step toward the building of the Oakland air patrol was taken several weeks ago when Commissioner Morse announced the appointment of Durant as a special aerial policeman. The immediate purchase of planes is not contemplated, Morse says, but it has been definitely decided that Oakland shall have such a service if it is possible.

May Put Stop to Auditorium Fights

Prize fights conducted in the municipal auditorium will be stopped altogether unless the decisions rendered by judges of the bouts are above suspicion, according to an edict of the city council today, when the commissioners took cognizance of an alleged unjust decision rendered at the fights last week.

With the expiration of the old contract under which the Shipbuilders' Athletic association has been allowed the use of the auditorium arena on Wednesday nights at a nightly rental of $50, a new system of handling the boxing contests was put into effect today under which the maximum rental of $200 a night will be charged.

The first petition of the association asking for the use of the Auditorium under the new system was presented to the council today and granted, and hereafter, instead of operating under contract, the arena will be rented from week to week, excepting in instances where the building is already in use for other purposes.

Woman, Prospective Juror In I. W. W. Case, Declares Stranger Gave Her Advice

That she was approached a few moments after receiving her summons as a juror, by a man who asked her to consider both sides in the I. W. W. case in which she might sit, was the allegation of Miss Mary E. Perry of 262 Twenty-third avenue, called to the box in the anti-syndicalist law case of James McHugo, former local I. W. W. secretary today. Though Miss Perry declared she had not been influenced by the remarks addressed to her, she was subsequently peremptorily challenged by the prosecution.

Miss Perry is a register in the present school census here, and is shortly to be called into the United States census work. She declared that the morning she received her jury summons she met a neighbor in conversation with a stranger and that the latter, having heard her remark that she had been drawn on the jury, said:

"You may have to hear the I. W. W. cases. Those are going to come up. The newspapers have said their say on that subject. The other side will be told now."

TRY TO GET DESCRIPTION.

Council for both sides examined her explicitly on this conversation, the defense seeking a description of the man with whom she conversed. Miss Perry said she walked away from him soon after he had made these remarks.

Three peremptory challenges were exercised by each side this morning. The prosecution excused George D. Mayle, Mrs. Ada Graber and Miss Perry. The defense similarly excused Samuel Davis, Mrs. M. M. Bradford and Henry T. Smyth. E. O. Church of 367 Lester avenue, was dismissed on a defense challenge for cause when he admitted a feeling against the I. W. W. which would require evidence to remove.

The jury as it was constituted at noon was as follows: David McCarron, C. W. S. Hall, Mrs. Matilda F. Paul, J. W. Watson, Frank Meley, J. O. Watkins, Mrs. Julia Agard, Mrs. W. T. Moreton, Mrs. Edith Harrison of 6889 Arthur street, G. F. Calberg of 812 East Sixteenth street, Michael A. Hogan of 3340 Webster street and Mrs. Jessie Howie of 653 Sycamore street, the last four having been drawn this morning. Calberg is a fire insurance salesman and Hogan a retired Southern Pacific ferryboat captain.

WOULD HASTEN TRIAL.

Most of the morning session passed without feature, five members of the panel being examined. The court showed a disposition to hasten the selection of a jury and upheld a number of objections of the prosecution to defense questions made on the ground that the defense was consuming more time than necessary by going into unimportant questions.

Deputy District Attorneys A. A. Rogers, Jr., and John U. Calkins conducted the examination for the people; William B. Cleary and John G. Lawlor for the defense.

Superior Judge James G. Quinn declared today, on receiving the letter of J. W. Ricketts, secretary of the Alameda and Contra Costa Counties Metal Trades' Association, asking that thirteen jurors selected from that council be permitted to sit within the railing of the court during the trial of James McHugo, charged with criminal syndicalism, that he would pay no attention to the communication.

ONLY ONE JURY TO BE RECOGNIZED.

"There is, of course, only one jury recognized in this court," said he. "For me to recognize any other would be not only improper but ridiculous. As far as permitting such persons to occupy seats within the courtroom is concerned, I may say that they have the same right that extends to others of taking the seats provided for the public, as long as there are any vacant. I certainly do not intend to extend even semi-official recognition to such a body by granting any special permission as to attendance in court. Such a permit would be of no more value than the right that already exists of citizens to attend any public trial and I suspect that there may be other reasons back of the request than the mere desire to hear the testimony.

"Our laws have been enacted with great care in order that an unprejudiced jury may pass upon the merits of every criminal charge. When then, should any recognition be given to a verdict from an admittedly prejudiced body?"

In consideration of the length of time spent yesterday afternoon was less productive of jury increment than any preceding period of the trial. Four members of the panel were examined and none of the four was temporarily passed. Three, in fact, were excused for cause and the questioning of the fourth was continued to this morning.

George D. Mayle was excused by the prosecution on a peremptory. Mrs. Margaret E. Garcia of San Leandro admitted that the fact of McHugo's arrest appeared to her mind to suggest some measure of guilt, to remove which she would need evidence. She was challenged for cause by the defense. William P. Carey of 1354 Park avenue, Emeryville, brother of Marshal Ed Carey of that place, was challenged for cause when the defense discovered him to be a deputy sheriff. Joseph Damm of 4548 Ellen street was dismissed by consent on account of physical disability.

That an effort has been made by the association of radical interests which is backing the McHugo defense to attract as much cooperation of such interests as possible is indicated in a letter sent out by the Labor Defense League, which was read to the jury yesterday. The letterhead bore the names of Emanuel Levin as secretary, Charlotte Anita Whitney as treasurer and William B. Cleary as counsel and was as follows:

"TRYING TIMES."

"These are the most trying times for all of us interested in the working class movement. Laws are being passed to suppress all of our activities and even our freedom of expression.

"In this state a law was recently passed known as the criminal syndicalism law. The State Federation of Labor and all labor unions have gone on record condemning this law as a direct menace to organized labor. About fifty arrests have been made in Oakland, San Francisco, Sacramento, Stockton and Los Angeles. Those arrested are union men, Socialists and I. W. W.

"We must prevent this law from being so interpreted that it will interfere with the progressive and lawful expression along working class lines.

"You, dear comrades, can help.

"Read the inclosed instructions and follow them closely.

SHRIEKING SIREN RETIRES FROM FIRE SERVICE

Exit another of the old city institutions dating back to Oakland's village days.

Many a peaceful citizen who has been driven to the brink of murder or suicide by having his midnight slumbers shattered by the siren blasts of the old fire whistle, will welcome the announcement of Fire Chief Elliott Whitehead that said whistle has peeped its last—that is, for fire purposes.

Some faint echo of the days when the big fire siren at the foot of Grove street made nights hideous and sleep a matter of chance, will sound at noon hereafter and at 9 o'clock each night, but as far as fires are concerned the whistle is passe.

The minister who innocently broke up a home is a character in "The Branding Iron," starting in Sunday's TRIBUNE.

POLICE SEEK HUSBAND OF SLAIN WOMAN

Doubt Cast on Identification of Body by Contra Costa Sheriff, Who Says Difference in Ages Do Not Agree

Sheriff R. R. Veale of Contra Costa county came to Oakland today to enlist the aid of the Oakland peace officers in the effort to untangle the mystery of the murder victim found in the woods near Martinez last Monday, and to secure their assistance in the search for a man named Lee Sullivan Yates, said to be a soldier who deserted.

According to Veale, the murdered woman was identified by Mrs. Bertha Jordan of San Francisco as her daughter. Mrs. Jordan said her daughter, whom she stated positively was the murdered woman, was Edith Jordan, who married Yates, the man sought.

Sheriff Veale expressed doubt of the correctness of the identification. In the first place Mrs. Jordan said her daughter's age was 22, whereas the University of California chemists who made an examination of the hair of the victim in comparison with samples of the hair of Mrs. Jordan, said today that the hair indicated the murdered woman to be nearer 50 years old. They further said that the strands examined indicated the deceased to have been a woman of careless habits in the matter of cleanliness, whereas Mrs. Jordan says her daughter was a trained nurse and not neglectful of her person.

The positive identification of the murdered woman as her daughter by Mrs. Jordan, in spite of the contradictory evidence of the chemical analysis, complicated the situation to a degree, nevertheless Sheriff Veale is pursuing the search for the soldier Yates in order at least to clarify the situation.

The name of the woman making the identification was first given erroneously as Mrs. McAdam, of San Francisco. At first she refused, it was stated, to divulge the name of the daughter whom she was convinced was the murdered woman, saying she must first locate the daughter's husband.

The physicians of Martinez have expressed the opinion that the body probably has lain in the woods where it was found since about the time Mrs. Jordan says her daughter disappeared. It has been said that the condition indicated the occurrence of death six months ago or longer.

The theory has been advanced by Deputy Coroner Mrs. H. J. Hauser that the dead woman was in a delicate condition when she was murdered. The theory is adduced from the design of the corset worn.

Sheriff Veale states that the mother gave a plausible motive for the murder of her daughter, but the motive advanced is not disclosed, pending its investigation.

"Mother Goose" in Drama Form Is Plan of Women

MISS CALLA MACQUE (top) and MRS. MAY DENKE

Rowing Club Members to Present Noted Songbirds at Benefit Saturday

The Oakland Women's Rowing Club will present a dramatization of Mother Goose rhymes in Star King hall, Fourteenth and Castro streets, Saturday night. The entertainment will be given for the purpose of replenishing the club treasury and to maintain the club's private charities. A short musical program will be given before the extravaganza and the club has obtained the services of two of Thomas Vincent Cator's songs, "Clorinda Sings" and "To Ramona."

Calla Macque is well known in private life as Mrs. Ella McVicker, she is an active member of the American Talent Club and was for several seasons a member of the American Opera Co. During the war Mrs. McVicker was in great demand in entertaining the soldiers and sailors and at present she is soloist at St. Frances de Sales and St. Joseph's churches in Oakland.

In the extravaganza Mrs. May Denke, well known Oakland singer, will take the part of Mother Goose. As Mother Goose Mrs. Denke will introduce the various characters from the old familiar Mother Goose rhymes.

How a primitive woman of the west became a Broadway stage star is told in "The Branding Iron," starting in Sunday's TRIBUNE.

CITY HOLDS UP EASTBAY CO.'S WATER BILLS

Payment Refused, Pending a Decision by Railroad Commission; the Case May Be Taken to Supreme Court

Payment of the city's water bills for the month of October, for which demand has been made by the Eastbay Water Company under the new basic charge recently granted by the state railroad commission, and now under contest by the Eastbay cities, is being held up by Commissioner of Public Works Frederick Soderberg, and no further payment for city water will be made until the controversy over the new charge is settled.

In a legal opinion given this morning to Commissioner Soderberg, City Attorney H. L. Hagan advises against payment of the demand of the water company for its October bills, totaling more than $10,000, and this advice is being followed by the commissioner, who will confer further with Hagan regarding what he declares are excessive charges for water. According to Hagan, to pay the demand would be to recognize the validity of the claim and possibly foreclose the rights of the city before the courts.

The matter of payment has been taken up with President W. E. Creed of the Eastbay Water Company, who will confer with Hagan on the question, and a stipulation is expected by the city attorney relative to the payment or impounding of the money.

The city has already applied to the railroad commission for a rehearing of the case and City Attorney Hagan informed Commissioner Soderberg this morning that if the rehearing is not granted he is prepared to apply for a writ of review to the supreme court for a decision on the validity of the new hydrant charge.

The demand made by the Eastbay Water Company for October, which is the first bill submitted since the new decision went into effect, is based on an annual hydrant charge of $107,076.11, with a sur-charge of 10 per cent amounting to $10,707.61, making a total annual hydrant charge of $117,783.72. The charge for October, one-twelfth of the total, amounts to $9,815.31. The basic annual charge is really $105,500, to which was added $10 per 1000 feet for net additions of pipe lines and hydrants. The hydrant charge is exclusive of water service to the city figured on the same basis as that served to a private consumer.

"Until I get some further advice from the city attorney I shall hold up the bill for hydrant charges and all other city water bills," said Commissioner Soderberg this morning. "I don't like the looks of these bills, but the railroad commission is in cahoots with those people and we are helpless."

L. A. Judge Holds "Purity" Laws Violate Rights

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 13.—A blow at so-called "purity ordinances" is seen here today in the decision of Justice W. J. James of the district court of appeals in holding that the Los Angeles "rooming house ordinance" conflicts with the Magna Charta, the Bill of Rights and the Declaration of Independence. The rulings were made on a brief submitted for the appeal of Frank Dillon and Ethel Adams, arrested in a hotel raid several months ago. The justice held that no police officer has the right to arrest without a warrant, unless all elements of the crime were committed in his presence. The police practice of holding persons accused of violating the "rooming house" ordinance for physical examination is also involved in the adverse decision.

LILLIAN TROY NOW BARRED FROM ENGLAND

Miss Lillian Scott Troy, former resident of Oakland, sister of E. P. E. Troy, connected with municipal affairs in San Francisco, and R. E. Troy, of the Irish Historical society, cannot return to England from where she was deported as an undesirable visitor, according to Home Secretary Shortt in the British house of commons today, who, in reply to a question, said that she had been deported as an undesirable alien and that for the same reason she would not be allowed to return.

Miss Troy arrived in New York last April, following her expulsion from England, where she had resided for several years. The British government is said to have objected to her presence there because of her friendship for and interest in securing the freedom of Baron von Horst, formerly a California resident, interned in England during the war. Likewise it was said she was too actively engaged in the interest of Irish freedom for a mere visitor, and that her views upon the labor question and her prophesies of impending revolution disturbed the British governmental decorum.

REEVES GETS ACID TEST TONIGHT AGAINST BAT ORTEGA

J. CAL EWING, LOCAL BASEBALL MAGNATE, IS HONORED BY THE NATIONAL ASSOCIATION

MIDDLEWEIGHTS WILL FURNISH MAIN EVENT AT THE AUDITORIUM

Balance of Bill Featured by Bouts Between Boxers of Various Colors and Sizes

By BOB SHAND.

Jack Reeves, the young San Francisco middleweight gets the big chance of his career this evening when he hooks up with Battling Ortega in the main event of Tommy Simpson's boxing show at the Auditorium. It will be the making or breaking of young Reeves who will go against the acknowledged champion of the Pacific Coast and a man whom many think is the best boxer of his poundage in the country today.

Reeves has been in the game only a short time but he has had the advantage of a thorough schooling under the direction of Alick Greggains, the veteran trainer who has produced many a champion and near-champion. Greggains spotted the kid in a San Francisco gymnasium and was impressed by his boxing.

Alick at once took the youngster in hand and after shooting him in against a few members of the well known Sapp family he started him against the first flight of middleweights. Reeves has done mighty well for a boy of his age and experience and Greggains looks for him to make a good showing against the champion tonight.

National Fame if Reeves Wins Scrap

There are those who think the veteran is sending his boy along a little too fast, but Greggains adheres to the belief that if Reeves cannot lick Ortega now he never will be able to accomplish the trick and he might as well know his fate tonight as several months hence. A win for the San Francisco boy will mean that he will attain national recognition, for news of Ortega's prowess has been flashed to every eastern sporting center and any bird that can take a fall out of the Battler will get his name in every sport sheet worth while. That's the stake that young Mr. Reeves is fighting for tonight, that and of course the juicy medal that Promoter T. Rancher Simpson will award him for his temerity in tackling the Mexican mauler.

There won't be any fancy boxing when Ortega and Reeves hook up, but there will be a fight provided Reeves has forgotten the holding-on tactics that got him in wrong on the occasion of his last appearance on this side of the bay. If Jack wants to get in close and fight as he has shown a tendency to do in his previous battles Ortega will accommodate him, but there is no necessity of clinging to his opponent as though he owed him a wad of dough. Ortega seldom holds and it will not be to his advantage to do so tonight against the Mission youngster, so it is up to Reeves whether the fight is going to be applauded or hooted.

Eagles and O'Keefe in Return Match

Harry Eagles and Jerry O'Keefe are going to do it all over again. Last time out Eagles clipped Jerry on the chin in the opening round and it looked like curtains for the champion of all Donegal. Jerry was crowded into a neutral corner, where Eagles hammered him at will, but the foxy Irishman was not taking any on the chin that evening. He had his gloves wrapped around his good looks and none of the punches that Harry landed hurt. However, Eagles fought himself out by lacing Jerry in the corner and when the Donegal boxer broke away from the ropes he proceeded to give Eagles a whole lot more than he received. The decision went to O'Keefe and it was a tribute to his gameness. Jerry does not expect to get his chin in the way of a punch in the first round tonight, so he says he will win by a wider margin than he did last week.

Alick Greggains will start another member of his stable tonight in Jack Ryan, a combersome heavyweight who is still very green. Jack has not shown much promise but he will have to make a good showing against Bill Shafer tonight or he may be shy a mentor in the morning. Ryan has been boxing about as long as Reeves, but he has not displayed the same aptitude for the game. However, as long as he wants to fight Greggains is willing to shoot him in against the local crop of heavies and pray for the best. Shafer did not make much of a fight in his last start, but he was handicapped by boxing a man who clung to him like a leech. Bill says he just needed that last fight and will surprise the fans tonight.

Young Azevedo Will Box Joe Leopold

Young Azevedo, a nifty performer from Twenty-third avenue, will meet Joe "King" Leopold in what should be one of the fastest battles of the night. Azevedo has had a nice rest and is freshened up. He has been training like a Trojan in an East Oakland gymnasium and he will have the undivided support of the bunch from Twenty-third avenue. Leopold showed in his last start that he is clever as ever but he does not seem to be hitting as hard as he did when he boxed here a year ago.

Young Joe Gans, the colored boy who shows occasional flashes of championship form, will meet a tough customer in Sol Carlo. Billy Wall hooks up with Jack Thomas and the show will be opened by Jimmy Rizzo, the Stockton kid, and Frankie McCann.

The first pair will be sent on their way at 8:30.

Tonight's Card At Auditorium

Battling Ortega vs. Jack Reeves.
Jerry O'Keefe vs. Harry Eagles.
Bill Shafer vs. Jack Ryan.
Joe Leopold vs. Young Azevedo.
Sol Carlo vs. Young Joe Gans.
Billy Wall vs. Jack Thomas.
Jimmy Rizzo vs. Frankie McCan.

The Ole Anderson-Bill Larue match scheduled for the Auditorium next week is very much up in the air. Seattle promoters have signed K. O. Kruvosly to go north and meet their favorite son on the 26th and Simpson was banking on Anderson coming here for the 19th. At the same time Louie Parente has kept the wires hot in an effort to get the big fellow to come to San Francisco and box Harry Wills or Willie Meehan and last night the Coliseum promoter received a telegram from Chet McIntyre, who was doing business for the San Francisco man, to the effect that Anderson was not coming south. "Some people here think I want to see Anderson get licked and they have talked him out of the trip," wired McIntyre.

Willie Meehan whom Parente thought he could shoot in against Wills, claims his wife is sick and he cannot box at the present time. Nobody expected Meehan to get into the ring with the big colored fellow after what Wills did to the stout heavyweight a few years ago. Harry simply cleaned up the ring with Willie and made him look like a soiled deuce in a brand new deck. Parente claims that Willie and Manager No. 345 Paddy Shearn agreed to the match before Louie sent tickets to Wills but Meehan says Ahearn is not his manager and that anyhow Mrs. Meehan is sick. Having eight or ten managers gives a boxer a fine "out" in case he does not want to fight.

Wills would prove quite an attraction as he is recognized as the best heavyweight in the country except Champion Jack Dempsey. Harry recently won the colored heavyweight championship and he is said to be in great shape at the present time. Carl Morris has drawn the color line and will not take a chance with the New Orleans boy and most of the other white heavyweights are under the management of the Parkside club and confine their fighting to Dreamland Rink. Bill Larue is out of the question and after a pair of wallopings Gunboat Smith received the fans will scarcely fall for him again. As a last resort the gunner may be sent in against the colored champion as Parente will have to find some way of getting back the money he spent for the Wills tickets from the east.

Scotty Watts, matchmaker for the Vallejo athletic club, will be in town tonight to give the battlers the up and down at the Auditorium. Scotty is making matches [illegible] staged in about ten days and he may offer some of the local boys medals. Jack Brereton, promoter of the Vallejo scraps, will accompany Scotty and talk business with the little four-rounders at the Auditorium tonight.

Heiney Hensel Will Box Dick Rochelle

VALLEJO NOV 13.—Sergeant Heinie Hensel, the husky marine heavyweight boxer, who recently returned from overseas, will make his initial appearance hereabouts on November 21, when he meets Fighting Dick Rockelles, a hard hitting boy from San Francisco.

As an added attraction to the next hospital show Scotty Watts announces a wrestling bout. Charley Rodgers, the champion navy yard machinist, will be one of the principals.

Boxing Bee Stings People of Dixon

VALLEJO, Nov. 13.—Al Walker, the 122-pounder from San Francisco, who made a big hit with the local fans at the airdrome recently, will meet Baby Blue, the Marysville colored demon in the main event of the Fireman's club boxing show in Dixon on Saturday evening. Six high-class bouts precede the main event, so the Dixon fans should have plenty of milling.

PROTEST LODGED BY THE ORPHEUM TEAM AGAINST MERCHANTS CLUB UPHELD

Billy Hollander, Former Oak, Will Cavort With the Judson Club in Class A

By EDDIE MURPHY

The Twenty-third Avenue Merchants, who have had a grip on the top rung of the class B division ladder in The Oakland TRIBUNE Midwinter league for four of the five weeks of play, were last night dethroned and their position taken by the Orpheum Cigar Store. The board of arbitration ruled a protest in favor of the cigar boys to bring about the change.

The Orpheums protested a game which they played with the Avenue Merchants several weeks ago and in which Umpire Alameda chased a runner back to second base after he had permitted him to score. Alameda admitted at the meeting last night that he had reversed his decision because he feared the crowd of players which flocked on the field, and admitted that the runner should have scored.

The play came up in the eleventh inning when a runner was stealing second, the catcher for the Avenue Merchants threw the ball, hitting the runner in the foot, the ball bounded to the outfield while the runner came home. The Avenue manager claimed interference. The following was the verdict of the board of arbitration which consisted of Jerry Lawlor, George Hans and Lou Kennedy.

"We, your board of arbitration in the matter of the protested game between the Orpheum Cigar Store and Twenty-third Avenue Merchants, hereby award the game to the Orpheum Cigar Store inasmuch as the statements of facts which was agreed to by all parties being concerned, as being correct, clearly shows that the game was won by the Orpheums on the run on which the protest was filed. The runner being entitled to proceed to the home plate [illegible] that he had made a mistake in recalling the runner, to second base. There was no evidence of any interference by the runner. We once again desire to call attention to players and managers that it is an infringement of baseball rules for the entire team to flock on the field and argue with the umpire on his decisions, as was done in this case."

VIERRA DOESN'T KICK.

Toney Vierra, manager of the Avenue Merchants had no complaint to make about the decision rendered by the board, and left the meeting room with confidence that his club would be right up on the top again. The board heard from managers of both clubs, as well as Umpire Alameda, and thought things over very carefully before giving their verdict.

The protest which the Hall-Scotts of the Class A League filed on the game played last Sunday had to be placed on the shelf until next Wednesday night. The managers of the Crystal Laundry team were on hand but there was no representative from the Hall-Scotts.

BILLY HOLLANDER SIGNED.

Clubs who were granted permission to sign a playing manager to bring their list of players up to thirteen, handed in the contracts last night, and among them was one of Billy Hollander, former Oak and Shipbuilder League player. Hollander, with his bride, arrived a few days ago from an eastern trip and is now ready to break back into athletics. He has signed to play with the Judson Iron Works, Claude Mitchell, acting in the absence of Manager Allan Mitchell, getting the signature.

On learning that George Armstrong belonged to the Vitt Grays in the Seals' League, and remembering the agreement which The TRIBUNE Midwinter League has with the transbay organization, Bill Wagner, business manager for the Best Tractors, released Armstrong and signed Rod Allan.

The next meeting of the Class A League will be held two weeks from last night.

Cal Elected To Office by Minor Leagues

Little Fellows Agree to Make Peace With the Majors.

SPRINGFIELD, Mass., Nov. 13.—Business relations between the minor and major baseball leagues which were strained a year ago with the abrogation of the national agreement will be resumed as a result of action taken yesterday by the National Association of Professional Baseball Leagues in its annual meeting. According to Secretary John H. Farrell's report, following an all-day executive session, the minors have decided it is best to work in harmony with the major leagues.

A general revision of the salary limits in the minor leagues was made. The class AA clubs were given permission to increase their monthly limit to $3500, an increase of $1000, while other leagues were granted proportional increases. The request of class A clubs for one more representative on the national board of arbitration was granted by the elevation of President Daniel O'Neil of the Eastern league from class B to class A, the rating which the Eastern league now has.

The board now consists of three class A representatives, instead of two; three class AA and one class B member, A. R. Tearney of the Western league being chosen to the latter office. J. C. Ewing of Oakland, Cal., was elected vice-president of the National Association, to succeed A. T. Baum of San Francisco, retired. Ewing was also named a class AA representative on the arbitration board to succeed Baum.

Tribune Class B Team Takes Fall Out of Petaluma

Milton Steengrafe, pitcher for the Halton-Didiers, made a collection of players from the class B league and took them to Petaluma on Armistice day. They played as The TRIBUNE All Stars and defeated the Petaluma club by a 4 to 3 score. The only player from the class A league was Steengrafe, and he played in left field. A crowd of more than fifteen hundred witnessed the game, and the local youngsters made a big hit.

"Tuck" Austin pitched for the All Stars and kept ten hits well scattered, besides collecting two hits for himself. Milt Steengrafe got two hits, while Razzine of the All Stars made a couple of nice catches in center field. Hadermann hit three safe ones for Petaluma, while Pizzasi and Stewart also hit well for that club. Plauccia at short for Petaluma made some nice stops of difficult bounders. The All Stars follows: R. McDonald, c.; Austin, p.; Govéra, 1b.; Reposa, 2b.; W. Steengrafe, ss.; Rego, 3b.; M. Steengrafe, lf.; Rezzine, cf.; Oliver, rf., and R. Welsh, utility. The score:

| | R. | H. | E. |

| TRIBUNE All Stars..... | 4 | 10 | 3 |
| Petaluma .............. | 3 | 10 | 2 |

Nolan Wires That Jimmy Dundee Had Better of Battle

Pete Nolan says Jimmy Dundee won all the way from Joe Gorman in their six-round bout at Seattle last night but the referee called it a draw. Here is Pete's telegram:

"Put up great fight and won all the way but it was called a draw. Dundee boxes Baird on the 19th. Regards to all the boys at Twelfth and Broadway.

PETER NOLAN.

Dundee was matched with Tuffy Wing at Portland for the 19th when he left here, but apparently the cut has been switched and "Lucky" will meet Lieutenant Earl Baird. Baird is a much heavier boy than Dundee.

HOLLISTER TEAM HAS ENVIABLE RECORD

CAPTURE 19 OUT OF 20 GAMES

Baseball fans of Santa Clara and San Benito counties should witness some great ball games in the next few weeks, as next Sunday is the day for the playing of the first game of the series between the San Jose Merchants, champions of Santa Clara valley, and the Hollister Alpines, champions of San Benito county. The San Jose Merchants are taking their victory in the championship series with the San Jose Bears with much pride, but they haven't any more reason to do so than have the Hollister Alpines.

To date the Alpines have won 19 out of 20 games played, and at no time did they have the bars up against any teams that issued them challenges. A good deal of history could be written about the Hollister boys without any need of padding. Gene Valia, a San Francisco boy who recently celebrated his twentieth birthday, and who has been made several professional offers, is the pitcher for the Alpines, and it is no wonder that he is in demand after looking at his record. He throws with his southpaw and has a noodle of the Spider Baum type. Valla won the 19 games for the Alpines, running up a string of sixteen wins before he met his only defeat.

BEAT SPEED MARTIN

The Alpines met the Gilroy club in two big series, winning the first, but not being able to collect the purse which was supposed to be at stake. Argument over that purse resulted in another series being played, with the understanding that no professionals were to be used. But after the Hollister Alpines had tucked the first game of the series away, the Gilroy manager signed "Speed" Martin of the Cubs and Fodder Dolan of the Crystal Laundry of Oakland. That happened only three weeks ago, and it did not result in stopping the Alpines from winning. Martin baffled them for three innings, but in the fourth they got to the Cub for four runs, and added the same number in the sixth when Martin retired and Dolan went in to take a beating. The Alpines won by a 13 to 7 score, Valla having things easy after the fourth inning.

ELMER LANGE STARS

Ernest Thurber has been doing the catching for the Alpines. He is a former Coast Leaguer, having played with the Vernon club in 1912. He also captained the Hollister club in the Mission league for the seasons of 1915-16-17. His experience has helped to make a great pitcher out of young Valla, and his hitting has always been of the timely variety.

Elmer Lange, a product of the San Jose lots, and who has been with the Alpines for three of his five years in baseball, must not be overlooked in dealing out credit for the Alpines' success. The score books cannot show where the youngster has made an error in the three years with the Alpines. In the spring of 1916 he had a tryout with the Seals, but lacked experience, which he now appears to have gained.

Billy Wallace, a product of St. Mary's College, having played with the famous Phoenix teams of 1905 to 1912, has been with the Alpines for three years. Previous to joining that club, he led the Salinas team in the Mission league. He also played with Colusa, Porterville and Bakersfield.

Basket Practice to Start at California

Billy Hollander basketball coach at the University of California, has issued a call for basket-ball talent to appear tonight at Harmon gymnasium. Hollander wants to get an early start in organizing his teams, and players will be asked to don suits for their first workout tonight. The regular season will not start for the university boys until the new year, but Hollander believes that his hopes cannot get too much practice.

Getting Ready to Overhaul Shamrock

NEW YORK, Nov. 13.—Shamrock IV, Sir Thomas Lipton's America's cup challenger, is to be towed from South Brooklyn to City Island today, where she will be hauled out for the winter and next April fitted out for the cup races which are expected to be held in July. Sir Thomas yesterday saw his racer uncovered for the first time in five years.

GOSSIP of GOLFERS

DEL MONTE, Nov. 13.—Many fraternal and social organizations are turning to the royal and ancient pastime. Islam Temple of San Francisco has scheduled a tournament over the Del Monte first course for the week-end of December 6 and 7. John D. McGilvray, potentate, declares that there are a number of good golfers in the organization. There will be an array of cups set up.

The death of Earl H. Fier, the prominent young attorney of San Francisco, at the Hotel Del Monte on Tuesday morning comes as a shock to the golfing fraternity. The deceased had brought along his clubs to Del Monte when he was stricken with the fatal illness, and he was figuring on regaining his health on the links.

Major D. B. Caldwell of Australia has been giving a good account of himself on the Del Monte links for the past month. Major Caldwell is one of the heroes of the war. Although only a youngster in his early twenties, he is credited with having downed twenty-one Hun planes.

The California Junior championship at Del Monte on November 27, 28, 29 and 30 is expected to bring out a representative field of young golfers. It will be held in conjunction with the annual Thanksgiving tournament for men and women.

J. V. Rittenhous, who has been prominent on the two local courses for the past year, is going to South America for a trip. He will take along his golf clubs in the hopes of getting in some matches.

Lynch Outpoints Bantam Champion

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 13.—Joe Lynch of New York outpointed Pete Herman, the bantamweight champion, in six rounds last night.

Lynch tried hard in the final round to land a knockout blow. Although his nose was bleeding freely from a hard left hook Lynch rushed Herman and had him holding when the bell ended the bout.

Marine Footballers Getting Ambitious

VALLEJO, Nov. 13.—If the Mare Island marine football eleven comes up to expectations the sea soldier aggregation will be given an opportunity to meet the California, Stanford and St. Mary's College teams. The team has only one or two veterans in the line-up.

Mare Island Sailors Defeat Nebraskas

VALLEJO, Nov. 13.—Coach Charley Goshen's Mare Island training camp sailers slipped the eleven from the battleship Nebraska a [illegible] beating in the game played at Dutch park Tuesday afternoon.

The Y. M. I. basketball team of Vallejo is putting in some hard practice this week in preparation for the game with the crack warriors five of Oakland on Saturday evening.

Five Players Tied in Billiard Tourney

CLEVELAND, O., Nov. 13.—Five players are now tied in the national three-cushion billiard tournament. Jackson, McCourt, Maupome, Cannefax and Reiselt have each won three games and lost one. Maupome, by sensational play, last night defeated Byron Gillette of Buffalo, 50 to 35 in 67 innings. Reiselt trimmed Heal 50 to 27 in 55 innings. The tournament closes tonight.

Washington 'U' Ball Team to Tour Japan

SEATTLE, Nov. 13.—The University of Washington baseball team will make a tour of Japan next summer if the present plans are carried out. Two other teams have traveled through Japan as representatives of Washington University. Washington expects to have her strongest team in history.

St. Mary's Team to Play U of Nevada

Russ Wilson will take the St. Mary's College football team to Reno for a game with the University of Nevada Saturday. Santa Clara plays the Nevada team the following week, so the fans will be able to get a line on the relative strength of the two Catholic colleges.

Caddock to Wrestle British Champion

OMAHA, Nov. 13.—Earl Caddock, champion heavyweight wrestler, will wrestle Sam Clapham, heavyweight champion of Great Britain, in Omaha on December 15. Caddock now weighs 190 pounds and Clapham weighs 210.

O'BRIEN BOXES DRAW.

SALT LAKE CITY, Utah, Nov. 13.—Tommy O'Brien, Pacific coast lightweight champion, fought a six-round draw here last night with Pat Gilbert, a local boy.

Tech Hi May Cinch Rugby Championship

By BUD MORIARTY

Tomorrow at Bay View field, Eighteenth and Wood streets, at 4 p. m., the Fremont rugby combination takes the field against Tech's fifteen. Judging from past performances, Tech should have the edge on the fray, but they do not claim this advantage even though they defeated Oakland high school last week by a 5-0 score and Oakland trounced Fremont to a 6-0 tune. The boys from the Oakland Technical high school have seen their clubs beaten too many times because of over-confidence, so they are putting the soft pedal on this old joe egotism.

TECH AFTER FIRST FLAG

If Fremont should hang the crepe on Coach Blesse's boys tomorrow, it will bring the standing of the Oakland High School Athletic league to a dead tie, each of the three aggregations having won one contest and lost one. If Blesse's fifteen manages to come out on the long end of the score it will mean that Tech gets her first rugby championship building in the history of the school. In 1915 they came within four points of defeating Berkeley high school for the flag.

Captain "Boo" Olds of the Tech ruggers says his club will enter the struggle with a few new men in the line-up, but he is Old Man Silence himself when asked who they are. Olds says, "Watch us put up a good old Tech fight! Win or lose, that gang will never lay down."

FREMONT MAY SURPRISE

Captain "Ike" Anderson of the green and gold warriors promises a big surprise. His mates are of the opinion that Fremont will spring a "dark horse" act and knock the Forty-second street men for the well-known goal. Three of their best men who were out of the Oakland battle, Thompson, Parker and Grant, will in all probability be ready to face Tech.

Tech's scrum looks better than their rival forwards both in fight and endurance, because the Oakland scrum, which was over-ridden when they played Tech, came back and pushed the Fremont scrum all over the lot.

FREMONT'S GOOD BACKFIELD

Fremont's backfield have put up many a pretty exhibition of skill in practice contests, but they have not had a chance to show anything in the league battles as yet. Tech is in the same boat in this matter, as their backfield has only had one real chance with the ball so far. This chance came in the Oakland game, and they scored through it.

Ire and Grant in the Fremont backfield are expected to play well tomorrow, while Captain Anderson will be the backbone of their forwards.

Bernie Viveiros and Dick Eggleston are two steady backfielders to be counted on when the ball is hooked out. Joe Shaw and Gil Loken will fight their fool heads off tomorrow in the pack. Scotty Tait seems due to interject some feature playing. He has not cut loose as yet in the play.

Hayward Hi Boys Nursing Black Eyes After Annual Rush

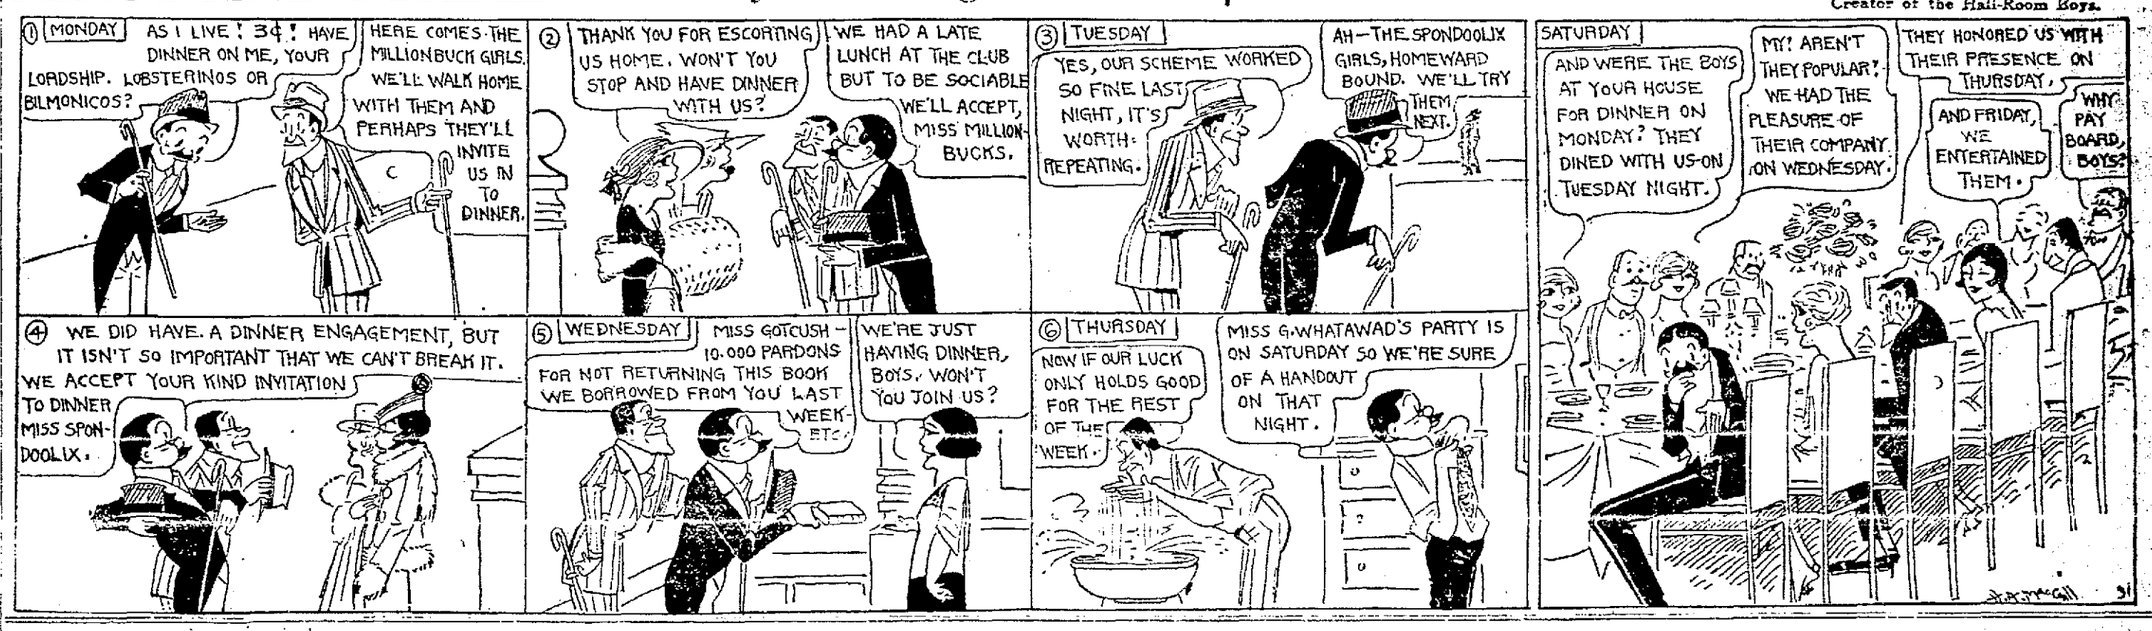

Black eyes, torn shirts, scratched faces, sore arms and legs and many other reminders were being sported or felt by the half-hundred boy students at Hayward High School yesterday afternoon, and some will sport them for a long while. The annual class rush was held and running true to form, the seniors and sophomores triumphed over the freshmen and juniors.

The big rush took place on the hill back of Hayward High School and lasted for almost [illegible] minutes, the longest in the history of the school. Also it was the first time that the seniors and sophomores were given a real battle by the younger students. In some cases, two of the seniors or sophomores were required to down a freshman or junior. A sophomore and senior clung to the neck of a freshman as they rolled more than 150 feet down the hill.

The fun started where the seniors have their big "20" smeared in whitewash on the hill back of the school. It was a battle that will long be remembered by those who took part, as well as the teachers and girl students. Now all those who were in the fight, are ready to buck together and organize baseball and track teams and go out and win the county championships.

NEEDHAM SLAYERS ON WAY TO COAST

OGDEN, Nov. 13. — Two of the three confessed slayers of Michael J. Needham, San Francisco taxicab driver, now on their way back to the coast city to answer for their crime, admitted just before leaving here that they had given fictitious names when arrested.

Instead of being brothers, Carl Cole and Fred Cole, they said that they are not related. Carl Cole asserted his right name is Gordon Fisher and that Fred Cole is really Lawrence McCarthy.

McCarthy's home was said to be in Lapel, Ind., while Fisher lived a short distance from there.

With James Kendall, alias James Helm Jr., the pair left here yesterday in custody of Charles Goff, lieutenant of detectives in San Francisco, and Michael Sheehan, sheriff of San Mateo county.

Helm added some details to his confession. He said that Needham, after he had been struck on the head with the hammer wielded by Fred Cole, recovered sufficiently to put up a hard battle and had Helm lying on the ground when one of the others struck him again. ....eedham in his struggles tore a button off Helm's army blouse. Needham, between groans, asked them why he had been assaulted and the trio then gagged him. Lieutenant Goff said the men jammed the handkerchief down Needham's throat with the handle of the hammer.

SAN JOSE HIGH ABANDONS RUGBY FOR OLD GAME

SAN JOSE, Nov. 13.—The Rugby football game was abandoned by the San Jose high school today when the squad threw aside the rules and togs of the British game for the American and went through their first practice on the Reed Athletic field. With the abandonment of the rugby game by the Stanford University and Santa Clara the return to the old game was a foregone conclusion, but it was generally believed that the change would not be made until next year. After the squad has had a couple of weeks' training the first American game will be staged with some prep team.

RIVAL FRESHMEN FOOTBALL TEAMS ARE EVENLY MATCHED

By DOUG. MONTELL.

UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA, Nov. 13.—The impending battle between the Stanford Freshmen and the Freshmen from California has attracted no small amount of attention in the past few days and is at present the most engrossing subject of conversation in the local football world. The eyes of the sport-loving public are centered on these two rival football aggregations who are to stage the main sport carnival of the week-end on the Berkeley lot. For such an important contest, there is a remarkable scarcity of dope. Even at this late date two days before the game, the two coaches are talking formations to their men and as to lineup, the very mention of the word draws nary a remark from either of the football mentors.

What lies behind all this, is it that the game is of such importance that an air of strict secrecy must be maintained up to the day of the game, or is it that with the miniature Big Game but a few hours off, that the coaches have not been able to arrive at a decision? Both are worried over the outcome, and we may forgive them in as much as both have good cause to be uncertain in their own minds as to what the result will be.

The Cardinal have somewhat the advantage, even though on paper and with the total material on both sides summed up they appear even. The Babes from the farm appear to have a well broken-in and formidable lineup, and from what they have been doing they appear to be more of a football team than do their Blue and Gold rivals. As individuals, the Berkeley Freshmen look to have it over their Cardinal friends, therefore making it an even bet, but team work is essential and the combination that Nibs Price will start for California, when he decides in his own mind some time between now and Saturday at 2:30, will not have the team work that will enable them to play anything like machine football. Hence, the Cardinal are given the edge.

PAST PERFORMANCES.

As far as past performances go, the California Freshmen have been through a lots tougher season than their red-shirted rivals. The Blue and Gold team has met ten teams on their schedule thus far this season, winning nine of these contests handily and losing the other in a rough break of the schedule with a weakened team in Nevada. They have scored some 350 points, 20 of which were scored against them in the last two games with Nevada and the U. S. C. Freshmen, both games which found the Bruin Cubs weakened to a certain extent with several men out of the lineup.

On the Stanford side of the argument, the Cardinal Babes have only been through four games, taking the Santa Clara 2nd Varsity into camp in their first game, 12-0, winning from Berkeley High the following week 13-3 and making a real game out of the go with Davis Farm, which the Babes from the Farm won 19-6. The Cardinal Freshmen trounced the College of the Pacific by a considerable score the past Saturday at San Jose which has not provided them with very much competition during the season.

BARELY BEAT FARMERS.

However, the game with Davis Farm provided a common enemy that both the California Freshmen and the Stanford Freshmen played. The California Freshmen found in Davis one of their toughest games of the season, barely nosing out the up-State Farmer 7-0. The Cardinal Freshmen soundly trounced the Farmers 19-6 down on the Farm after the Davis team took the lead, the Cardinal Babes displaying a wonderful burst of fighting spirit that always characterizes the work of Stanford teams.

The coming game Saturday will find both teams in good shape and it ought to make both teams primed for the fray. The California Freshmen felt very low last week, but with the return of several men to the game, namely Buck Gallagher, Beam and Dean and with Jimmy Blewett in such condition that they have every man back who was in the game early in the season. "Brick" Buller is again in shape and will cavort down the field under punts and will throw a few forward passes that will electrify the fans, making the probability of an open game from the California Freshman a very one.

U. C. STUDENT TO ESCAPE TRIAL

No person having appeared to swear to a complaint charging young Stephen Bechtel, University of California student and fraternity man, with any crime in connection with the death of Mrs. Jessie Chappel and her daughter Elizabeth, killed by Bechtel's automobile at Moss avenue and Broadway last week, it is the opinion of the prosecuting attorney's office that he will not be called to answer to any charge except possibly that of exceeding the speed limit.

There is a technical charge of manslaughter against Bechtel, and he is at liberty on his own recognizance. The coroner's jury assigned as the cause of the deaths carelessness of both Bechtel and the deceased, finding that Bechtel was exceeding the speed limit, and that the deceased were attempting to cross the street at a point not designated as a crossing when run down by the automobile. Both members of the prosecuting attorney's office, Fred L. Donahue and William Hennessy, stated that no complaint has been made by any one and that the matter of prosecuting the case is at a standstill.

San Diego Votes for Good Roads, 10 to 1

SAN DIEGO, Nov. 13.—San Diego county voted by at least ten to one in favor of a road bond issue of $2,300,000 for 135 miles of highway. Some of the county precincts went unanimously for the issue.

TORRID LOVE NOTE READ AT DIVORCE TRIAL

Testimony regarding the finding of a woman's kimono in a man's room, the introduction of letters containing endearing terms and alleged to have been written by a wife but not to her husband, and the production of evidence regarding visits alleged to have been paid by the wife to the home of the man in the case were the latest developments in the divorce action of Frederick Kohler against Mrs. Halie Kohler, which has been before Superior Judge T. W. Harris for the past two days.

Kohler charges infidelity, and names P. G. Morey, who has been in constant attendance on the trial and is expected to be a witness for the defense. It is alleged that Mrs. Kohler withdrew $6000 belonging to her husband from a safe deposit box and gave it to Morey.

Mrs. Edna Bowe, proprietor of the Oakland Apartments, at Twenty-sixth and Telegraph avenue, where Morey resided, testified that two days after he surrendered his quarters she found a kimono in his room. She said that Mrs. Kohler frequently called there at about 11 o'clock in the morning.

Mrs. Annie Hanson, who also lived there, testified that she saw Morey and Mrs. Kohler leave the place together.

WOMAN'S ALLEGED LETTER

The following letter, alleged to have been written to Morey by Mrs. Kohler and to be in her handwriting, but which was not signed, was offered in evidence:

"I am writing you tonight, dear, as everyone has gone to bed. The Boss is not feeling well. Was sick all week and don't seem to get much better. He moans around here because his head aches a bit and has a cold. You would think he was going to die. If it was I, he would think I was able to go to a show or his mother's and would be angry if I refused.

"Oh, I am getting so disgusted I can hardly hold myself at times. He is half mad at me because I do not spend my time on Sunday making a fuss over him. Did you ever have to be nice and keep a stiff upper lip with someone you do not care for any more? He seems to get more disgusting all the time and so easy to get angry. Then I am expected to kiss and make up as soon as he is in the humor, but it don't go down with me. I can forgive but not forget.

"Things have got to change and that soon or I will go insane, as it takes all the will power I have now to stand it. And you know, dear, that I have quite a bit when I try. Hope you are happy.

"Anything I can do or get for you, just say the word, and write often, Dear."

LAST "DEAR" UNDERSCORED

The last "dear" is underscored twice.

Kohler testified that when he upbraided his wife for her conduct she said:

"Well, you can get a divorce on the ground of infidelity and I'll not appear against you."

He said that when he attempted to talk to her about a property settlement she "just laughed at me, though I told her it was no laughing matter, but the ruining and breaking up of my home."

Judge Harris granted an intermission of several hours today to permit the plaintiff to bring a witness from San Francisco.

C. of C. Decides to Back Open Shop Plan

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 13.—In a public statement issued yesterday the San Francisco Chamber of Commerce announces that in the public interest and after a painstaking investigation of the situation, it has decided to lend its financial and moral support to the Pacific Coast Merchant Tailors' Association in their effort to conduct their business upon an open-shop basis, after the decisive rejection of all fair offers of settlement by the striking journeymen tailors.

The chamber declares that its investigation has shown that the wage and hour demands set forward by the journeymen tailors were only a cloak to mask the revolutionary purpose of the radicals within the tailors' union to bring about a soviet control of their employers' business.

HOW TO DARKEN GRAY HAIR

A Cincinnati Barber Tells How to Make a Remedy for Gray Hair

Mr. Frank Harbaugh of Cincinnati, Ohio, who has been a barber for more than forty years, recently made the following statement:

"Anyone can prepare a simple mixture at home, at very little cost, that will darken gray hair, and make it soft and glossy. To a half-pint of water add 1 ounce bay rum, a small box of Barbo Compound and ¼ ounce glycerine. These ingredients can be bought at any drug store at very little cost. Apply to the hair twice a week until the desired shade is obtained. This will make a gray-haired person look twenty years younger. It is easy to use, does not color the most delicate scalp, is not sticky or greasy and does not rub off."—Advertisement.

Bisagno Fortune Divided Among Scores of Friends; Rich, Poor to Share Alike

County and city officials, friends of himself and family, persons from hat boys to prominent merchants, who had done him favors in life, are remembered in the will of Joseph Bisagno, of 21 Moss avenue, Oakland, last of a pioneer Italian family of California, who has bequeathed his $400,000 estate in one of the most remarkable documents ever filed in Alameda county.

Kindnesses were burrs in the memory of this bon vivant and follower of the golden rule. His friends today declared that Bisagno was an exceptional character who forgot only the evil that men did him.

To show his appreciation of loyal friendships and good service, he divided his estate into 250 parts, and allotted these to 102 persons. The shares are valued at the least at $1000 and may reach $1500.

OLD FRIENDS REMEMBERED

Among Eastbay men receiving four shares—minimum amount of $4000—are Superior Judge James G. Quinn, Attorney Asa V. Mendenhall, 221 Sunnyside avenue, and William K. Brackett, 1285 Weber avenue, Alameda, Oakland manager for William Cluff Company. Judge Quinn and Mendenhall were intimate friends of Bisagno for twenty years, and Brackett he knew well in personal and business ways. Mrs. Brackett receives three shares, or a minimum of $3000.

William Fitzmaurice, city treasurer, is on the list of those bequeathed three shares, while William J. Baccus, city commissioner, and George Gross, county clerk, get a minimum of $2000.

For many years, Bisagno was accustomed to drop in at the Forum, saloon at 1308 Broadway, on his way home evenings, and he remembers the manager, Robert Kern, with $2000.

Bisagno died in the St. Francis hospital in San Francisco Tuesday of last week. His funeral across the bay was attended by an oddly-assorted coterie of friends and acquaintances. Bisagno professed no particular religion, and the eulogy was delivered, not by a priest or pastor, but by his Oakland lawyer friend, Asa Mendenhall.

Mendenhall's funeral oration met with such favor that it is to be issued in pamphlet form. He spoke of the beauty of the life of Bisagno, of his kindly and generous nature. Bisagno, it was said, never had been heard to speak an ill word of any person. He was educated, well-bred, refined and his family has held high place in political circles in Italy. His father was a pioneer hardware merchant of San Francisco and the family reached the pinnacle of its prosperity at the time of the fire. Bisagno then removed to Oakland, where he remained until illness forced him to the hospital six months ago.

WAITERS REMEMBERED.

Waiters, valets, doorkeepers and cafe owners are remembered in the will. Bisagno also took pains to leave legacies to all persons who had been kindly to his mother, who was an invalid before her death. The name of every neighbor or acquaintance who dropped in the home to visit the mother was engraved in the man's memory. Friends and business acquaintances of his deceased brother received similar attention. For instance, Dr. S. H. Buteau, of Oakland, his brother's physician, receives a minimum of $1000. Hattie White, matron at the Alameda county jail, is among his mother's friends remembered with the same amount.

For many years, Bisagno dined at Bergez & Frank's restaurant in San Francisco, and he leaves the proprietor, Camille Bailberuau, a minimum of $5000, making him second on the list. He was Bisagno's friend before entering the restaurant business. The largest beneficiary is Norbert Babin, his agent, who gets ten shares, or at least $10,000.

Mrs. Louise Morizo, of 1544 Lincoln avenue, Alameda, who receives $6000, is his half-brother's widow. The Lagorias in the list printed below, also are relatives. Other Eastbay persons named were friends of the family. The list, with the minimum amounts given each, follows:

Following is a list of bequests:

BOY SCOUTS FUND GROWS SLOWLY

Success in raising $50,000 in the interest of Oakland-Piedmont council, Boy Scouts of America, by December 1, seems assured, according to Postmaster Joseph J. Rosborough. Heretofore the work of raising funds has been slow owing to a lack of canvassers to cover the city. With members of the Rotary club and Oakland Den of Lions working jointly, funds are coming in very satisfactorily, it is said.

The Rotarians have pledged themselves to raise $20,000 by December 1 and the Lions have agreed to bring in $12,000 by that date. This money will be devoted to paying for the 28-acre camp ground at the head of Diamond canyon and to provide the site with barracks and other buildings necessary to the complete equipment of the camp.

According to Rosborough a campaign for new members of Oakland-Piedmont council will probably be launched at the conclusion of the drive for funds and an effort will be made to have a membership of 2000 by next summer.

The officers and board of directors of the Oakland Boy Scout camp are: H. J. Jackson, president; H. C. Cantwell, vice president; board of directors, Wiggington Creed, Wallace Alexander, Walton Moore, Joseph J. Rosborough, Max Horwilnski, Tom Bridges, George Harris, James Traverse and several other prominent Oakland business men.

CLAIMS POOLROOM HAS LOST $9000

The poolroom business owned by Ike Herold, who committed suicide on March 17, 1917, has lost $9000 since his death, according to the testimony of Mrs. Rose Herold, widow and executor, in a suit for an accounting brought by the creditors on a hearing before Judge J. J. Trabucco in the probate court today.

Although a decision has not yet been rendered, it was intimated by the Court that the widow as executor would have to make good credits against the estate of $4500 just the same as the law was very clear on that point. While an executor is compelled to turn into an estate all profits, any losses that may accrue must be made good by the executor.

Edward Hynes, manager of the poolroom, admitted that the business had lost $9000 since the death of Herold, but also maintained that he was an expert poolroom man.

POLICE HUNTING ESCAPED LUNATIC

Fear that Charles Meisterhaus, 46 years old, who escaped from Anderson's sanitorium, may attempt violence while at large in Oakland, has led the sanitorium authorities to appeal to Oakland police detectives to locate Meisterhaus.

Meisterhaus wandered away from the sanitorium yesterday afternoon, and all efforts to locate him have been futile.

Meisterhaus is described as being five feet, seven inches tall, 137 pounds, with gray hair.

Burglars Ransack Realty Man's Office

H. M. Swalley, a realty man, with offices at 460 Grand avenue, is making an inventory today of the loot obtained when his offices were thoroughly ransacked last night by burglars. The place was in a general state of disorder when Swalley appeared at his office this morning. The office safe, where all the cash and valuables were, was untouched.

Annie L. Miller, 1564 Adeline street, reported her home was robbed last night by a burglar, who jimmied a door to get in.

The room of Isac Gurodelsky, 259 Twelfth street, was ransacked, entrance being made by the marauder through an unlocked door. The loss was $48 in cash.

An attempt to steal an automobile of W. E. Anglin, 1615 Forty-sixth avenue, was made last night. The lock to Anglin's garage was pried off, but the thief gave up the job when he discovered the machine was well locked.

Medicine Used by Monks

It is claimed that Monks of ancient days knew of more than three hundred species of medicinal plants used in general for medicines by these religious orders. While centuries have passed, with all the advance made in medical science, many of our most successful remedies are today made from the roots and herbs of the field, like that good, old-fashioned remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, which for more than forty years has been relieving women from some of the worst forms of female ills, and is now considered the standard remedy.—Advertisement.

EXPORTS FROM EASTBAY LEAP INTO MILLIONS

Foreign exports of various supplies manufactured in the Eastbay industrial district total an approximate value of $160,000 a week, or $8,320,000 a year, according to G. A. Bahler, local traffic expert, who keeps in touch with all shipments from this locality.

Foreign exports from this district are fully 30 per cent greater this year than they were last, Bahler says, and are growing steadily. Local factories are working to capacity, he said, but still are far behind with orders.

Bahler said today:

"There will be some figures available at the end of the year that will open the eyes of Oaklanders, who have but a slight conception of the great volume of manufactured products that are being exported from this city. The figures that I have cited refer merely to supplies from local factories and do not include many food products that are shipped from this locality annually to all parts of the world.

"Last week farming implements, steel products and miscellaneous articles turned out by local plants and valued at $80,000, were shipped to widely different destinations, including Havana, Yokohama and Manila. There is a vast field abroad for our manufactured products and if we go after the foreign trade in the right way we are going to build up an enormous business in other countries.

"Oakland has every advantage as a manufacturing center and that fact is becoming widely known in all parts of the country; hence the location here of so many new and vast industries. This city is forging rapidly to the front and nothing will stop it but the adoption of short-sighted business policies.

"Business men generally see the advantage of co-operating for the upbuilding of the city and there is being developed here the 'pull together spirit.' If the supplies that go from this community to foreign lands are fully up to specifications there need be no fear about holding business after we get it."

Thoroughbred Horses Will Appear in Show

PORTLAND, Ore., Nov. 13.—Twelve fancy gaited horses belonging to Mrs. William Roth, R. L. ## SALTS FINE FOR ACHING KIDNEYS

We Eat Too Much Meat, Which Clogs Kidneys, Then the Back Hurts.

Most folks forget that the kidneys, like the bowels, get sluggish and clogged and need a flushing occasionally, else we have backache and dull misery in the kidney region, severe headaches, rheumatic twinges, torpid liver, acid stomach, sleeplessness and all sorts of bladder disorders.

You simply must keep your kidneys active and clean, and the moment you feel an ache or pain in the kidney region, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any good drug store here, take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and is harmless to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity. It also neutralizes the acids in the urine so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is harmless; inexpensive; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everybody should take now and then to keep their kidneys clean, thus avoiding serious complications.

A well-known local druggist says he sells lots of Jad Salts to folks who believe in overcoming kidney trouble while it is only trouble.—Advertisement.

SUPERIOR COURT CLERK TESTIFIES

More interest is being shown in Anti-Uric each day. People who have found relief and cure by using it for rheumatism have sent us letters endorsing it and are recommending it to their friends. Mr. J. J. Groom, who lives at 1227 Fulton street in San Francisco, is the clerk of the Superior Court in Judge Griffin's Department. He is very well and favorably known in San Francisco and any endorsement of a remedy by him is sufficient to cause even the most skeptical to know that Anti-Uric has merit. Mr. Groom said:

"Rheumatism and its attendant pains had me nearly crazy. I was afraid at one time that I would lose the use of my arm. Anti-Uric was brought to my attention, and I decided to give it a trial. It started to cure me from the very first and I can confidentially say that it has cured me. It has been some time since I used the last and have not had any return of the rheumatic condition. I want you to use my name in any way to let others know of Anti-Uric, for I am sure that it will cure any case of rheumatism."

Anti-Uric has proved that it is the master of rheumatism and its kindred ills. It is a purely herbal remedy and up to a few years ago was manufactured for physicians to prescribe to their patients. Since it has been on the market for the general public it has made many friends who are as enthusiastic and sure of the results it will give as Mr. Groom. We are so sure that Anti-Uric will relieve and cure any case of rheumatism that we will refund the purchase price to anyone who uses it and is not satisfied with the results. Get an outfit from your druggist today and give it a trial.—Advertisement.

Warriors in Masonic Ranks Paid Homage at Brilliant Social Event

Oakland Masonry paid its tribute last night to its warriors and war workers. A grand ball at the Civic Auditorium, given by the Knights Templar of Oakland Commandery, proved one of the season's most brilliant affairs. A reception and review preceded the dance. Before the auditorium fete, a dinner was given at the Hotel Oakland, at which fifty persons, including many dignitaries of army and navy, attended.

The large auditorium was filled by a colorful crowd. The knights in their brilliant uniforms, white plumes, black suits set off by belts, bands and long swords, led in the flashing picture. Soldiers, sailors, officers, privates and "gobs" were honor guests. Several who fought with the British and Canadian armies were present, including a few "Scots that hae," who wore their kilties.

In addition, many Masons were there in evening clothes, others in ordinary attire, while the large number of womenfolk present gave the lighter colors to the striking scene.

AMBULANCE CORPS HONORED.

The event was in honor of the Masonic Ambulance Corps and the Masonic soldiers, sailors and auxiliary forces and the allies in the great war.

It was marked by an address of timely interest by Sir Francis H. E. O'Donnell, standard-bearer of the Oakland Commandery. His subject was "Templarism and the Times," and he declared that the Templar organization will stand four-square against the intrusion of revolutionary elements in the United States.

His challenging remarks to the forces of unrest brought a thunderous outburst of applause from the crowd that filled the floor and the balconies.

He said:

"This immense gathering proves that Oakland Commandery made no mistake.

"We assumed the right, as the great militant body of Freemasonry, to organize this grand reception to the Masonic military and naval veterans of the great war.

"Yesterday was the day when everybody did honor to our heroes and when we, nationally, celebrated the peace of victory won by their valor.

"Today, we, Knights Templar, in the name of the whole Masonic Brotherhood, render a tribute of particular honor to our own brave brethren.

"It was 806 years ago, when nine noble Frenchmen, after the capture of Jerusalem by the Crusaders, organized themselves for the defense of Pilgrims on their approach to the Holy City.

"They assumed the name of 'Poor Fellow Soldiers of Jesus Christ.' When Godfrey de Bouillon became king of Jerusalem he gave them a site for a hospice or house within the precincts of where Solomon's Temple had stood. From that time on they became known as Knights of the Holy House of the Temple.

"The battle flag of the Ancient Templars, the Beauocart, half white and half black, became on their battlefields of the Crusades, the terror of their Saracen enemies.

"The ancient Templars sought the security of the sepulchre of a dead Savior. Their modern progenitors, the Knights Templar of today, stand for the exemplification of the ideals of the living Christ. The regeneration of the ancient organization has made greater growth in these United States than in any other Christian land.

"There is a reason for everything under the sun.

"The strength of a tree is dependent upon the strength of the soil in which its roots rest.

NATION'S SWORD BEARERS

"Templarism in the United States has grown apace in the splendid soil prepared for it by the Masonic Fathers of this great republic. From General George Washington, the American Master Mason, who received the sword of surrender from the noble Lord Cornwallis at Yorktown, to General John Pershing, American Knight Templar who humiliated the brutal autocracy of the kaiser at Metz, Masons have been to the front in every great work for the uplift of downtrodden humanity.

"These splendid Mason soldiers who are welcomed here tonight represent a mighty host of Masons who labored, and suffered, aye, and died, that Old Glory might forever fly unspotted to the breeze.

"When the fathers of this great republic founded it upon the cornerstone of Freedom and declared the right of every man to life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness, they sounded the deathknell of tyranny, and ushered in the dawn of that day when 'Man to man the broad world o'er shall brothers be—and a' that.'

IDEALS OF LIBERTY

"Washington and Lincoln had as their ideals that liberty of justice which begets the Christ ideal of peace on earth, good will toward men.

"No awful terrorism, no libidinous license, no wanton destruction and no insane equality of ignorance sullied the declaration of American Independence. This is the one great land upon God's footstool that has no excuse for revolution. Every legitimate right of man is guaranteed by the American constitution. With equal suffrage for all true Americans, our bloodiest battles should be the paper bullets of our ballot boxes.

"We are all human and make mistakes. When we find the unscrupulous politician has boosted himself into place and power, the conscientious use of the right of selection and election will remedy the error. When the selfish plutocrat at the top or the vicious and un-American demagogue at the bottom of our economic ladder would pilfer from our pocketbooks on the one hand or dynamite our dwellings on the other, we can equally restrain both. The enforcement of existing statutes or the enactment of new laws to meet our needs will conquer either conspiracy.

"Justice, mercy, truth, light and liberty are the ideals of the Templar order as they are of every true American. They are the ideals for which these brave brethren stood when they gave themselves as a living bulwark between American liberty and the autocracy of the Hun. They are the ideals for which they are ready again to stand in defense of civilization; the Star Spangled Banner, our Masonic vows and Templar duty. These ideals are harbingers of that great day when the reign of the Blessed Emanuel, the Prince of Peace, the Great Captain of our Salvation, shall become universal and eternal."

GOVERNOR SENDS REGRETS.

Governor Stephens, past grand commander of the Knights Templar, was on the program for an address but sent his regrets at his inability to appear.

Included in the list of honor guests at the dinner were Rear Admiral L. J. Jayne, Commander R. C. Giffon, Lieutenant Commander James M. Doyle, Captain George Bauer, Brigadier General R. M. Blatchford, commander at the Presidio; Col. Guy L. Eble, department surgeon, western army division; Col. E. C. Bingham, assistant to the department surgeon; Lieut. Col. J. G. Ord of General Liggett's staff; Col. H. H. Arnold, chief of the air service; J. M. Kennedy, commandant of Letterman hospital.

The dinner hosts included Major Jesse Woolridge, eight times wounded in action and recipient of many decorations, who had charge of the military features of the ball; Sir Francis R. Haley, commander, and wife; Sir Francis H. O'Donnell, P. C. E., and wife; Sir Robert Baylord, P. C., and wife; Sir B. A. Forsterer, potentate of Aahmes Temple, Mystic Shrine, wife and daughter; Sir Herman Englehardt and wife; Sir Frank E. Scott and wife; Sir Harvey Loveland, P. C., was unable to be present because of the death of a brother.

A band concert opened the auditorium events. It was followed by a review of the Oakland commandery in battalion formation. The introductory address was by E. Sir F. R. Haley, commander. V. E. Sir W. H. White, grand generalissimo, spoke as the representative of R. E. Sir B. F. Bledsoe, grand commander of Knights Templar of California. Sir hugh J. Williams gave a vocal solo, with Sir A. C. Read as accompanist.

FIGHT PLANNED BY ACCUSED FOREMAN

The appeal of Harry G. Winham, foreman carpenter of the Board of Education, from his recent suspension by the School Board on charges of dishonesty preferred by Director Fred Campbell was called before the Civil Service Board last night and put over two weeks to be reset because of the absence of President Ralph Fisher and indications that the case will be a long and bitterly contested one.

With more than twenty witnesses present to give testimony for both sides in the case, Winham appealed to the board through his attorney, Harry L. Price, for an immediate hearing, but a postponement was consented to when Attorney Oliver D. Hamlin, representing Campbell, who was named to present the case for the School Board, agreed that no opposition would be made to Winham drawing his salary for the time he has put in since he was ordered back to work pending a settlement of the case.

Price declared that Winham had drawn no pay since his suspension, on advice of his counsel, and that delay in the hearing of the case had the effect of fixing public opinion against Winham. The members of the Civil Service Board denounced a policy of not hearing cases involving character and dismissal without a full membership of the board, and the case was finally tabled until November 25, to be reset for hearing on that date.

Famous Old Recipe for Cough Syrup

Easily and cheaply made at home, but it beats them all for quick results.

Thousands of housewives have found that they can save two-thirds of the money usually spent for cough preparations, by using this well-known old recipe for making cough syrup at home. It is simple and cheap but it really has no equal for prompt results. It takes right hold of a cough and gives immediate relief, usually stopping an ordinary cough in 24 hours or less.

Get 2½ ounces of Pinex from any druggist, pour it into a pint bottle and add plain granulated sugar syrup to make a full pint. If you prefer, use clarified molasses, honey, or corn syrup, instead of sugar syrup. Either way, it tastes good, keeps perfectly, and lasts a family a long time.

It's truly astonishing how quickly it acts, penetrating through every air passage of the throat and lungs—loosens and raises the phlegm, soothes and heals the membranes, and gradually but surely the annoying throat tickle and dreaded cough disappear entirely. Nothing better for bronchitis, spasmodic croup, hoarseness or bronchial asthma.

Pinex is a special and highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, known the world over for its healing effect on the membranes.

Avoid disappointment by asking your druggist for "2½ ounces of Pinex" with full directions and don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money promptly refunded. The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne Ind.

WHY SOCIETY WOMEN WASH THEIR OWN HAIR

They do, not because it is a fad, but because they wish to obtain the greatest possible hair beauty and be sure they are not using anything harmful. They have found that in washing the hair it is never wise to use a makeshift, but is always advisable to use a preparation made for shampooing only. Many of our friends say they get the best results from a simple home-made canthrox mixture. You can use this at a cost of about 3 cents a shampoo by getting some canthrox from your druggist and dissolving a teaspoonful in a cup of hot water. This makes enough shampoo liquid to apply to all the hair instead of just the top of the head, as with most preparations. Dandruff, excess oil and dirt are dissolved and entirely disappear in the rinsing water. Your hair will be so fluffy that it will look much heavier than it is. Its luster and softness will also delight you.—Advertisement.

Seven Wives Charge Failure to Provide

The record for complaints of aggrieved wives, applying for failure to provide warrants, was established at the city hall last night.

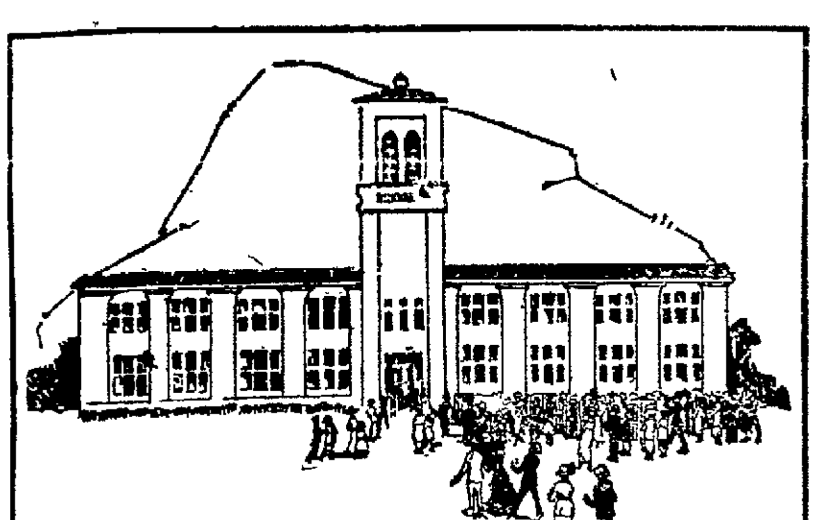

There were seven such aggrieved ones and four complaints were signed, with subsequent warrants issued for the husbands. Acting Captain of Inspectors Lew Agnew was kept busy in conferences with the wives, who wanted their husbands brought before the bar of justice. The following filed complaints:

Francis Campi, 329 Market street, against Tony Campi; Flora Mallon, 3331 East Fourteenth street, against H. C. Mallon; Marie Wilson and 3-year-old son, 9507 Plymouth avenue, against Louis Costello; Dorothy Rose, Elmhurst, against Edward Rose.

COPPAGE DIVORCE SUIT REOPENED

The divorce of Mrs. Mary Shields Coppage against Charles Lyndon Coppage, oil magnate, was reopened this afternoon before Judge Everett Brown by consent of attorneys on both sides. Further testimony regarding Coppage's assets is being taken and it is said that since the original hearing Mrs. Coppage has found evidence of interests owned by Coppage which was not previously desclosed.

At the conclusion of the previous hearing Judge Everett Brown announced that he would grant Mrs. Coppage an interlocutory decree

DENIES MAKING OVERTURES TO RUSSIAN REDS

LONDON, Nov. 13. — Premier Lloyd George declared in the House of Commons that no person at any time on his behalf or with his knowledge had interviewed Bolshevik representatives in order to learn whether negotiations for peace might be opened and upon what terms.

The Premier announced that it was proposed to call at an early date an international conference at which the ministers of the allied and associated powers might consider the various problems which the peace conference as yet had found itself unable to settle.

Referring to the so-called peace advances by the Bolsheviki, Lloyd George said the allies had always declined to take action on communications purporting to come from hostile countries through irresponsible agencies, and he thought it inadvisable to depart from this practice.

He admitted that the Bolsheviki were rapidly approaching Omsk. Admiral Kolchak was still there, however, and the fate of the place would only be decided as the result of the battles that might be fought shortly in front of the city.

The settlement of the Russian problem, said the premier, was most essential to the reconstruction of the world. The conditions in that country, he declared, were a contributing cause to the prevailing high prices. Likewise, he said, the German reactionaries were already using the present strife in Russia to strengthen their influence.

Cables Cut by Foe Quickly Repaired

NEW YORK, Nov. 13.—Two German submarines cut the cable between this country and England just outside New York harbor in the spring of 1918, but the break was spliced by experts within twelve hours.

This fact was made known last night for the first time by Colonel J. J. Carty, vice president fo the American Telephone and Teiegraph company in an address at a luncheon of the New ork Electrical league.

A cable extending from New York to South America was cut at the same time and was remaired as quickly.

STOMACH UPSET?

Get at the Real Cause—Take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

That's what thousands of stomach sufferers are doing now. Instead of taking tonics, or trying to patch up a poor digestion, they are attacking the real cause of the ailment—clogged liver and disordered bowels.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets arouse the liver in a soothing, healing way. When the liver and bowels are performing their natural functions, away goes indigestion and stomach troubles.

Have you a bad taste, coated tongue, poor appetite, a lazy, don't-care feeling, no ambition or energy, trouble with undigested foods? Take Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a purely vegetable compound mixed with olive oil. You will know them by their olive color. They do the work without griping, cramps or pain.

Take one or two at bedtime for quick relief. Eat what you like, 10c and 25c.

DR. CARTER'S K. & B. TEA MAKES FINE LAXATIVE SYRUP

Make It at Home and Save About $1.50—Children Love To Take It.

Get from any drug store a package of Dr. Carter's K. and B. Tea. Put contents in a bowl. Add a level teacupful of sugar. Mix and pour over this 3 teacupfuls of boiling water. Cover and allow to stand for at least 2 hours. Strain and flavor either with Essence of Peppermint or Wintergreen, according to taste.

Dose for adults, 1 tablespoonful each night, or night and morning until a regular movement of the bowels is effected. For children, 1 teaspoonful more or less, according to age.

For a real tonic and blood purifier, 1 teaspoonful every night or every other night for at least three weeks.

Cut this recipe out and paste it on the bottle.—Advertisement.

The Waterfront

The close of the Bering sea season by all the fishing companies in that section is now on in Alaska. The last vessel to sail out of Unimak Pass for the Pacific ocean was the steamer Victoria, Capt. Fred Warner, who has made five trips this season between Puget sound and Nome. Only one more codfishing schooner is due to arrive at this port from the Alaska stations, and she is the City of Papeete, which sailed from this port on October 13 for Unga, Alaska. She is due home December 1 with the last of the codfish to come to this port this year. Altogether, there were thirteen vessels in the codfish trade out of this port during this season. Eight of the craft fished in Bering sea and caught 1,139,000 fish, while the other vessels from the stations in Southwestern Alaska brought in 800,000 fish, and when the Papeete gets in port she will have about 200,000 fish, making a total catch at the stations of 1,000,000 fish, and a grand total of the season of 1919 at 3,139,000 fish, which is an average of any former year, and at the high prices asked for the fish, the owners are reaping a harvest this year. The salmon fishing was no so prosperous this year as in the past few seasons, as only 5737 barrels and 738,782 cases of canned salmon were put up in Alaska for this port and brought here by thirty-one vessels. This amount is far short of any season in Alaska in many years, and averages only about 40 per cent of last season's catch. The salmon fleet is all in port and tied up in winter quarters at East Oakland harbor, where they are having their rigging, sails and gear overhauled, besides being painted both inside and out. The salmon fleet of this port generally averages fifty-one vessels, including steam and sail, but this year only thirty-one craft were used, as the demand for off-shore freight was so great that the government had taken several of the fishing fleet and used them for merchant craft.

The British motor schooner Murua, which was recently turned out at the Stone shipyard, East Oakland, has completed her cargo of general merchandise and will depart for the South Sea Islands. The Murua has made one voyage and arrived here on September 25 with 180 tons of copra from the Gilbert Islands, under command of Captain Swanson.

The United States Government has ordered the colliers Orion, Neptune, Jason and the Jupiter to proceed to Norfolk, Va., where they will transport 70,000 tons of coal to the different stations on the Pacific coast, meaning California City, Bramerton and San Diego. The Jupiter arrived here last night from Puget sound, and anchored off Goat island. She will take stores and provisions and leave here on November 20 with the Neptune and the Jason will follow shortly. The Orion sails from San Diego today direct to Norfolk and will be the first to return here with coal.

Two schooners change ownership and flags, according to the Custom House reports. M. K. Konco, a Japanese owner of the schooner Toni Maru, sold his ship yesterday to Jose Soto of Mazatlan. The price paid was $23,000. She will be equipped with semi-Diesel engines and will operate between Mazatlan and Salina Cruz. Her flag will be changed from the Japanese to the Mexican. Her new owner will use the craft as a freighter. The power schooner La Paz has also been sold. She is only forty feet in length and brought $12,000. She was purchased by a Guaymas mining company to carry ore from the Gulf of California to Guaymas.

In tow of the steamer Cordova, the ship Abner Coburn arrived at Fort Townsend from Bristol bay, Alaska. The ship was used as a cannery tender for the Libby, McNeil & Libby Company, and the crew refused to come home on her, as they claim she was not seaworthy. They were passengers on the Cordova while she towed the Coburn home. The craft will be placed on the drydock for inspection and will have all necessary repairs made.

The sidewheel steamer Solano of the Southern Pacific Company, which has been undergoing a general overhauling at the company's shipyard in Oakland harbor, is all completed and left there yesterday under command of Captain Henry Williams for her station in Suisun bay. She is used to carry the cars and locomotive across the straits from Benicia to Port Costa and is one of the largest ferryboats in the world.

Change of masters registered at the U. S. Custom House: Captain L. Gunderson, steamer Siskiyou; Captain Chas. Linder, steamer Arctic; Captain Wm. Milestone, steamer Francis; Captain Henry Williams, steamer Solano; Captain George H. Mawdaley, tug Standard No. 2.

WEATHER FORECAST

FORECAST

Oakland and vicinity: Tonight and Friday fair, gentle northerly winds.

Northern California: Fair, except probably rain on the extreme north coast, heavy frost in the interior in the morning, gentle northeasterly winds.

Southern California: Fair, light to heavy frost in the morning, gentle northeasterly winds.

Nevada: Tonight fair and warmer, Friday fair.

Washington: Tonight and Friday rain west, rain or snow east portion, warmer east portion tonight, moderate easterly gales.

Idaho: Tonight fair, warmer, Friday rain or snow.

Oregon: Tonight rain west, fair east portion. Friday rain west, rain or snow east portion, warmer tonight, fresh southeasterly winds.

CONDITIONS

There has been but little change in pressure distribution during the last 24 hours. A large area of high pressure covers the country from British Columbia northeastward to the Gulf, causing fair weather, except in the extreme northeastern and northwestern portions of the country where light rain has fallen. It is warmer in the Rocky mountain region and western Plains states and colder in the Mississippi valley and Lake region. Light to heavy frost occurred in the interior of California this morning.

Conditions are favorable for rain or snow in the northern portion of this district and fair weather in the southern.

G. H. WILLSON,
District Forecaster.

DEMOCRATS SEEK SENATE LEADER

By RAYMOND CLAPPER,
United Press Staff Correspondent.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 13.—Democratic members of the Senate will hold a caucus within a few days to pick a minority floor leader, filling the vacancy caused by the death of Senator Martin, Virginia.

Senator Hitchcock, Nebraska; Underwood, Alabama, and Simmons, North Carolina, are the foremost candidates. The contest will be lively, according to cloakroom gossip, as the winner will be a strong contender in the Democratic national convention which selects a presidential candidate next year.

Underwood, the youngest in point of years and service, is a favorite. He has been in the Senate only since 1915, whereas Hitchcock came in 1911 and Simmons in 1901. But Hitchcock is a Nebraska man, and is not expected to hold the southern Democrats as against either Simmons or Underwood. Simmons is a strong southern Democrat, who has always supported the administration. Underwood is viewed as a compromise between Hitchcock and Simmons.

S. F. GOES AFTER G.O.P. CONVENTION

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 13.—At the conference between Republican leaders this afternoon, plans to bring the Republican national convention of 1920 to this city will be perfected.

On December 10, in Washington, the Republican national committee will determine the city to be selected. Those in conference today were Western Assistant National Chairman Raymond Benjamin, National Committeeman W. H. Crocker, Mrs. Sidney Ehrman, vice-chairman of the ways and means committee of California, and Western Finance Director Albert Lindley. They believe that San Francisco will be selected and today's conference will determine who will compose the delegation to attend the December meeting to present its inducements. One hundred and fifty thousand dollars, it is expected, will be raised as one of the inducements to the Republican national committee members.

15 I. W. W. CASES ARE POSTPONED

Continuance of the cases of fifteen alleged members of the I. W. W., charged with criminal syndicalism, until after the superior court cases that are now being held, was requested by Prosecuting Attorney Fred L. Donahue and Prosecutor William Hennessey today. The requests were granted.

Among those scheduled for examination today in Police Judge George Samuels court is John G. Weller, now on trial for criminal syndicalism, in superior court, Oakland. He was arrested August 27.

Ten other syndicalism cases were on Police Judge Samuels docket. Including Weller's case, all were continued to December 1 for examination.

In Judge Mortimer Smith's court, the cases of David A. Graham, Alexander Yonho, Harry R. Marshall and William A. Staats, all confessed I. W. W.'s, and formally charged with violating the criminal syndicalism act, were continued to December 4 for examination.

These four were taken in custody by Police Inspector Con Keefe on July 3, as a safety measure when rumors that a bomb would be thrown into the Fourth of July parade spread over the city.

JINX LUNCHEON BY ROTARIANS FEATURES "13"

Setting aside temporarily the superstition which is engendered in the minds of many persons by a thought of the number "thirteen," a large delegation of Rotarians attended the "jinks" luncheon of the Rotary Club in the Hotel Oakland today and drove away with much merriment the supposed "hoodoo."

In the first place this is November 13 and in the next group thirteen was in charge of the program, and coupled with these facts the members, through a pre-arranged plan, sat down at the tables at 12:23 and did not "skidoo" until the festivities were completed.

Upon entering the members passed beneath a black pasteboard cat with a prominent thirteen on its side and on every hand inside the room these figures appeared in charactrs two feet in length. The room was also dark and the supposed spooks roamed at will.

The group in charge of the program numbered thirteen and each member lives on Thirteenth street. One-fifth of the members of the club live on Thirteenth street, including three ex-presidents of the organiaztion and the present president, Herman T. Johnson.

City Files Appeal in Hackett Case

An appeal from the decision of Superior Judge A. F. St. Sure, directing the reinstatement of Thomas J. Hackett as a member of the Fire Department and granting him back salary to the amount of $1,764.78, was filed late yesterday in the District Court of Appeals by City Attorney H. L. Hagan, in behalf of Commissioner of Public Health and Safety F. F. Morse. The case is expected to test the powers of the Civil Service Board. Another appeal from a decision by Judge St. Sure is under preparation in the city attorney's office in the case of Herman Rumetsch, former Corporal of Police, who was awarded a writ of mandate compelling the Police Pension Board to pay him a pension allowance based on the amount of pay attached to his rank at the time of his retirement.

Europe Facing Economic Overthrow and Looks to America, Bebarnot States

Wars that may overthrow other thrones are brewing and may break forth at any time, according to an eye-witness report on foreign conditions made to the manufacturers' bureau of the Chamber of Commerce today by L. Debarnot, manager of the foreign department of the Marchant Calculating Machine Company. Debarnot has just returned from a six months' trip through eleven continental countries.

Should the United States not go to the aid of Europe and go quickly, he expresses himself as fearful of the future. He foresees such a chaotic state as now exists in Russia.

UNREST FILLS EUROPE

Europe is filled with unrest, he says, a condition which is made more acute by the cost of living, and still further aggravated by the famine of raw materials.

Debarnot says the eyes of the Europeans are turned to this country for help, just as they looked to Americans for assistance when the tide of battle ran strongly against them a little more than a year ago. In other words, according to Debarnot, the United States, having whipped the German is depended upon to whip hunger.

Besides food and other supplies, Europe also is in need of credit, he adds, and he urges that Americans make their plans to be as liberal in that direction as possible. He points out that they could well follow the pre-war example of the Germans in their methods of securing foreign trade.

FACES SERIOUS CRISIS

Debarnot in part, said:

"I have just returned from a six months' trip through eleven European countries in the interest of the company I represent and my observation of the economic situation there, particularly that in the belligerent countries, has convinced me that Europe, which has suffered so terribly during the years of the war, is still face to face with a period which may well bring new bloodshed and perhaps the overthrow of several existing governments, and the spreading of conditions such as exist in Russia—unless prompt and effective aid is given those countries.

"The question is, Where is the help to come from? The answer is, America. There is no other country in the whole world capable of giving Europe the needed assistance and thus avoid what I believe is an impending calamity.

"Now, will America repeat in the economic field of Europe what she has already accomplished on the battlefields of France—save Europe from annihilation and despoliation? I, for one, hope and believe she will.

"America's resources are boundless and can supply all the commodities and raw materials absolutely needed for the restoration of industrial productivity in Europe. However, and in order that this may be successfully attained, the supply of raw materials must be made at a sufficiently low cost so that the finished product may in turn find ready sale in the world markets.

CREDIT ALSO DESIRED

"I have stated that Europe needs all sorts of commodities and raw materials. I wish to emphasize the fact that Europe also needs credit—long term credits. In this connection it is well to state that only through credits can America ever expect to retain European markets, in which we have gained such a foothold owing to war conditions. One of Germany's reasons for success in gaining such a world-wide ascendancy in the supremacy of commerce was her liberal extension of credits. Cannot America do as much now? I dare say she can, and at small risk, if any.

"Insofar as my own efforts are concerned, I believe that my mission in Europe was successful. Reputable and responsible representatives were appointed in all the countries visited—England, France, Switzerland, Italy, Spain, Portugal, Belgium, Holland, Denmark, Norway and Sweden."

SECOND-HAND MAN CAUGHT BY RUSE

Following numerous complaints that Jacob Schiffman, 469 Seventh street, second hand dealer, was openly defying the city council's order revoking his license to conduct a second hand store business, Schiffman was arrested late yesterday through a ruse of the police.

Representing himself as a University of California student, in straits of poverty, Patrolman R. C. McDowell sold Schiffman an old handbag, a second hand suit and an overcoat, according to the charge.

The apprehension of Schiffman came about as the result of reports that Schiffman was doing a land office business, purchasing second hand goods from university students. These reports were received in the office of Chief Lynch, who instructed his men to investigate the reports.

Schiffman's license was revoked after he had been under fire of police officials for his charges of graft in the police department.

Schiffman had answered the charge that he was doing business, in defiance of the council's order, to the effect that a tailor in his establishment had been buying second hand goods without his authority, Chief Lynch said.

VIENNA, Nov. 13.—Preparations for relieving the serious coal and food shortage in Austria have been made by the peace conference's subcommittee on reparations here, according to a copy of the committee's report to the conference, made public today. The report has been forwarded to the conference.

A letter has been addressed to Chancellor Renner, the report said, acquainting him with the committee's appeal for food and fuel for Austria. The committee also asked as the Czecho-Slovakia government to put into execution as soon as possible the agreement concluded with Austria for delivery of coal and foodstuffs.

Eleven Injured in Buffalo Hotel Fire

BY INTERNATIONAL NEWS SERVICE.
BY LEASED WIRE TO TRIBUNE.

BUFFALO, N. Y., Nov. 13.—Eleven persons were injured, three of them so seriously that they will probably die, this morning, when fire destroyed the Hotel Vanderbilt, nationally famous a generation ago as the Thomas Hotel. The loss is $50,000.

A lighted cigar or cigarette dropped on the second floor caused the fire, Charles F. Pettie, the manager, said. The hotel accommodates 150 guests.

Katherine Newlin Burt became famous overnight with "The Branding Iron." Read it in Sunday's TRIBUNE.

A TIRE FOR $1.00
A TUBE FOR $1.00

Two More Days

Two more days of this sale. Tomorrow and Saturday will witness the conclusion of the most successful sale of Automobile Tires and Tubes we have ever conducted. The sale is carrying a message of economical buying to tire users. It has brought to them economies they did not believe possible—two tires practically for the price of one. Saturday, November 15, the sale will terminate.

It Ends Nov. 15

Come to this store tomorrow or Saturday. Buy one tire and one tube at the regular retail price and we will give you another tire and tube for $1.00 each. Only two tires and two tubes to a customer. This offer covers every tire in our store, both "firsts" and "blemished" non-skid and plain, in all sizes. And remember the tires are all guaranteed. The sale is an example of what can be accomplished by the systematic and economical methods of doing business inaugurated by our parent company.

18 CARLOADS OF POTATOES REACH EASTBAY WEEKLY

California and Nevada potatoes are reaching the local wholesale [illegible] 18 carloads a week, but receipts are not in excess of the demand, according to commission merchants. The demand for potatoes is steady the year round. The coast crop of potatoes is not so large this year as was [illegible] the best grade of potatoes selling for $3.50 a hundred.

Commission merchants are fairly well stocked with onions, but an onion shortage is threatened in the near future, it is said, as the eastern demand for coast onions is heavy. High quality onions are selling for $4.50 a hundred wholesale.

OAKLAND TO LEAD ALL COAST TOWNS, PREDICTS BANKER

That Oakland is destined to become the greatest commercial and industrial city on the Pacific coast within ten years, was the belief expressed today by George S. Meredith, president of the California Bankers' Association and cashier of the Farmers and Merchants Savings bank. He [illegible] so many big manufacturing concerns bespeaks the future greatness of Oakland.

"While all of us regret the tie up of the shipyards, the shutting down of the plants has demonstrated one point very clearly, and that is that Oakland no longer is an overgrown town, but a great commercial center which does not depend on a single industry for its prosperity.

"Business here is moving along most satisfactorily and prosperity is being very generally passed around. Lack of employment for a time following the closing down of the shipyards naturally was felt by many of the employees who were accustomed to regular pay, but hundreds of these men have found employment in other lines.

"Generally, there has been no serious effect on business in this city as a result of the strike, but naturally the more people that are working at good wages the better for the community as a whole. It is hoped that labor disputes here will be quickly and amicably adjusted. We need greater production, as the majority of our factories are far behind with orders."

He said further that the numerous industrial concerns that have recently purchased sites in Oakland for the building of huge factories have shown their confidence in the future of this city. "Oakland is just coming into her own," he concluded.

STEADIER TONE IN WALL STREET TRADING PREVAILS

NEW YORK, Nov. 13.—Further liquidation marked today's early dealings on the stock exchange, but the entire list bounded forward vigorously later on signs of the passing of the money crisis. Sales approximated 2,000,000 shares.

NEW YORK, Nov. 13 — Improvement was shown by the stock market at the opening of today's session. Issues which suffered greatest depreciation in the trading of the past few days rallied 2 to 5 points. In the case of General Motors a 15-point rally was recorded with 6 to 9 points for Texas Company and Mexican Petroleum. Other stocks showed substantial gains, including American Woolen, Hide and Leather preferred, American Tobacco, Baldwin Locomotive and the motor specialties. Seasoned industrials and investment rails were firm to strong. Crucible Steel was among the few exceptions to the general trend, losing five points. Within the first half hour the market's tone became somewhat irregular, General Motors contributing to the unsettlement by forfeiture of more than half its recovery.

Reactions of the first hour effaced in large part or wholly the gains made by oils, equipments and steels, tobaccos also yielding to pressure. Some of these stocks were foremost in the second rally, Crucible for example, also shippings and leathers were firm to strong. Speculative as well as investment rails continued to improve. The market again reversed its course before noon, however, fresh selling being prompted when new high initial rates were established for call money. Renewals were made at 15 per cent, but 16 per cent was demanded for new loans.

With call loans holding at 16 per cent throughout the mid-session, many new low prices for the current movement were made. Greatest weakness was again manifested by steels, equipments, motors and oils, but high specialties, including American Tobacco, also broke violently.

LIBERTY BOND PRICES.

NEW YORK, Nov. 13. — Liberty bonds closing prices at 2:55 p. m. were: 3½s, $100.08; first 4s, $94.80; second 4s, $92.86; first 4¼s, $94.80; second 4¼s, $93.20; third 4¼s, $74.74; fourth 4¼s, $93.28; Victory 3¾s, $99.32; Victory 4¾s, $90.32.

CHICAGO GRAIN

CHICAGO, Nov. 13. — Notwithstanding a little weakness at the outset, the corn market today soon gave indications of fresh power to advance. Initial declines were ascribed to the ideal weather for husking. Opening prices, which ranged from the same as yesterday's finish to ¼c lower with December $1.30 to $1.30½ and May $1.24 to $1.24½, were followed by rallies and then by a drop to under the bottom level of the previous day.

Corn, Dec., $1.32¼; Jan., $1.26½; May, $1.26¾.

Oats, Dec., 72⅝c; May, 75⅝c.

Pork, Jan., $34.15.

Lard, November, $26.05; Jan., $24.22.

Ribs, Jan., $18.35; May, $18.25.

Absence of any unusual pressure to sell gave relative firmness to oats. [illegible] including December at 71½ to 71⅝c, the market continued to harden.

Declines in the value of hogs were virtually ignored.

Action of the New York stock market had much influence in swaying corn values, especially toward [illegible] the corn market after midday. The close was strong, 1⅛ to 2⅛c net higher, with Dec. $1.32¼ to $1.32½ and May $1.23¼ to $1.26½.

IS THERE LIFE AFTER DEATH? CAN WE COMMUNICATE WITH THE DEAD?

In a remarkable series of articles to start in the Sunday TRIBUNE, November 23, men of fame answer these questions.

Men of science, men of profound learning, men of spiritual training, men of literary achievement, materialists and believers in the supernatural—all will contribute to this epoch-making series of articles.

Sir Oliver Lodge's revelations will start the ball rolling.

"Is There Life After Death?" is the subject of the great symposium. Scientists will answer positively "Yes!!" Others will answer "No!" Sir Arthur Conan Doyle will discuss "The New Revelation." He pictures the world beyond in vivid colors. The millions who died in the war live again, he asserts. Sir Arthur heretofore had been a pronounced skeptic. Booth Tarkington will discuss "Stars in the Dust Heap," reviewing the efforts to lift the veil. Rupert Hughes derides the proofs of the spiritualists and to the question, "Do the Dead Communicate With the Living?" he gives a negative answer. Harvey J. O'Higgins discusses "Messages From the Dead" and attempts to answer the question, "Does the Ouija Board Fake, or Does the Subconscious Mind Cheat the Conscious Mind?" Great media like Ollah Toph are analyzed. "I believe in spiritualism," says Bishop Burch. Sinclair Lewis charges trickery.

And so the list of noted thinkers multiplies. No such symposium as this has ever before appeared in any newspaper or magazine anywhere. The Oakland Sunday TRIBUNE will print these great pages of momentous human and spiritual interest for many weeks to come.

PARKING PLAN ENDORSED BY CITY DRAYMEN

Revision of the automobile parking ordinance in this city was endorsed at a meeting of the Draymen's association of Alameda county at a meeting last night. The draymen endorsed the parallel parking plan; that is, that machines stand parallel with the curbings, instead of diagonally as at present. It was held that such a plan would do much toward relieving street congestion.

The association also went on record in favor of cutting down the parking time limit from 40 minutes to 15 minutes, and suggested that parking be permitted in the district bounded by Eleventh and Fourteenth streets and Washington and Franklin streets, the cross-town parking area extending from the west side of Washington street to the west side of Franklin street. The association offered no objection to parking in the center of Eleventh and Washington streets, as no street cars are operated over those streets.

Next Tuesday the Merchants' Exchange will take up the same plan and it will probably be approved by that body, according to the officers. The action follows a conference held a few days ago in the office of Chief of Police J. F. Lynch, at which the Draymen's association was represented by W. P. Scott, president; E. H. Hart, secretary; Ben W. Carter, business agent; C. H. Parrish, H. L. Hinman, W. Boldt and Chris Rasmussen.

Wilber Walker, secretary of the Merchants' Exchange, represented that body at the conference. Others in attendance were J. P. Potter of the Oakland Traction company; Marston Campbell, superintendent of streets, and H. L. Hagan, city attorney.

Younger Members of Fire Department Charge Unfair Juggling for Promotions

Younger and older members of the Oakland fire department are "at outs" today following a clash last night before the civil service board. Seniority privileges are arrayed against youthful zest and agility. Attorneys appeared to represent both sides of the controversy.

The trouble springs from efforts to waive the requirements of a physical examination and agility test for promotion. Charges of "political juggling" were made by the younger members of the department, who were represented by Attorney Pierre Fontaine. Attorney Charles Beardsley was spokesman for those opposing the physical examination for promotion.

The dispute developed a difference of opinion on interpretation of that section of the city charter relating to the requirements for promotion from one grade to another in the department, with the result that the physical examinations now being held following the recent examination for promotion to the rank of lieutenant have been postponed for a week while the civil service board obtains a legal opinion on the meaning of the charter section in question.

CHARGES POLITICAL JUGGLING

"Certain men in power want to promote men in the department who are physically unable to pass an examination or an agility test," declared Attorney William B. Smith, who appeared in behalf of the Heath Club, an organization among the firemen, to protest against the waiving of the physical requirements, "and they can't do it unless the physical examination is dispensed with."

Smith later elaborated his statement by charging that Commissioner of Public Health and Safety F. F. Morse was referred to in the statement and that Morse was planning to promote certain favored men in the fire department, for political reasons, who are unfit to pass a physical test.

"There are a lot of men in the department who can't pass a physical test today," Smith stated when he presented the stand of the firemen's organization before the board, "and many of the older men who have never passed such a test and have never qualified in an examination now want to be promoted over some of the younger men. Some of these men seeking promotion are even eligible for the retired list."

There are certain men who are afraid to take a physical test because they know they are unfit.

TWO PLATOON SYSTEM

Dissension has spread through the department since the recent examination for promotion to lieutenant, for the purpose of creating twenty new officers of that rank to fill the additional positions to be open under the new two-platoon system to go into effect the first of the year. More than fifty firemen took the examination and are now up for physical examination. The effort to have the physical requirement waived was discovered when some of the tests were postponed pending the application made last night for waiving the tests.

The issue hinges upon interpretation of the amendment to the charter passed last January, providing that "promotions in the fire department shall be based on ascertained merit, seniority of service and standing upon competitive examination; and in all cases, where practicable, vacancies shall be filled by promotion from among such members of the next lower rank, without further physical examination or agility test, as present themselves for examination or promotion."

The question to be settled is whether the phrase "wherever practicable" refers to the filling of vacancies by promotion or to the matter of physical examinations and agility tests, and this point will be settled by legal authority while all further physical examinations are held up pending the decision.

BENEFIT OF SENIORITY

Called upon for a statement of the board's past policy, Secretary Frank Colbourn declared that the older men have enjoyed the benefit of seniority and experience in examinations, and that the board's rule has been to establish physical and agility tests as a counterbalance in favor of the newer members.

The younger firemen are up in criminination in favor of the older men in the matter of seniority and experience, and claim they will be under a still heavier handicap if the physical and agility requirements are waived.

Further complication in fire department affairs developed today when City Attorney H. L. Hagan furnished Commissioner of Public Health and Safety F. F. Morse with an opinion that lieutenants and hosemen in the fire department who have been in command of fire houses have acquired no additional rights by reason of their services.

Hagan's decision was given in response to a petition from certain members of the department asking that an advance to the grade of captain be given certain lieutenants because of the duties they have been performing.

LEGION WILL DEBATE LOCAL RED PROBLEM

Following a meeting of the executive committee of the American Legion it was decided last night, according to statements of certain of the members of the committee, to call a special meeting of the legion for consideration of the radical issues that have arisen as the result of the organization of the Communist party here last Sunday and the raid of the party headquarters Tuesday night by several hundred men, declared to have been members of the legion.

Although it was admitted that such a meeting had been called, inquiries as to its purpose were referred to Captain William B. Moyle, chairman of the committee, who issued the call. Moyle was not in his office and could not be reached up to noon today.

RAID PLANNED FOR 10 O'CLOCK

The raid of the Communist party headquarters on the night of Armistice day celebration was, it has been stated definitely, planned for 10 o'clock, by members of the legion. Information of the raid was in some manner communicated to the headquarters and a crowd of men assembled. For that reason the raid was postponed and did not occur until shortly after midnight, when about 80 men who were attending the ball at the auditorium left there and marched to Loring hall.

There was only one member of the Communist party in the rooms at the time. The raiders quickly went through the place, demolishing it, and left. A short time later another party of about 70 appeared, but when they found that the work had already been done they departed.

MURDER STIRS ANGER

The murder of Armistice day paraders at Centralia, Wash., by Red sympathizers has aroused residents of the bay district and resolutions of denunciation have been prepared for presentation to various civic bodies. Such resolutions were adopted by the Berkeley Rotary club yesterday, introduced by Supervisor Redmond C. Staats. They read as follows:

"That we stand solidly for the ideas of true Americanism and that we advocate immediate action by the chief officers of this association to assure our government that we intend to support to our utmost ability our national authorities in suppressing such criminal operations as have been witnessed at Centralia within the last 36 hours.

"That we believe that the time has come to let the world know that such crimes must stop."

There is no apparent effort on the part of the Oakland police department to ascertain the names of the leaders of the raid on the Red headquarters and the matter has apparently been dropped. The communists prefer to attribute the raid to "hoodlums." They have said that the raiding party consisted of only about twenty boys.

According to Inspector Fenton Thompson, the backbone of the I. W. W. movement in Oakland has been broken, and the members are clearing out of the city. The remnant of them remaining, he says, [illegible]

Kalomas Club to to Give Initial Dance Tomorrow

MISS RUTH SAVAGE

The initial dance of the Kalomas club will be given tomorrow evening at the Hotel Oakland. The committee in charge includes: Miss Ruth Savage (chairman), Leslie Stier, Andrew Cortez, Melvin O'Neil, Bernard Moran, Arthur Aposile, William Kennedy, Frank Kennedy, Albert Seible, Ray Cegorno, Herbert Halse, Ray Lyall and Ed McGuire.

J. W. W. THINNING OUT

"The number of I. W. W. in Oakland today is very small," declares Inspector Thompson. "They have fled Oakland, principally because of the prosecution of their local secretary and other leaders."

RED THUGS HUNTED

The police have been able to find no clew to the identity of five men, who they declare to be radical sympathizers, and who last evening assaulted two service men. One of the five attacked J. W. Murphy, Goat Island sailor on leave, while the other four beat Wesley Bratton, discharged doughboy.

The Murphy attack happened at Thirteenth and Harrison streets. A man suddenly leaped upon him, striking him severely about the head from the shadow of a doorway, striking with what Harris believes to have been brass knuckles. When Murphy recovered from the the daze induced by his beating he went to Defenders' hall and reported the attack to the police.

CHILDREN IN APARTMENTS ACCEPTABLE

"Apartment houses in Oakland are not refusing to take children," declared Louis Aber, president of the local Apartment House Owners' and Managers' association this morning, commenting upon the action of the San Francisco association last night in going on record as in favor of encouraging admission of tenants with children. Aber is manager of apartments on Broadway. "In this house we have twelve children at the present time. I must be brief because I must get some of them off to school. I do not know a single instance where a member has refused admission to tenants with children. In so far as I have knowledge no member of the association draws a line at the admittance of little ones.

"What we as landlords object to is being compelled to take children. That was the stand we took at the last legislature when a bill was introduced. It was no indication that we refused admission but we wanted to be free to take them in of our own accord."

Of the 410 members of the San Francisco Apartment House Owners and Managers, 180 agreed last night that they were favorable to receiving children in their houses. By having parents sign an agreement to pay for any damage done during the terms of their tenancy was the solution which was offered to offset the contention that young boys and girls are destructive. According to statements of several the association was officially on record as favoring children, and all leases stated that the apartments are to be occupied by so many adults and so many children with blank spaces for the numbers.

"The Oakland association has never taken any formal action in the matter," declared Aber. "It has never seemed needful to do so. Rules and regulations are carefully lived up to."

ALAMEDA WATER MEETING

ALAMEDA, Nov. 13.—The Alameda improvement club will hold a water meeting tonight in the clubrooms on Webster street. City Attorney H. L. Hagan and others will speak. The meeting will be thrown open to the general audience after the addresses.

"CAN'T GET ME," HECKLERS TOLD BY LADY ASTOR

PLYMOUTH, Eng., Nov. 13.—Friends of Lady Nancy Astor believed today her opponents were "packing" her meetings in an effort to embarrass her in her campaign to succeed her husband's former seat in the House of Commons.

Lady Nancy continued to give blow for blow in the stormiest meeting of her campaign last night. Intimating she believed most of the heckling was coming from supporters of Gay, the labor candidate, the viscountess said:

"I hope you people won't put any more insulting questions. If I were to descend to personalities I could beat Gay as flat as a pancake."

Warning the hecklers that they couldn't "get her," Lady Astor shouted: "I'm a sight better than the other candidates. If the men of Devon cannot get fighting men to represent them, I advise them to take a fighting woman."

The viscountess evidently referred to her opponent's absence from the British army during the war.

$10,000 OAKLAND THEFT SUSPECTS CAUGHT IN S.F.

Declared by the police to have netted $10,000 worth of loot in eight burglaries in this city, Lester Hancock, age 25, and Jesse Lacy, age 23, were lodged today in the Oakland jail.

The men were arrested in San Francisco, when they visited a pawnshop on Kearny street, near Washington, to dispose of some of their spoils. The arrests were made by Police Inspectors Duston and Mulhern.

Some of the stolen goods have been recovered, the police announce.

The two men are said to be among the most successful and clever burglars who have operated in the East-bay in months.

Police today are checking up the details of the crimes.

Lose Your Fat, Keep Your Health

Superfluous flesh is not healthy, neither is it healthy to diet or exercise too much for its removal. The simplest method known for reducing the overfat body two, three or four pounds a week is the Marmola Method, tried and endorsed by thousands. Marmola Prescription Tablets, containing exact doses of the famous prescription, are sold by druggists at $1 for a large case, or if you prefer you can obtain them by sending direct to the Marmola Company, 881 Woodward Ave., Detroit, Mich. They are harmless and leave no wrinkles or flabbiness. They are popular because effective and convenient.—Advertisement.

Don't Poison Baby.

FORTY YEARS AGO almost every mother thought her child must have PAREGORIC or laudanum to make it sleep. These drugs will produce sleep, and a FEW DROPS TOO MANY will produce the SLEEP FROM WHICH THERE IS NO WAKING. Many are the children who have been killed or whose health has been ruined for life by paregoric, laudanum and morphine, each of which is a narcotic product of opium. Druggists are prohibited from selling either of the narcotics named to children at all, or to anybody without labelling them "poison." The definition of "narcotic" is: "A medicine which relieves pain and produces sleep, but which in poisonous doses produces stupor, coma, convulsions and death." The taste and smell of medicines containing opium are disguised, and sold under the names of "Drops," "Cordials," "Soothing Syrups," etc. You should not permit any medicine to be given to your children without you or your physician know of what it is composed. CASTORIA DOES NOT CONTAIN NARCOTICS, if it bears the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher.

Genuine Castoria always bears the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher
